31. The Commissioners may, by an order in writing, and subject to the conditions contained in the same, permit any person to make, erect or fix below high-water mark within the port any wharf, dock, quay, stage, jetty, pier, erection or mooring.

Wharves, &c., beyond port limits.

32. In case any wharf, dock, quay, stage, jetty, pier, erection or mooring is, after the date on which this Act comes into force, without the consent in writing of the Commissioners, made, erected or fixed below high-water mark without the limits for the time being of the port, and thereafter the limits of the port are extended so as to include the place in which such wharf, dock, quay, stage, jetty, pier, erection or mooring has been made, erected or fixed, the Commissioners may remove, fill up, or destroy such wharf, dock, quay, stage, jetty, pier, erection or mooring without making any compensation therefor.

33. The Commissioners shall frame—

Scale of tolls and charges to be framed.

(a) A scale of tolls, dues, rates and charges for the landing and shipment of goods from and in sea-going vessels and vessels not being sea-going vessels respectively, at the wharves, quays, stages, jetties and piers, and for the use of such wharves, quays, stages, jetties and piers by such vessels, and for the storing and keeping of any goods stored in any premises belonging to the Commissioners, and for the removal of goods, and for the use of any mooring.

(c) A scale of charges for any services to be performed by the Commissioners or their servants in respect of any vessels or goods, or for the use of any works or appliances to be provided by the Commissioners.

Such scales shall be submitted to the Local Government, and, after approval or modification by the Local Government, shall be published by the Commissioners in the Calcutta Gazette.

The Commissioners may from time to time in like manner, with the like approval or modification and publication, alter such scales.

Every such scale shall be printed in the English and Bengalee languages and characters, and shall be hung up, and kept hung up, in some conspicuous place at the several wharves, quays, stages, jetties, piers, warehouses and sheds.

Commissioners' lien for tolls and charges.

34. For the amount of all tolls, dues, rates and charges leviable under this Act in respect of any goods, the Commissioners shall have a lien on such goods, and shall be entitled to seize and detain them until such tolls, dues, rates and charges are fully paid.

Tolls, dues, rates and charges in respect of goods to be landed shall become payable immediately on the landing of the goods, and in respect of goods to be removed from the premises of the Commissioners or to be shipped for export, shall be payable before the goods are removed or shipped.

The lien for such tolls, dues, rates and charges shall have priority over all other liens and claims, except a lien for freight, primage and general average where such lien has been preserved in the manner hereinafter provided, and a lien for money payable to Her Majesty or the Secretary of State for India in Council under any law for the time being in force.

Owner's lien for freight.

35. If the master or owner of any vessel, at or before the time of landing from such vessel of any goods at any wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier, gives to the Commissioners notice in writing that such goods are to remain subject to a lien for freight, primage or general average of an amount to be mentioned in such notice, such goods shall continue liable after the landing thereof to such lien.

Such goods shall be retained either in the warehouses and sheds of the Commissioners, or, with the consent of the Chief Officer of Customs, in the public warehouses at the risk and expense of the owners of the said goods, until the lien is discharged as hereinafter mentioned.

Discharge of ship owner's lien for freight.

36. Upon the production to any officer appointed by the Commissioners in that behalf of a document purporting to be a receipt for, or a release from, the amount of such lien, executed by the person by or on whose behalf such notice has been given, the Commissioners may permit such goods to be removed without regard to such lien:

Provided that they shall have used reasonable care in respect to the authenticity of such document.

Goods may be removed to warehouses.

37. Whenever goods have, without any default on the part of the Commissioners, been left for two clear days on or in any wharf or shed belonging to the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cause such goods to be removed either to any warehouse belonging to them, or, with the consent of the Chief Officer of Customs, to the public warehouses; and the removal to and detention in any such warehouse shall be at the risk and expense of the owners of the said goods.

Whenever any goods are so removed, the Commissioners shall give notice to the consignee or owner of such goods of such removal, if his address be known, by letter sent by post to such address or left thereat; and shall also publish by notification and in the local newspaper or newspapers notice of such removal, and shall specify therein the numbers, marks and descriptions of such goods so far as the same appear; and the consignee or owner of such goods, in addition to the expenses of their removal, shall be liable, in case the goods are removed to any warehouse of the Commissioners, to a charge for warehousing for the time during which the goods shall remain in the said warehouse.

If the goods are removed to the public warehouses, the said consignee or owner shall be liable to the charges for warehousing goods in such public warehouses; and the said goods shall remain subject to all liens to which they would have been liable if they had remained in the possession of the Commissioners, and shall be subject to the power of sale hereinafter given.

Recovery of tolls and charges by sale of goods.

38. If the tolls, dues, rates and charges payable to the Commissioners in respect of any goods under this Act are not paid, or if the lien for freight, primage or general average where such notice as aforesaid has been given is not discharged, the Commissioners may, and in the latter event, if required by or on behalf of the person claiming such lien for freight, primage or general average, shall, at the expiration of four months from the time when the goods were placed in their custody, sell by public auction the said goods, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the amounts hereinafter directed to be paid out of the produce of such sale.

Before making such sale, ten days' notice shall be given by publication thereof in the Calcutta Gazette and in the local newspaper or newspapers.

If the address of the owner of the goods has been stated on the manifest of the cargo, or in any of the documents which have come into the hands of the Commissioners, or is otherwise known, notice shall also be given to the owner of the goods by letter delivered at such address or sent by the post; but the title of a bonâ fide purchaser of such goods shall not be invalidated by reason of the omission to send such notice, nor shall any such purchaser be bound to enquire whether such notice has been sent:

Provided that, if such goods are of so perishable a nature as, in the opinion of the officer appointed by the Commissioners in that behalf, to render early or immediate sale necessary or advisable, the Commissioners may, within such period not less than twenty-four hours after the landing of the goods as they think fit, sell by public auction the said goods or such portion of them as aforesaid, in which event such notice, if any, shall be given to the owner of the goods as the urgency of the case admits of.

Application of sale proceeds.

39. The proceeds of every such sale shall be applied as follows :—

(a) in payment of the expenses of the sale ;

(b) in payment, according to their respective priorities, of the liens and claims excepted in section thirty-two from the priority of the lien of the Commissioners ;

(c) in payment of the tolls, dues, rates and charges of landing, removing, storing or warehousing the goods, and of all other charges due to the Commissioners in respect thereof.

The surplus, if any, shall be paid to the importer, owner or consignee of the goods, or to his agents, on his applying for the same :

Provided that such application is made within one year from the sale, or reason is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioners why such application was not so made ; and in case such application shall not be so made, nor reason shown, such surplus shall be held by the Commissioners upon trust for the purposes of this Act.

Recovery of tolls and charges by distraint of vessel.

40. If the master of any vessel in respect of which any tolls, dues, rates, charges or penalties are payable under this Act, or any rules or orders made in pursuance thereof, refuses or neglects to pay them or any part of them on demand, the Commissioners may apply to the Collector of Customs of the port, and such Collector shall distrain or arrest such vessel and the tackle, apparel and furniture belonging thereto, or any part thereof, and detain the same until the amount so due to the Commissioners is paid.

And in case any part of the said tolls, dues, rates, charges or penalties, or of the costs of the distress or arrestment, or of the keeping of the same, remains unpaid for the space of five days next after any such distress or arrestment has been so made, the Collector of Customs may cause the vessel or other thing so distrained or arrested to be sold, and, with the proceeds of such sale, shall satisfy such tolls, dues, rates, charges or penalties and costs, including the costs of sale remaining unpaid, rendering the surplus, if any, to the master of such vessel on demand.

Port clearance not to be granted till tolls, &c., are paid.

41. If the Commissioners give to the officer of Government whose duty it is to grant the port clearance of any vessel a notice stating that an amount therein specified is due in respect of tolls, dues, rates, charges or penalties chargeable under this Act, or any rules or orders made in pursuance thereof, against such vessel, or by the owner or master of such vessel, in respect thereof, or against or in respect of any goods on board such vessel, such officer shall not grant such port clearance until the amount so chargeable has been paid.

Compensation for damage to property of Commissioners.

42. In case any damage or mischief is done to any wharves, docks, quays, jetties, stages, piers or works constructed or acquired by the Commissioners under this Act by any vessel, through the negligence of the master thereof or of any of the mariners or persons employed therein, any Magistrate of the town of Chittagong may, on the application of the Commissioners, and on declaration by them that payment for such damage or mischief has been refused or has not been made on demand, issue a summons to the master or owner of such vessel, requiring him to attend on a day and at an hour named in the summons to answer touching such damage or mischief.

If at the time appointed in the summons, and whether the person summoned appears or not, it is proved that the alleged damage was done through such negligence as aforesaid, and that the pecuniary amount of the same does not exceed five hundred rupees, the Magistrate may issue his warrant of distress, under which a sufficient portion of the boats, masts, spars, ropes, cables, anchors or stores of the vessel may be seized and sold to cover the expenses of and attending the execution of the distress, and the pecuniary amount of damage as aforesaid, and such amount shall be paid to the Commissioners out of the proceeds of the distress :

Provided that if, at the time of the damage or mischief, the vessel was under the orders of a duly authorized officer belonging to the Pilot Service or the Harbour-Master's or Master-Attendant's Department, the case shall not be cognizable by the Magistrate under this section.

"River police."

43. The Commissioners shall provide such sums as the Local Government may from time to time re-

48. If at any time the Local Government is satisfied that the purposes intended to be accomplished under this Act have not been, and are not likely to be, properly accomplished by the Commissioners, the Local Government may, by notification, give notice that, unless within six months the Commissioners take measures to the satisfaction of the Local Government for properly accomplishing such purposes, the powers by this Act conferred on the Commissioners will, at the end of such period, be withdrawn and revoked.

On the expiration of the period aforesaid, the Local Government may, if no such measures to its satisfaction have been taken by the Commissioners, declare such powers to be withdrawn or revoked, and may assume such powers; and thereupon such powers shall be withdrawn and revoked accordingly, and all the powers, rights and authorities and all the property vested by this Act in the Commissioners shall thereupon vest in the Local Government.

RESOLUTION ON THE BOARD'S REPORT ON THE ROAD AND PUBLIC WORKS CESS FOR THE YEAR 1885-86.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT—ROAD AND PUBLIC WORKS CESS.

Darjeeling, the 2nd June 1887.

READ—

The Report from the Board of Revenue on the Road and Public Works Cess operations for the cess year 1885-86 terminating on the 30th September 1885.

Read also—

The Report for 1884-85, and the Resolution recorded upon it.

No change was made during the year in the rates at which the cesses were levied, the maximum rates having been levied in all the districts in which the Act is in force, except Backergunge, where the Public Works Cess was levied at full and the Road Cess at half rates. In many districts there has been a reduction of the demand on revaluation, yet upon the whole both cesses continue to show an increase. It is estimated that this increase will continue at the rate of Rs. 62,265 a year, which is the average of the last three years. This is at the rate of about four-fifths per cent. per annum, showing an increase of nearly ten lakhs per annum in the annual value of the property assessed.

2. The following table compares the results of the year with those of three preceding years :—

	Demand.			Balances.			Deduct remissions.	Net arrears.	Percentage of net balance s and gross demand
	Current.	Arrear.	Total	Current.	Arrear.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs	Rs	Rs	Rs.
1882-83	73,10 811	11,43,296	84 54 107	10 00 330	1,77,390	11 84,72	27 940	11,58,780	13 7
1883-84	73,75,607	12,60,272	86 35,989	13 66,778	2,64 198	16,20,074	26,993	15,03,981	18 4
1884-85	74,36,830	15,64,317	90,00,147	11 60,097	3,07,191	14,67,288	38,657	14,28,631	15 8
1885-86	74,97,508	14,65,817	89,63,925	11,24,146	3,08,308	14,27,449	39,351	13,88,098	15 4

The gross demand was thus Rs. 89,62,925. Of this, Rs. 75,38,825 was collected and Rs. 39,351 remitted, leaving a balance of Rs. 13,88,098 outstanding at the close of the year. Though there has been a slight reduc ion both in arrear and in current balances, the Lieutenant-Governor must consider the general result unsatisfactory. In reviewing the report for 1882-83, Sir Rivers Thompson remarked with regret that so large a sum as Rs. 1,77,390 had been left unrealized for more than 12 months. Since that time, however, there has been, not a reduction, but a large increase, in the arrear balances, and at the close of the past year they amounted to Rs. 3,03,303. The net balance (current and arrear) increased from Rs. 11,58,780 in 1882-83 to Rs 15,93,981 in 1883-84, Rs. 14,28,631 in 1884-85, and Rs. 13 88,098 in 1885-86. In 1883-84 the explanation given was failure of crops an l the fact that the last day for payment of the September instalment fell within the Doorga Poojah holidays. In 1884-85 the l rge balances were attributed partly to increase in the demand and partly to the floods which had occurred in some districts. This year no general explanation is offered. With an increase of only Rs. 1,86,797 in the current demand, the outstanding balance has increased by Rs. 2,29,318 since 1882-83. The Lieutenant-Governor trusts that the Board will take measures to prevent a state of things which was unknown before 1883-84 from becoming chronic ; and he begs that district officers may be specially urged to exert themselves to improve the c llections in the current year. While the Provincial funds are barely sufficient to provide for the ordinary requirements of the administration, it is necessary that the just demands of Government in all branches of the revenue should be promptly realized.

3 On comparing the arrear collections with the arrear demand, it is observed that in the following districts the arrear collections fell short of 90 per cent :—

	Percentage of arrear collections on arrear demand.	Percentage of current collections on current demand.
Burdwan	30 9	82 8
Bhagulpore	58 8	91 0
Bankoora ...	61 1	84·9
Hooghly ...	65 6	73·0
Balasore ...	70·6	77·0
Shahabad	72 8	76 7
Manbhoom ...	75·4	96·3
Mozufferpore ...	78 6	76 7
Furreedpore .	79 1	61·8
Pooree ...	79 9	66 7
Cuttack ...	81·4	86·5
Durbhunga	83·2	79·4
Monghyr . .	86·9	85·9
Patna	88·3	83·2
Sarun ...	88 5	84·1
Chittagong	89·7	87·6
Backergunge ...	89·9	81·3

Of these 17 districts, 13 are the same as those which appeared in the list last year. Moorshedabad, Maldah, Midnapore, Pubna, Dacca, and Nudden have disappeared from the list, and Manbhoom, Pooree, Sarun, and Chittagong have been added. Burdwan, which was the second worst district in regard to arrear collections in 1882-83, has during the past three years headed the list. In 1883 84 the percentage collected was 33·3, in 1884-85 43, and in 1885-86

30·9. The explanation always offered is the difficulty of collecting three years' back demand from numerous petty rent-free holdings assessed under Chapter IV. Part II of the Act. The same cause is, however, in operation in the adjoining district of Hooghly, where the percentage of arrear collections has never fallen below 61, and in the past year was 65. The Lieutenant-Governor will be prepared to consider proposals for a general revaluation of the Burdwan district. The explanation offered of the very unsatisfactory percentage in Bhagulpore, that it was due to drought, cannot be accepted as sufficient, nor can the plea put forward regarding the difficulty of realizing the demand from the holders of the ghatwali tenures. The Lieutenant-Governor concurs with the Board in considering that the failure in the districts of Patna Division is insufficiently explained by a reference to the delay inseparable from the certificate procedure. Such an argument is not appropriate in the case of arrears of more than twelve months' standing. The Lieutenant-Governor observes with satisfaction that in Hazaribagh, Purneah, Darjeeling, Bogra, and Rajshahye the whole of the arrear demand, and in Dinagepore 99·2, Beerbhoom 98·4, Lohardugga 97·6, and Rungpore 95·1 per cent., was realized The absence of an arrear demand, as has been repeatedly observed, is the best evidence of efficient collections. In Durbhunga the Collector observes that the falling off is due chiefly to the abolition of the long-standing practice of demanding payment of cesses before accepting the revenue challans during the kist days from the beginning of the current cess year. The Board rightly observe that this illegal practice ought never to have been tolerated by the Collectors of the district.

In some districts of the Patna Division it has been found necessary to resort, as an exceptional measure, to the provisions of section 99 of the Cess Act for the realization of arrears. This is a salutary provision for meeting cases of inveterate contumacy, but the Lieutenant-Governor agrees with the Board in considering that, when it is employed, the strictest supervision should be exercised.

4 The list given above shows the districts in which the arrear collection fell short of 90 per cent. In the following districts, though the arrear collections were not less than 90 per cent., the current collections fell below that amount:—Singbhoom (57·0), Midnapore (77·1), Dacca (78·0), Gya (79·1), Tipperah (80·4), Chumparun (81·0), Nuddea (84·1), Jessore (85·5), Julpigoree (87·0), 24-Pergunnahs (87·2), Maldah (87·6), and Khulna (89·6). Of these, Singbhoom was brought under the operation of the Cess Act only last year.

The percentages of collection on current demand was in Lohardugga 99·8, in Hazaribagh 99·6, in Purneah 98·1, in Beerbhoom 97·7, in Darjeeling 97·3, and in Dinagepore and Rungpore 95.

5. The number of certificates filed and disposed of for the recovery of cess during the past three years is as follows:—

1883-84	74,674	73,386
1884-85	77,631	78,385
1885-86	77,577	80,273

The increase in the number of disposals is simultaneous with a trifling decrease in the number of institutions. The smallest number of certificates filed was, as usual, in the Chota Nagpore Division, viz., 894, being less than the total of a single district in many of the other divisions. Next comes the Presidency Division with 4,657 The largest numbers occur in the Patna Division, 23,490, and the Burdwan Division, 15,753.

6. A complete revaluation of the district of Cuttack has resulted in an increase in the gross annual value of Rs 4,32,274 and in the demand of cesses of Rs. 24,152. In Pooree a revaluation has been completed, except in the Government estate of Khoorda, where it is still in progress. In Balasore the work is still incomplete. General revaluations are proceeding in Gya, Chumparun, and Shahabad. In Purneah also a general revaluation has been sanctioned, but it was not commenced during the year. Operations in Mozufferpore have been temporarily postponed, as it was deemed inexpedient to undertake the work while a survey and record of rights under the Tenancy Act was being effected in a considerable portion of the district.

Partial valuations and revaluations are in progress in several districts, particulars of which are not of much importance. During the year 6,235 separate accounts were opened, under section 44 of the Act, for Rs. 93,584 payable as cess. At the close of the year the number of accounts remaining open was 32,000 for Rs. 13,29,846 of cess. The number of separate cess accounts opened in revenue-free estates, under section 46 of the Act, is 37, against 59 in the preceding year.

7. Before passing orders on the question whether Statement IV should be discontinued, the Lieutenant-Governor desires to be informed of the cause of the large increase in the numbers of estates and tenures assessed with cess as compared with those shown in the last return. His Honour would also wish to know whether, if the statement be retained, any difficulty would be felt in breaking up column 3, which shows the number of estates assessed with cess, into Land Revenue-paying and Land Revenue-free estates.

8. The Lieutenant-Governor's thanks are due to the Board of Revenue for their efficient supervision during the year over this branch of the administration. The names of the Deputy Collectors who have been favourably noticed by the Board will be communicated to the Appointment Department of Government.

ORDERS.—Ordered that a copy of the Resolution, and of the Board's Report, be submitted to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, for information.

Ordered, also, that a copy of the Resolution be forwarded to the Board of Revenue, and copies of the Resolution and of the Board's Report to the Appointment and Revenue Departments of Government, for information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

COLMAN MACAULAY,

Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

Explanation.—Summary.—The normal means of air pressure and temperature are the arithmetical average or means of the reading during the same period for the past ten years. The humidity of the atmosphere is expressed as percentage, saturated air being represented by 100. A clear sky is denoted by 0 and an overcast sky by 10. The number given are the numerical means or averages of the rainfall in that district determined from the returns sent in by the sub-divisional station for the period in question during the past 12 years. The number of station in the district sending in returns divided by the number of stations. A rainy day is one on which at least hundredth of an inch fell.

For the week ending Friday, the 3rd June 1887.

CALCUTTA, the 7th June 1887.

SUMMARY OF THE RAINFALL AND METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 3RD OF JUNE 1887.

It will be remembered that a rather fierce but small cyclone, which had formed in the centre of the Bay of Bengal, had crossed the coast between False Point and Saugor Island on the morning of May 26th. It then continued to travel in a north-north-westerly direction through a part of Orissa and South-West Bengal, then through Chutia Nagpur, and at 10 A.M. of May 27th, the last day of the previous week, the centre of the storm was between Gya and Hazaribagh At this time the storm had become comparatively feeble, and it was evidently rapidly filling up and disintegrating. A strong burst of south-west monsoon winds followed in the rear of the storm, and these monsoon winds were decidedly more pronounced over the western divisions of the province than elsewhere, and the current flowing over East Bengal was comparatively feeble. The excessively heavy rainfall brought up by the cyclonic storm to the districts through which it passed was also noticed in the previous report.

On Saturday, the 28th, a very rapid increase of pressure took place over the whole province, the rise being most rapid in South Behar and Chutia Nagpur. These changes accompanied the rapid filling up of the cyclonic storm, and on this day the storm had practically ceased to exist as anything more than a pronounced barometric depression. The centre of this depression was to the east of Gya, and therefore the storm, or what remained of it, had remained practically stationary since the 27th, or perhaps had only advanced very slightly in a westerly direction. Winds, however, continued to circulate cyclonically round this centre, and both over the area occupied by the depression, and to the south of it, strong winds were blowing. The storm was thus clearly and rapidly breaking up, and with its disintegration excessively heavy rainfall was reported over Behar and North Bengal. On the 29th pressure again increased, the rise being largest in South Behar, where at some stations the increase exceeded a tenth of an inch, and on this day even the slight barometric depression, which was all that had remained of the previous violent cyclone, practically filled up and disappeared. The life history of this cyclone may therefore be said to have lasted from the 19th or 20th of May up till the 29th, a period of nine or ten days only, of which the first two or three days, up till about the 22nd or 23rd, were occupied in its development and intensification, the next two or three days in its advance over the sea, till on the morning of the 26th the centre of the storm crossed the coast a little to the east of Balasore, while the remaining three days were occupied in its advance over the land and its rapid diminution in intensity, until it finally died away in South Behar on the 28th and 29th. Though generated decidedly rapidly, it was of very much greater fierceness than is usual in storms formed at the commencement of the south-west monsoon, but on the other hand it was comparatively small, and the destructive part of the cyclone, or where the winds were very intense, does not appear to have been more than perhaps 100 to 150 miles across.

Though the cyclonic storm thus ceased to exist on the 29th, or early in the week under review, the rainfall which was brought up by the storm itself, and the rainfall due to the powerful inrush of monsoon winds in the wake of the storm, continued for several days longer, and in some districts rain has practically not ceased throughout the week. The storm may in fact be said to have commenced the rainy season in Bengal, for the southerly monsoon winds having once penetrated over the province, they will probably not again retreat, though of course a diminution in the strength of the current must be expected before a further inrush of monsoon winds accompanied by heavy rainfall will take place. The rainfall which was brought about by the storm in its disappearance, and the rainfall subsequent to it, has been of extraordinary heaviness, and some stations have reported nearly 20 inches of rain within 24 hours. These heavy rainfalls will again be referred to under their appropriate headings.

After the disappearance of the storm, the meteorological conditions over the province gradually became more normal; pressure commenced to oscillate slowly as is usual; winds steadily fell off in force and became more moderate; temperature rose until it became more nearly normal, for with the excessive rainfall temperature had been very low; and finally rainfall diminished, though still the weather remained to a great extent that of the rainy season in Bengal.

Pressure—Has again to a certain extent been dependent on the cyclonic storm above referred to, and at the commencement of the week it was rather largely below the normal, the defect being greatest in the west of the province. With the rather rapid rise of pressure which followed after the disappearance of the storm, and when conditions became more settled, pressure at the close of the week became decidedly above the normal at most stations, and on the 3rd the excess varied from about 0·01″ up to 0·05″. For the whole week the variations of the mean pressure from the normal have been comparatively small; at a considerable number of stations the pressure has been slightly below the normal, but at the majority of stations the mean pressure has been above the normal. Pressure has been most largely above the normal in East Bengal, where it averages about 0 05″, but at most stations the excess is not larger than about 0·02″ to 0 03″.

Temperature—Has been low in those districts which have received heavy rainfall, and in particular it has been extremely low in Behar. In South Behar the average mean temperature for the week has been no less than 11·1° below the normal, while in North Behar the defect has been 9°. In Chutia Nagpur the defect in the mean temperature has been 6·2°; and in South-West Bengal and North Bengal between 3° and 4°. In Assam and Orissa the defect has been between 1° and 2°; while on the other hand the mean temperature in East Bengal has been slightly (0·3°) above the normal. For the whole of Bengal and Assam the mean temperature for the week has been no less than 4·5° below the normal.

Rainfall.—The rainfall over the province was heaviest during the first four days in the week, and for the last three days it has been decidedly more local and lighter. This has been particularly the case in South-West Bengal and in Behar, but in North Bengal rainfall has continued longer, practically till the close of the week, while in East Bengal the rain only commenced to fall when it was ceasing in other districts. As has been previously stated, some extraordinarily heavy falls were reported during the breaking up of the storm, and according to well known physical principles, the fall has been heaviest in and near the hills to the north and north-east of the province. The heaviness of the rainfall will be shown by the fact that at Dewanguni in the Mymensingh district the excessive fall of 19·67 inches was reported on June 1st. The following stations have also reported amounts in excess of ten inches of rain in a single day during the week:—Serajgunge, Nowkhilla (Bogra district), Durgapur (Mymensingh district); and the following amounts between 5 and 10 inches within 24 hours.—Meherpur (Nuddea district), Atia, Mymensingh, Jamalpur, and Netrokona all in the Mymensingh district, Sherpore (Bogra district), Mohadebpore, Churamon and Dinagepur in the Dinagepur district, Bhowanigunge, Bogdogra, Rungpur, Julpigori, Debigunge, Dinhatta, Siliguri, Kissengunge, Arrareah, Purneah, Muddapur, Monghyr, and Gogri.

The rainfall for the week has consequently in many districts been largely in excess of the normal for the period. North Bengal has received the largest fall, and the average of all the stations for the week shows that 12·10 inches of rain were received, while the normal fall for the week is only 2·09 inches, thus showing an excess fall of more than ten inches, and that the actual fall was about six times the normal. In North Behar the average fall for the week has been 5·77 inches against a normal fall of 0·61 inches, and thus the actual fall is about nine times the normal. In South Behar the average fall was 5·30 inches, the normal amount being 0·50, and thus the actual is more than ten times the normal. These represent the districts in which the falls have been heaviest, and the next largest fall has been received in South-West Bengal, which has averaged 2·55 inches against the normal of 1·48 inches; Chutia Nagpur has also averaged 1·65 inches during the week against a normal of 0·72 inches, so that both these districts have received falls much larger than the normal. East Bengal and Orissa on the other hand have received falls decidedly smaller than the normal. In East Bengal the rainfall for the week has averaged 2·38 inches against the normal 2·72 inches, and the fall has therefore been 87 per cent. of the normal, while in Orissa the fall has been only 0·28 inches against the normal 1·16 inches, and the actual has only been 24 per cent. of the normal.

The rainfall in Assam can only be judged of from the reports received from three stations, but it would appear that the area of heavy rainfall brought up by the storm has extended to this district as well, and particularly in Cachar and in Sylhet the rainfall appears to have been excessively heavy. The actual fall at Silchar during the week has been 11·57 inches, at Dhubri it has been 8·23 inches, and at Sibsagar 5·47 inches, thus showing that a very heavy precipitation has been taking place over this area.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the Province for the week ending Friday, the 3rd of June 1887:—

The results of observations at the Alipore Observatory are not rigorously comparable with the registers of past years (at the Park-street Observatory). The barometer is about 8 feet higher at Alipore, and, other things being equal, reads therefore ·003 lower. The diurnal range of temperature is also greater at Alipore, and the mean temperature apparently about 0·5° higher; and, finally, the thermometer which furnished the record of temperature at the Surveyor-General's Office during 20 years and upwards is found to read 0·6 higher than the Kew standard thermometer, which is the standard of reference at the present Observatory.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from observations made at 6h, 10h, 16h and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

* A special census of the Europeans in the Darjiling Municipality was recently taken, as the census of this section of the community, taken in February 1881, was not reliable owing to the Europeans being at a minimum in that month. The number of the natives remains as before, as it was not necessary to re-census them. The ratios have consequently been calculated on the revised population under all heads in the above table, except "Age," the ratios under which have been omitted, inasmuch as the census of the Europeans above alluded to cannot be employed as a basis of calculation owing to the results of the census under this head not having been recorded under the authorized form of age classification.

A further expenditure of Rs. 30,964 will be necessary to complete the bridges and the road as a second class one. The balance of the estimate, Rs. 76,256, is for metalling the road, which work is not likely to be undertaken for some time.

5. Out of an estimate of Rs. 75,389 for the Futwa to Behar road, Rs. 43,000, were expended up to the end of the previous year and Rs. 13,500 during the year under report, leaving a balance of Rs. 19,000 to complete the work.

6. Rupees 11,000 were estimated for metalling the Barh railway station to Banarsighât and Dinapur railway station to Neora roads, and Rs. 2,200 and Rs. 5,700 respectively were expended on them during the last cess year. The expenditure in each case was equal to the budget allotment which was under the estimate.

7. Other minor original works, 12 in number, and costing Rs. 15,509 in all, were also undertaken during the year.

8. The total outlay on original works amounted to Rs. 59,790, against Rs. 67,160 in the preceding year.

9. Repairs—On the two principal roads of the district, Bukhtiarpur to Behar, and Futwa to Hilsa, large sums, Rs. 11,450 and Rs. 8,410 respectively, were spent. Unfortunately both these roads suffered heavy damage from the autumn floods, and heavy repairs will be again needed.

10. On the 1st class roads, of which there are 116 miles in the district, the expenditure amounted to Rs. 35,580, giving an average of about Rs. 307 per mile.

11. On the 2nd class roads, of which there are 256 miles, the expenditure was Rs. 22,140, or about Rs. 85 per mile.

12. On the 3rd class roads, of which there are 120 miles, the outlay was Rs. 29,030, or about Rs. 240 per mile, and on the 4th class roads, of which there are 117 miles it, was Rs. 4,500, or about Rs. 39 per mile.

13. On a reference to the annual accounts, it will be seen that, in the case of a number of roads under "repairs," the budget grants exceed the estimates for the roads. This is due to the costs of the previous year's work being provided for in the budget for the year 1885-86 and paid during that year. Such provisions for the 1st class roads amount to Rs. 5,189, for the 2nd class roads to Rs. 1,766, and for the 3rd class roads to Rs. 1,938.

14. The total expenditure on repair works was Rs. 69,520 against Rs. 48,060 of the previous year.

15. Union roads.—The majority of the union roads are reported to be in an unsatisfactory condition. A sum of Rs. 845 was expended on the repairs of the Dinapur Nizamat union roads; but owing to excessive rainfall and heavy traffic, these roads have again fallen out of repair, and consequently nearly all the union roads were now in want of thorough repairs.

16. The total outlay on the union roads amounted to Rs. 1,200 against Rs. 870 of the previous year.

17. Village roads.—The Branch Committees continued to take an interest in the improvement of the village roads, and the outlay on them, including the expenditure on the Sudder sub-division village roads under the supervision of the District Engineer, amounted to Rs. 5,630 against Rs. 7,300 in the preceding year.

18. The Chairman of the Branch Road Cess Committee, Behar, reports that the insufficiency of the funds at his disposal prevented him from doing full justice to the village roads of his extensive sub-division; and that he had consequently to rest content with repairing the existing village roads and constructing a bridge and a culvert on the Bargaun and the Chota Durgah roads respectively. The deficiency of funds, however, can hardly be accepted as a sufficient explanation in this case, as a sum of Rs. 350 remained unexpended at the close of the year.

19. Arboriculture.—The expenditure under this head was incurred almost entirely during the late rains, and chiefly on refilling vacant places. The number of miles of roads, exclusive of the village roads and the roads planted with tar seeds, now planted out with trees is 300.

20. The total outlay on arboriculture was Rs. 4,446 against Rs. 1,060 of the previous year.

23. Working of the Road Act.—The Cess Act worked as smoothly as it did in the preceding years. The gross aggregate demand of the road cess for the year under report was Rs. 2,18,369, of which Rs. 1,80,669 were collected within the year and Rs. 3,511 were previously paid in advance on account of the year, leaving a balance of Rs. 34,138 at the close of the year, or 15·63 per cent. on the gross demand.

24. Four thousand two hundred and eighty-nine certificates were filed during the year as against 2,510 in the preceding year, and 1,167 were pending from the last year, making a total of 5,456 cases; of these, 3,973 were disposed of during the year, leaving 1,483 cases pending at the close of the year under report. Out of the total number disposed of, payment was made in 2,116 cases on the mere issue of notices and certificates, in 431 cases on the attachment of moveable property, and in 1,417 cases on the attachment of immoveable property of the judgment-debtors. Of the remaining 9 cases, 2 were cancelled on objection and 7 were struck off.

25. Great difficulty was experienced in the working of the Certificate Act. At the end of each quarter 3,000 to 4,000 estates fell into arrears, the cess being mostly due from the estates in which there were a large number of co-sharers. The clerical work connected with the certificate procedure has now been reduced, and the execution proceedings have been simplified. The names of all the defaulting proprietors of an estate are now entered in the certificate, but the notice is, as a rule, served on only one or two of the chief defaulters instead of attempting to serve notices at once on all persons entered in the certificate—a task which, in the majority of cases, is almost an impossibility. This practice has greatly simplified the work and rendered the realisation more easy.

26. Working of the District and Branch Committees.—The District Committee worked satisfactorily and the members were always ready to give their attention to the business brought before them.

27. Moulvi Khuda Baksh Khan Bahadur, a non-official member of the Road Cess Committee, continued to be the Vice-Chairman of the Committee till 30th September 1886, when the Committees was replaced by the District Board under the Local Self-Government Act. The Moulvi filled the office with credit and his services were fully appreciated by the Chairman, District Committee.

28. The work of the Branch Committees was also carried on smoothly, and the Barh Branch Committee showed an improvement on the preceding year in the attention which they paid to the repair of the union and village roads in that sub-division, a sum of Rs. 1,063 being judiciously expended on these works.

29. The establishment of the District Board on the 1st October 1886 has marked the opening of a new era in the administration of the local funds. The members of the Board fairly represent the education and intelligence of the district, and the interest they have already shown in the discharge of the important duties assigned to them gives good promise of successful administration.

30. Working of the establishments under the Committee.—The District Engineer displayed his usual energy and activity in looking after the works under his charge in all seasons of the year, and the establishments performed their duties satisfactorily.

The Secretary gave the Magistrate much assistance in the proceedings connected with the establishment of the District Board.

The Head Clerk and Accountant, as in the previous year, performed his duties in a thoroughly efficient and satisfactory manner.

Extract from the proceedings of a Special Meeting of the District Board held on the 18th December 1886.

2. The annual accounts and report for the cess year 1885-86 were laid before and passed by the Board.

No. 248, dated Gya, the 25th February 1887.

From—The Chairman, District Road Committee, Gya,
To—The Commissioner of the Patna, Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith a detailed account of receipts and expenditure of the District Road Fund for the cess year ending on 30th September 1886, prepared under section 178 of Act IX of 1880 (B.C), together with the following report on the administration of the fund during the above year.

2. Annual Accounts.—The accounts were duly audited by the Standing Sub-Committee of Audit, and passed by the Committee at a special meeting held on 29th December 1886, in accordance with the provisions of section 179 of the above Cess Act.

3. Inspection of offices.—The Committee's and District Engineer's offices have not been professionally inspected by the Examiner of Local Fund Accounts after August 1885.

4. Working of the Act.—The working of the Act may be said to have been satisfactory on the whole during the year.

5. Working of the District Committee.—There were 12 meetings held during the year, and a quorum was formed at each of them, with the exception of two, and the members present at the meetings took intelligent interest in the proceedings of the Committee.

6. Working of the Branch Committee.—In this district there are three Branch Committees at Aurungabad, Jehanabad, and Nowadah. The Branch Committee at Aurungabad held seven meetings during the year, out of which three were adjourned for want of sufficient members to make a quorum. The Branch Committee at Jehanabad held four meetings during the year, of which two were adjourned; the attendence of members was poor. The Branch Committee at Nowadah held five meetings during the year. The attendance of members was satisfactory.

7. Working of the Finance Sub-Committee.—The monthly accounts have been regularly audited as required by section 174 of the Road Cess Act.

8. Collection and assessment.—The maximum rate of cess was levied during the year. The percentage of total collection on current demands was 94·5. A heavy arrear balance was due at close of the year from the Tekari estate under the Court of Wards. A full detailed report (No. 16R.C. of 18th November 1886) has been submitted on the subject.

9. Principal and Important Original works.—The Phulgo bridge was undertaken during the year 1884-85, and was opened for traffic at the beginning of May 1886. As the floods at the end of the year were exceptionally severe and destructive, they carried away part of the bridge. Estimate has been made for its immediate repair and extention at a cost of Rs. 19,300. Another timber bridge of 900 feet long on the Morhur river on the Gya-Daudnagur road was commenced in February 1886, and satisfactorily completed and opened for traffic in September 1886. All other works which were shown in the report of the last year under the head of original works have been completed during the year.

10. Repair Works.—All the first, second and third class roads in the printed list and staging bungalows on the roads were maintained according to the sanctioned estimates, and the metalled roads are in good order, except the roads from Gya to Dobhie, on which no improvement is possible until re-metalling is completed throughout. All fair-weather roads were maintained in good order.

11. Village roads.—All these roads were kept in good order as in the previous year, i.e. maintained by the Department through contractors, the landholders or others not coming forward to do so. The union roads have, by order of the Commissioner (vide his letter No. 242G., dated 10th September 1886), been classed with the village roads and maintained accordingly.

12. Arboriculture.—Trees have been maintained on the road sides as hitherto, except at places subject to close and systematic supervision. There has been no special improvement noticeable notwithstanding all the exertions made.

ESTABLISHMENT.

13. Collection Department.—All the staff attached to this department are well spoken of by the Deputy Collector in charge.

Committee's office.—The Committee's office has worked satisfactorily.

Public Works.—The working of the field staff, the District Engineer states, has been in part satisfactory and in part unsatisfactory.

Dated Gya, the 29th December 1886.

We have the honour to report that we have examined the annual accounts of the Gya District Road Committee for the year 1885-86.

The enteries in the annual accounts agree with that of the monthly account.

All the prescribed books are properly kept and brought up to date.

The vouchers were examined and cancelled at the time of monthly audit.

The Accountant, Baboo Bepin Behari Ghosh, has kept his accounts well.

L. P. SHIRRES,
Vice-Chairman.

No. 127, dated Arrah, the 31st December 1886.

From—A. W. B. POWER, Esq., Chairman District Road Fund Committee, Shahabad,
To—The Commissioner of the Patna Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit in duplicate the Annual Accounts of the Shahabad District Road Fund Committee for the year ending 30th September 1886, with the prescribed report under section 178 of the Cess Act.

2. Accounts.—The annual accounts have been audited by a Sub-Committee duly appointed under section 179 of Act IX (B.C.) of 1880.

3. Working of the Act in the matter of collections.—The demand amounted to Rs. 1,45,901 current, and Rs. 37,679, arrears, making a gross demand of 1,83,580. The collections were Rs. 1,39,486, remission Rs. 11-8, leaving a balance of Rs. 44,082-8. As the outstandings have increased the result is unsatisfactory. The zemindars complain that they are unable to realize their rents punctually since introduction of the Bengal Tenancy Act, and have not funds to pay the cess. Every exertion is being made to collect the arrears. No sum due on account of cesses in this district became barred by limitation up to 30th September last. The law works fairly as far as ultimate recovery is concerned, but it involves the issue of large numbers of certificates and consequent delay.

4. Working of the Sudder and Branch Committees.—There were five meetings of the Sudder Committee during the year, out of which one adjourned for want of members to form a quorum, and in each of the other four the members attended in sufficient numbers. Of the Audit Sub-Committee's members Baboo Bhagwan Dass, a member of the District Committee and of the Special Audit Sub-Committee deserves the thanks of the Committee for his regular attendance at audit and other meetings.

There are three Branch Committees in the district of Shahabad, one at Bhabuah and the other at Buxar and the third at Sasseram, and each of them exercises independent powers under section 165 of the Cess Act. The Branch Committees having received valuable assistance from the District Engineer, worked on the whole fairly during the year. It is a question, however, whether original works, other than a very petty description can advantageously be entrusted to them as it is quite the exception for them to have an establishment qualified to execute such works successfully.

There was no quorum at one of the five meetings held in the Bhabuah and in the other two sub-divisions sufficient number of members attended to form a quorum at each occasion.

The members who attended the Buxar Branch Committee with one or two exceptions do not take any general interest in the condition of the roads, but the members of the Sasseram Branch Committee displayed a fair amount of interest in the matters that came before them for discussion, and some of them rendered material assistance in checking and inspecting the work done. Those deserving of special mention are Baboos Sree Gobind Sahai, Raj Rajesari Pershad Singh, Moonshees Mahesh Pershad Debi Pershad, and Mir Ali Nabi and Moulvi Abdul Samad Khan.

* * * * *

5. Audit of monthly accounts.—The monthly accounts are regularly audited by a standing Sub-Committee formed under section 174 of the Cess Act, consisting of the Vice-Chairman and two non-official members before they are submitted to the Accountant-General, Bengal. The accounts were found by the Audit Committee in good order.

6. Inspection of accounts.—The offices of the Chairman and District Engineer have not been inspected by the Examiner of Local Fund Accounts, Bengal, during the year under report.

7. Chairman's Office.—The establishment attached to the Chairman's office is reported by the Audit Committee to have worked satisfactorily during the year.

8. Collection Office.—The collection establishment has not worked satisfactorily during the year, the personnel of the office requires strengthening.

9. Work establishment.—Mr. J. Mcnamara, the District Engineer, who has been in this district for a long series of years, has continued to merit and receive the thanks of the Sudder Committee for efficient and conscientious discharge of his duties; he has also given most valuable assistance to Branch Committees by his advice on professional matters.

The establishment under him has worked well during the year, with the exception of two members concerning whose conduct a special report from the District Engineer is awaited.

10. Original works.—The original works executed during the year cost Rs. 24,181-3-2, and the chief of them are described below :—

I. Bridging and metalling Chupra ghat and Arrah road No. 5, class I and II, sanctioned in Bengal Government No 425L C., dated 24th February 1885, and the Commissioner's No. 79G., dated 4th March 1885. The total expenditure to end of the year is Rs. 39,452, against the estimated cost of Rs. 51,987, leaving a balance of Rs. 12,535 for work remaining to be done, towards which an allotment of Rs. 8,138, has been provided in the budget for the current year. Kunker to the full requirement of the road has been collected, and, with trifling exceptions, spread on the entire length of the road which has been opened to traffic. The bridge across the Sauri Nuddi which was completed up to beam level, with the approaches made up and the several causeways provided in the estimate were all tested by the recent floods. They stood perfectly and emerged uninjured from the floods.

The project which possesses the novel feature of a metalled, bridged and causewayed road, mostly below flood level, along a line of country subject to extraordinary floods has thus been proved to be successful. It is believed to be the largest work of the kind that has yet been undertaken in Bengal. The platform of the Sauri bridge will be completed during the cold weather, and the entire work will, it is expected, be practically completed before the rains, in anticipation of the ensuing year's allotment.

II.—Causewaying and improving Sinha and Arrah road, No. 11, class IV, sanctioned in Commissioner's No. 847, dated 22nd October 1884, completed at a cost of Rs. 3,887, against Rs. 4,039, the amount of estimate.

III.—Raising, bridging and metalling Tendooni and Nasreegunj road, portion of Nasreegunj-Doomraon road No. 2, class I and II, sanctioned in Bengal Government No. 165L.C., dated 2nd June 1886, and Commissioner's No. 179, dated 17th June 1886, for Rs. 50,172. The revised budget allotment for the year was Rs. 100, against which there is an expenditure of Rs. 82 for nicking and lying out work. The sum of Rs. 13,845 has been provided in the current year's budget for original works on the worst portion of the road.

IV.—Metalling from Jugdispur to Behea, being portion of the road from Peero to Beehea, No. 8, class II, sanctioned in Bengal Government No. 290, dated 5th July 1886, and Commissioner's No. 234G., dated 22nd July 1886. The budget allotment for the season was Rs. 2,000, against which there was an expenditure of Rs. 2,493, the excess being met from savings from other works.

11. State of roads.—The annual superficial repairs of the roads under the District Committee were all promptly executed immediately after the cessation of the rains, so that the expenditure incurred on them was utilized for the full period of the fair weather, during which time alone are they of much use.

12. Arboriculture.—One mile of the road under Buxar Branch Road Cess Committee was planted with fruit trees protected by mud gharanies at a cost of Rs. 215-4-3. No extension was made under this head during the year in the Sudder sub-division, as the maintenance of the 130 miles of road planted out with trees during recent years, involving an expenditure during the year of Rs. 4,389, is considered ample for present requirements.

13. Floods.—The Hathea, or concluding rainfall of the season, was unusually heavy this year in Behar and the Chota Nagpore Division, and specially on the Kymore Hills in Shahabad, which latter comprises a rocky catchment of over 700 square miles, and gives rise to the several nuddies which all debauch into the plains of Shahabad. The floods of the Kas and the Durgauti nuddies were extraordinarily high; that of the Kas, as tested both by the Irrigation Department and ourselves, being the highest on record.

The first class metalled and bridged roads constructed in Shahabad under road cess management are mostly all designed to overcome the natural obstructions and difficulties caused by these nuddies. It is satisfactory to note that the roads and bridges so constructed have stood the test well, no bridge under the District Committee having been injured, and what trifling damage did occur by scour to road slopes, &c., did not exceed the value of about Rs. 400 altogether.

Amount as per budget	3,666 0 0
Amount spent	3,699 11 6
Excess over Budget ...	33 11 6

The excess expenditure was incurred owing to the part payment of Rs. 74-13 3 on account of pay of three extra mohurirs appointed for writing certificate, sale proclamation, &c., as per Board's letter No. 148A, dated 20th February 1885, received under cover of Commissioner's No. 476R, dated 4th March 1885, and has been met from the general savings of budget grants.

Stationery and Printing.

Amount as per budget	1,030 0 0
Amount expended	1,048 11 9
Excess over budget ...	18 11 9

The excess expenditure of Rs. 18-11-9 is trifling, and has been met from the general savings of the budget grants.

Original Works.

Repairs.

Amount as per budget	87,173 0 0
Amount expended	63,095 0 9
Less than budget ..	24,077 15 3

The large decrease under the heads Original and Repairs, amounting to Rs. 5,455 12-10 and Rs. 24,077-15-3, respectively, is owing to the fact that in consequence of the recent orders of Government to set apart one quarter's kist as a reserve balance, the District Committee have been obliged to reduce their estimated expenditure accordingly, and many useful original and repair works have therefore most unavoidably been held in abeyance

Tools and Plants.

Excess over the budget ...	67 5 4

The excess expenditure was incurred owing to the purchase of kodahs, and has been met from the general savings of the budget grants.

W. A. INGLIS,

Vice-Chairman, District Road Fund Committee, Shahabad.

No. 102, dated Mozufferpore, the 3rd December 1886.

From—T. NORMAN, Esq., Chairman of the District Road Committee, Mozufferpore,
To—The Commissioner of the Patna Division.

Road Fund.—I have the honour to submit, in duplicate, the accounts of income and expenditure of the District Road Fund for the cess year 1885 86, together with a short report on the working of the Committee and the administration of their funds.

Working of the District Committee.—The Committee at present consists of sixteen members of which seven are officials and nine non-officials. Of the non-official members three are European planters and six native zemindars. There were eleven meetings during the year, and the average attendance was 6·2, in which the members evinced fair interest. No meeting had to be postponed for want of a quorum. The office of the Vice-Chairman was held throughout the year by Baboo Ramdhary Sahai, a zemindar, who paid due attention to his duties. As in former years, the planter members took a very lively interest in the proceedings of the Committee, and rendered considerable assistance in supervising the expenditure of grants made to them for repairs to roads in their neighbourhood. The native members also took a considerable interest in the proceedings of the meeting, and displayed sufficient independence in discussing the matters put before them.

Collection and Assessment.—The maximum rate of cess was levied during the year. The collection appears to have been satisfactory, being in excess of the current demand by Rs. 1,821-11-4, which is principally due to the realisation of arrears outstanding at the close of the preceeding year. A separate report on the subject will be submitted by the cess collection department.

Audit of Annual Accounts.—The accounts were punctually prepared and audited by a Sub-Committee under the provision of section 179 of the Cess Act IX (B.C), and finally passed by the District Committee at their meeting held on the 27th November 1886.

Audit of Monthly Accounts.—Before submitting the monthly accounts to the Accountant-General, Bengal, they are regularly audited and scrutinised by a standing Sub-Committee appointed under section 174 of the Cess Act, consisting of the Vice-Chairman and two other members. The accounts were always found in good order and the prescribed registers properly kept up.

Inspection of Offices.—The Committee's and District Engineer's offices were inspected by the Examiner of Local Fund Accounts in Bengal and his Assistant in March 1886, and his report was favourable. These offices were also inspected by the Collector and Chairman at the end of each half-year, and the prescribed books were found by him neatly kept and posted up to date.

Income and Expenditure—The total receipts of the year, including Rs. 1,288-8-0 the balance of the previous year, were Rs. 1,61,219-4-0. The total expenditure during the year was Rs. 1,57,243-5-3, leaving a balance at the close of the year of Rs. 3,975-14-9 available for the next year. The details under the several heads will appear from the annual accounts submitted herewith.

Working of the Branch Committees.—There are two Branch Committees in the district, one at Hajipore and the other at Sitamurhee. The Vice-Chairman of the Hajeepore Branch Committee, which is vested with the full powers of a District Committee, under sections 164 and 165 of the Cess Act, reports as follows:—

"Original works, such as construction of bridges and metalling of roads, the cost of which exceeded Rs. 300, and surface repairs costing Rs. 100 per mile and above, were directly under the District Engineer's supervision, as in previous years, the overseer attached to the Branch Committee alone being in charge of minor works. This inconvenient arrangement continued till April last, when on the District Engineer's suggestions made in his letter No. 983 of the 3rd April 1886, all works excepting the surface repairs of roads made over to private gentlemen, were considered under his charge either directly or through the overseer, and thus the whole expenditure of the Committee is more readily and thoroughly controlled in his office.

"The Collector of the district was Chairman of the Branch Committee, and the Sub-Divisional Officer, Vice-Chairman. In addition to these there were ten non-official members and the Sub-Deputy Collector. The total number of members is now 13.

"There were 10 meetings of the Branch Committee held during the year, and the average attendance was 6 3. A certain amount of inconvenience must of course be felt by those members who reside at some distance from head quarters, and credit must be allowed them for having attended so regularly. These difficulties were to a certain extent obviated this year by the arrangement which I have inaugurated of holding the meetings at the railway station in the interval between the morning train's arrival and departure, one of the waiting rooms having been put at my disposal by the Manager Mr. Bell."

The working of the Sitamurhee Branch Committee was not so satisfactory as could be desired. During the year under review, the Committee held eleven meetings, and the average attendance was about five. It consists of eight members, of which three are officials and five non-officials. Of the non-official members Mr. Rennie of Belsund Factory deserves special notice for the lively interest he takes in the proceedings of the meeting, and his zeal in all matters connected with the improvement of communications in the Sitamurhee sub-division. Nothing was done at any of the meetings deserving of special mention, except that at its meeting in July last the Branch Committee, under the instructions of the District Committee, gave up the direct execution of works costing Rs. 300 or less to the District Engineer, who is the executive officer of the whole district, and should carry out and execute all works and repairs appertaining to district works. The Vice-Chairman reports that the Branch Committee's functions are now confined to sanctioning expenditure, offering suggestions as to the roads and other works, which ought to be repaired or made, and making payments for works within the sub-division; apparently forgetting that his Branch Committee should exercise the same control over the works within the sub-division that the District Committee and Hajipur Branch Committee exercise respectively within the other two sub-divisions; and also forgetting that the important matter of arranging for surface repairs by private individuals is altogether and exclusively in the Branch Committee's hands, and they should not employ the District Engineer to make such arrangements. The attention of the Vice-Chairman has been drawn to his misconception of the duties and responsibilities of the Branch Committees.

Committee's operations on the improvement and maintenance of district communications.

THE District Engineer reports as follows :—

Original works.—The following are the most important works under this head which have been carried out during the year under review :—

(1) Improving Kurlahya Ghât road No. 4 from Mozufferpore towards Seetamurhee, the sub-divisional head-quarters. This work, the estimated cost of which is Rs. 77,038, has nearly been completed to sanctioned estimates. The waterway as provided has, however, been proved inadequate to carry off excessive floods as shown during the late inundations, the road bund having been extensively breached.

(2) Constructing a timber bridge of 11 spans (9 of 50 feet and 2 of 25 feet) over the Bur Gunduck river at Akhara Ghât. This work is progressing satisfactorily and will most probably be completed before the ensuing rainy season. Owing to the flood level of the river this season having been so above that of any previous record, I consider the waterway provided for is insufficient. Revised plans and estimates are in course of preparation and will shortly be submitted.

(3) Constructing a timber bridge over the Kedana river on the Shahpur road No. 18. The timber work of this bridge has been completed during the year. General traffic was passed over it during the late rainy season.

(4) Constructing Bairagnia road from Barharwa to Bairagnia, one of the principal grain marts on the Nepaul frontier. The estimate for the work having received the sanction of Government late in the year, a comparatively small quantity of earthwork has been done

(5) Constructing a timber bridge of 6 spans of 25 feet each over the Bya river on the Mahwa road No. 14. The bridge has been completed satisfactorily.

(6) Improving Huzrut Jandaha road No. 33, from Hajipore to Huzrut Jandaha, 20 miles in length. The Gangta, Gogra, and Dyninasia have been bridged during the year.

3. Besides the above, 14 minor bridges varying from 2 feet to 10 feet waterway have been constructed, heavy and narrow portions of certain roads metalled and widened, and several platform bridges arched over.

4. Maintenance and repairs.—The roads in the Committee's list, aggregating 141 in number and 1,465¾ miles in length, were maintained during the year. The cart-tracks on the sides of the main roads were this year extensively opened up and much used during the dry season by cart traffic. This has to a large extent checked the vexatious question of encroachments, and has also protected the central portion of the roads from the wear and tear consequent on heavy traffic.

5. The heavy floods of the Bagmutty and Bur Gunduck rivers have caused considerable damage to most of the roads in the district, especially in the Sudder sub-division, many of them having been breached in several places by the vast sheet of water that inundated the adjoining country. These damages are, however, now being repaired.

6. The number of roads in the Committee's list is so large that it is impossible to keep them in efficient condition with the limited resources at the disposal of the Road Cess Committee. In my opinion a number of the unimportant roads should either be expunged from the list or maintained as village roads until the more important arterial communications are thoroughly improved.

Arboriculture.—No new planting has been taken in hand during the year. The trees planted during the previous years on the sides of roads have been maintained.

Village roads.—The Committee is fully alive to the importance of opening village communications for the benefit of the cess payers living in the mofussil. The applications of village headmen and European planters for grants for repairing the village roads in their neighbourhood were entertained as far as possible, and the advances made to them during the year were adjusted by actual work by the end of the year.

Public Works Establishment.—The District Engineer reports that the establishment under him worked well. The District Engineer himself has continued to give complete satisfaction to the Committee.

Committee's Office Establishment.—The Committee's office establishment under Baboo Ramjebon Ghose worked satisfactorily. The Accountant is careful and intelligent, and with a little more attention to detail the office work will show nothing to complain of.

DISTRICT ROAD FUND OFFICE, MOZUFFERPORE;
The 3rd December 1886.

CERTIFIED that the balance at credit of District Road Fund on 30th September 1886 was Rs. 14,105-11-3 (fourteen thousand one hundred and five rupees, eleven annas and three pies only).

MOZUFFERPORE TREASURY,
The 22nd November 1886. } Treasury Officer.

No. 61, dated Durbhunga, the 9th December 1886.

From—The Chairman, District Road Cess Committee, Durbhunga,
To—The Commissioner of the Patna Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit the following report on the operations supported by the Road Fund of this district during the last cess year 1885-86.

Committee.—The District Committee consisted during the year of 22 members, of whom two left the district and did not attend any meeting. * * * *

In comparison with the statistics of previous years, I cannot report any improvement in the attendance of the members; but with regard to the European members, as a whole, I am glad to say that the interest which they heretofore took in the Committee's work has continued unabated during the year under report, and they helped the Chairman and the District Engineer as energetically as they used to do in the matter of repairing roads and keeping them in proper order throughout the year. Of the native non-official members I must express the same opinion which I have always had, which is, that they are, with few exceptions, apathetic in attending meetings, and they take little interest in the Committee's deliberations.

Branch Committees.—There are two Branch Committees in the two sub-divisions of the district, viz. Madhubani and Tajpore. In Madhubani the Branch Committee consists of 12 members; in Tajpore the number is only five. These Committees, I am sorry to report, existed only in name, both of them having met only once during the year for the purpose of considering the policy in accordance with which the village roads in the sub-divisions were to be repaired. The work of these Committees is done practically by the sub-divisional officers with the help of the European planters residing in their respective jurisdictions. As deliberative bodies, I hold these Committees to be utter failures, and I think they require total reconstruction before they can be expected to be of any real service. The matter has been so long deferred only in view of the introduction of the scheme of Local Self-Government.

The work of these Branch Committees, which consists chiefly in repairing village roads in their respective jurisdictions, was however done very efficiently and satisfactorily by the sub-divisional officers concerned. Hundreds of miles of very important village roads, which form so many feeders to the district roads, were repaired by them and kept up in good order throughout the year.

Income.—The income of the Committee is chiefly derived from the road cess.

The year commenced with an arrear balance of Rs. 33,647, and as the demand of the year was Rs. 2,07,166, minus Rs. 17,372 paid in advance in previous years, the net total realizable demand was Rs. 2,23,441. Of this Rs. 1,93,516 were realized during the year and Rs 1,282 remitted, leaving a balance of Rs. 31,207 at the end of the year. The percentage of the collections and the arrears were 86·6 and 13·3 as compared with 83· and 15· of the previous year.

Expenditure.—The details of the expenditure during the year under the several heads are fully set forth in the annual accounts annexed herewith. I will offer the following remarks with regard to some of the items.

Original Works.—A very large amount was allotted for original works during the year, and the allotment consisted of the cost of construction of some very important bridges and culverts throughout the district. But I am sorry to report that very few of these works were taken in hand during the year in consequence of the personal changes in the post of the District Engineer under the Committee Mr. Kuster, the former Engineer, was replaced by Mr. Luff in November, and Mr Luff was again replaced by Mr. Stevens in August following

The following works of a permanent nature were executed during the year :—

1 Two five-feet masonry bridges on the Road Nagurbasti to Gooder ghât, cost Rs. 611.
2. One eight-feet culvert on the Baherah-Hatti road, cost Rs. 183.
3. Two wooden-top bridges provided with masonry bridges, cost Rs. 98.
4. Protective work to Rampura culvert on the road Jitwarpore to Mallinagar, completed, cost Rs. 445.
5. Of the five miles of metalling on the Raika road, materials for 2 miles were collected.
6. Earthwork construction of two entirely new roads, viz Phulparas to Ghoghraria and Jhitki to Nirmali The bridges required for these roads will be built during the current year, and for this due provision has been made in the budget.

All other original works which were left undone last year have been provided for in the current year's budget. The plans and estimate for these works are being prepared by the new District Engineer, and it is expected that they will be finished before the end of this year.

Repairs.—There are 754 miles of district roads in Durbhunga, of which 575 miles were repaired by the District Engineer. The remaining miles were repaired through the agency of the planters, who rendered much help in the matter. The two sub divisional officers also rendered material service in repairing the district roads.

Besides heavy earthwork and petty bridge repairs on roads, the following works of a substantial nature were executed during the year under this head :—

1. Repairs of parapets of 74 bridges and culverts, cost Rs. 1,093.
2. Thorough and petty repairs of 106 wooden bridges, cost Rs. 2,344.
3. Repairs of 6½ miles of metalled roads, cost Rs. 4,674.
4. Ditto of five masonry bridges, cost Rs. 159.
5. Arching over of 12 timber bridges, cost Rs. 3,293.
6. Pucca parapets and faces built to 26 pipe drains, cost Rs. 259.
7. Metalling of the roadway over 30 bridges, cost Rs 775.

The floods were unusually severe during the last year, and almost all the roads suffered more or less seriously in consequence. The two rivers of the district, viz. Bagmatti and Kumla, joined together a few years back at a place about 15 miles above Durbhunga, and the bed of the Bagmatti through which the whole volume of water now passes is gradually widening every year. In consequence, the two big iron bridges over the Bagmatti close to the town of Durbhunga were seriously damaged during the last year. The abutments of one side of both the bridges have given way, and it has been found necessary to dismantle a portion of the iron work with a view to save the remaining portions of the bridges. Measures are being taken to rebuild these bridges by providing an additional span or two to each, the cost being duly provided in the current year's budget.

The state of the roads is, as I can state from personal observation, not so bad as might have been anticipated at the close of the year of such unprecedentedly heavy floods; the District Road Committee have doubtless incurred a very serious loss of some lakhs of rupees in value of roads destroyed or damaged this year. The absence of suitable bridges on roads, consisting of good high embankments, has always been a notable feature of Durbhunga roads; but every endeavour will be made this year to meet the most urgent requirements of each case so far as funds will permit. The very greatest attention is being paid to this subject.

Village roads—The total allotments made in the budget for village roads to Rs. 22,000 which were distributed as follows :—

	Rs.
Darbhunga	7,000
Madhubani	8,000
Tajpur	7,000

The work in the Sudder sub-division was done through the agency of the planters under my own supervision. The work done was eminently satisfactory. The village roads in the sub division were also repaired through the same agency under the immediate superintendence of the sub-divisional officers, both of whom report that the money allotted to them was spent very profitably. The work under this head consisted not only of petty earthwork repairs but also of substantial bridges.

The annual accounts are submitted herewith.

No. 358, dated Chupra, the 3rd January 1887.

From—A. L. CLAY, ESQ., Chairman, District Road Committee, Sarun,

To—The Commissioner of the Patna Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith a copy of the detailed account of receipts and expenditure of the Sarun District Road Fund for the cess year 1885-86.

2. The annual accounts show in detail the works that were sanctioned during the year under review, and also the expenditure incurred thereon. It is therefore needless to recapitulate the figures in this report.

3. A copy of the explanatory sheet, relating to certain points in connection with the annual accounts, prepared by the Vice-Chairman, accompanies the annual accounts.

4. All original works and repairs in the Sewan sub-division were executed by the Sewan Branch Committee, and those in the Gopalgunge sub-division, excepting original works on main roads, were done by the Gopalgunge Branch Committee out of funds allowed to them by the District Committee.

5. There are about 1,058 miles of roadway in the district, of which about 84 miles are metalled and 962½ miles unmetalled, and new metalling is in progress on 11½ miles. At the suggestion of the Divisional Superintendent of Works, the Committee have resolved not to spend money on new metalling, but to pay more attention to improvement and repairs of the cart-liks of the important roads. The District Engineer has been asked to prepare estimates. He has since submitted estimates for improving cart-liks on the Chupra-Rewaghat and Chupra-Sutterghat roads.

The roads have been a good deal cut up by the late heavy rains, and require extensive repairs. Speaking generally, they are, I think, in better order in Sewan than in the Sudder sub-division, owing probably to better supervision. Orders have been given to keep bullock-carts to the side-liks, which are especially intended for this kind of traffic; and if these orders are attended to, and cart-liks everywhere well maintained, there should be hardly any need for metalled roads in the district at all.

6. Due attention was paid to the improvement and maintenance of village communications. The works were chiefly carried out by the Managers of Indigo Factories and native gentlemen. As regards important bridges on village roads, they were done departmentally. The list of village roads in the Chupra sub-division has been revised, and it is proposed to keep the roads of this list in good order in future.

7. During the year under review, 10½ miles of roadway were planted with trees, chiefly fruit-bearing. Mahogany seedlings have been planted experimentally in the compound of the Road Cess Office building and Chupra dâk bungalow. The nurseries have been kept well supplied with plants.

8. As noticed above, a good deal of damage was done to road works by the late heavy rains, and portions of the Chupra Goothny Road were injured by encroachments of the river Gogra. A 10-feet bridge on the Domaigurh-Sohagpore road gave way.

9. Progress on some works was slow, and others were not undertaken, though funds were provided. Some allowance must be made for disorganisation of the District Engineer's staff, caused by the dismissal and (eventually under Commissioner's order) discharge of the late supervisor Koylash Chundra Mookerjee.

The requisition of security deposit from contractors which had not previouly been insisted on, seems to have deterred some from coming forward to undertake works. It is hoped that, with a new and better class of men in future, there will be no further difficulty of this kind. The practice formerly existing, of deducting 10 per cent. from contractor's bills, has been discarded as loose and irregular, and calculated to throw works into the hands of men without means, who cannot be trusted to execute them satisfactorily.

10. The office establishment has worked satisfactorily, and the accounts have been fairly kept.

G. H. WALSH,
Vice-Chairman.

Explanatory sheet to accompany the annual accounts for the cess year 1885-86.

RECEIPTS.

Cess on lands.—The collection under this head has been Rs. 1,83,555-14-4, or Rs. 13,161-14-4 more than the estimate. This is owing to realisation of heavy arrears.

Rent of bungalows.—There has been no receipt on account of rent of Chupra Local Fund bungalow, owing to Mr. Ellis, the present occupant, being exempted from payment of any rent, agreeably to Resolution 6 of the District Road Committee at a meeting held on the 10th April last.

Interest on cess on lands.—The amount of interest realised was Rs. 3,298-0-6 against Rs. 5,191 estimated for. The difference is due to the fact that the amount of long outstanding arrears which had to be realised during the year under review was less than what was expected at the time of the preparation of the budget estimates for that year.

EXPENDITURE.

Refund of cess.—Rupees 359-7-6 represent remissions of cess in respect of certain mehals which were doubly assessed, and are included in the statements sanctioned in Commissioner's Nos. 46R. and 73R., dated 13th May and 17th June 1886 respectively. No re-appropriation of budget grants was necessary under this head, as the expenditure was merely a paper one. The amount was not paid to the parties concerned, but was credited in their favour in the Road Cess accounts.

Establishment and contingencies of the Office of Collection.—As an exceptional case, Rs. 26 were paid to the naib nazir on account of his travelling allowance for going into the interior for collection of road cess arrears, as per Resolution 5 of the District Committee at a meeting held on the 10th April 1886.

Original works and repairs.—The figures in italics with plus signs indicate the extra sums sanctioned by the Committee after the preparation of the budget estimates, and those with minus signs represent the sums transferred to other works. The statement of re-appropriation shows in detail the transfer made from one work to another.

There are some original and repair works for which due provisions were made in the budget, but yet they were not undertaken within the year. A copy of the explanation called for from the District Engineer on the subject will be submitted on receipt.

Advances.—The unadjusted outstanding advances at close of the year were as detailed under—

G. H. WALSH,
Vice-Chairman.

No. 242, dated Motihari, the 26th January 1887.

From—C. F. WORSLEY, Esq., Collector and Chairman, Chumparun,
To—The Commissioner of the Patna Division.

WITH reference to the circular No. 973A of the 14th September 1880, forwarded with your No. 283J circular of the 25th September 1880, I have the honour to submit the annual accounts and report* of the District Road Fund for the cess year 1885-86.

* In duplicate.

The balance left unrealized is a sum of Rs. 14,260 on the last day of the cess year. This large balance in the unrealized demand is owing to the introduction of the procedure in the working of the Certificate Act.

There were six meetings of the Sudder District Road Cess Committee and one of the Branch Committee held during the year. * * * * * * * * * *

Eight hundred and two and a half miles of roads have been repaired during the year and kept in good order.

Twenty-nine bridges and 20 culverts have been repaired, six bridges and three culverts renewed, and one bridge and 20 culverts constructed during the year under report.

Twenty-two thousand six hundred and twenty-five trees have been planted along the sides of roads to demarcate the boundary of the district roads with protection, and the work of demarcation is well in hand. All the principal roads have been planted with tar seeds, most of which are growing, and where required have been replanted.

The timber for building the Khurwa bridge on the Motiharı to Segauli road has been provided, and the work will be commenced this year. Some of the materials, bricks, &c., have been collected for the dâk bungalow at Bettiah and the work was commenced early in this year.

There is a Branch Committee at Bettiah, and allotment for expenditure on village roads in the sub-division is placed to the credit of the Chairman, Branch Road Cess Committee, and the greater portion of the work is done under personal supervision of the Chairman, Branch Committee, with an establishment, consisting of one overseer and a peon, at a monthly cost of Rs. 25.

The Committee desire to place on record their high appreciation of the services of Mr. E. T. Sealy, District Engineer. The officers of the establishment worked satisfactorily during the year.

Form of Audit Certificate.

WE hereby certify that the books and accounts specified below* prescribed for the Road Cess Office and for the office of the District Engineer are duly kept up, and that they have been posted for the year 1885-86, and have been duly scrutinized by the Sub-Committee.

Also that the treasury officer's abstract of the account of the Committee for the year has been duly received, checked with the cash and pass-books, and found to agree therewith.

That the vouchers for the payments of the year have been cancelled.

That all necessary steps have been taken for the recovery or adjustment of outstanding advances.

That none but duly sanctioned expenditure has been incurred; and that, in the case of original works, the register of monthly expenditure shows clearly the amount of sanctioned estimate, the grant for the year, and the expenditure on each work to end of the year.

And generally that the work of the office has been performed with carefulness and regularity, and with a due observance of the rules prescribed by Government.

CHARLES H. ALLEN.
E. BOVILL.

No. 112G., dated Bankipore, the 8th March 1887.

From—F. M. HALLIDAY, ESQ., Commissioner of the Patna Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

IN forwarding in original the Road Fund reports and accounts of the several districts in this division for the past cess year 1885-86, I have the honour to make the following remarks:—

1. The delay in the submission of these returns is due to the non-receipt of the papers from the Gya district until the 26th ultimo.

2. The result of the collections of cess during the year, though showing an improvement as compared with 1883-84, compares unfavourably with that of the year preceding, and there was still a very large balance outstanding at the close of the year, viz. Rs. 2,43,088, as detailed below—

DISTRICT.	Old arrear.	Arrear of 1885-86.	Total arrear.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Patna	4,431	29,707	34,138
Gya	1,254	40,414	41,668
Shahabad	10,218	33,864	44,082
Mozufferpore	8,647	31,149	39,796
Durbhunga	5,635	37,765	43,400
Sarun	4,960	20,710	25,670
Chumparun	74	14,260	14,334
	35,219	2,07,869	2,43,088

* (a) In Road Cess office—(1) Cash-Book, (2) Cash Abstract Book, (3) Register of monthly receipts and expenditure, (5) Account of advances.

(b) In District Engineer's office—(1) accounts, viz. (1) Files of contract certificates, (2) Files of bills for purchases or purchase list, (3) Files of day-books, (4) Files of establishment bills, (5) Files of acquittance roll, (6) Road metal return; II Books, viz. (1) Imprest cash-book, (2) Register of Bills passed, (3) Register of works and repairs, (4) Register of tools and plant, (5) Register of Road metal, (6) Account of advances.

3. The year opened with a working balance of Rs. 2,35,596 in the hands of the several Committees in the division, and the net receipts during it amounted to Rs. 11,91,107, including the sum of Rs. 38,667 placed at credit on account of advances recovered and also Rs. 1,500 contributed by Government—vide your No. 38L.C., dated 26th April 1886, towards the cost of constructing a dâk bungalow at Bettiah. Thus there was a total sum of Rs. 14,26,703 available for expenditure.

4. The net disbursements of the year aggregated Rs. 10,60,043, as shown on the margin, leaving a closing balance in the hands of the Committees of Rs. 3,66,680, which exceeds the amount of a quarter's kist of all the Committees taken collectively. But taking the case of each individual Committee, the closing balance left in the hands of the Committees of Gya and Mozufferpore falls far short of the limit imposed in paragraph 7 of the Government Resolution No. 1098R.C., dated 7th April 1886, the former having in hand only Rs. 1,499 and the latter Rs. 3,976 out of the total receipts of Rs. 1,99,898 and Rs. 1,53,310 respectively.

		Rs.
1.	Original Works	3,89,934
2.	Repairs	3,80,990
3.	Tools and plant	13,908
4.	Staging bungalow repairs, &c. ...	12,178
5.	Ditto establishments ..	3,106
6.	Public Works and other establishments	2,19,637
7.	Contributions towards the cost of establishment of the Divisional Superintendent of Works	21,427
8.	Stationery and printing	10,883
9.	Refunds of cess and other receipts ...	1,808
10.	Toll and ferry establishment ...	5,487
11.	Miscellaneous	685
	Total ...	10,60,043

The expenditure under the head original and repair works in the Durbhunga and Sarun districts does not compare favourably with the budget allotments of the year, it being only Rs. 87,231 in the one and Rs. 1,03,952 in the other, against the total allotments of Rs. 2,31,411 and Rs. 1,57,359 respectively. The Chairman of the Durbhunga Committee attributes the cause of this small outlay to the changes in the personnel of the Engineer of the district which took place during the year. But there does not appear to be any reason why the works in the Sarun district could not have been carried out to the full extent of the budget allotments.

5. There was an unusually heavy flood during the year in both the north and south Gangetic districts of the division. It was higher than any before known or even contemplated, and the result was that there was considerable damage done to the roads and bridges of almost all the districts, to wit, 3 spans of the massive masonry bridge over the Poonpoon river at Futwa, said to have been built in the time of the Emperor Akbar, about 300 years ago, gave way with one abutment and two adjoining piers, and some bridges and culverts on the Futwa-Hilsa and Behar-Buktearpore roads, all in the Patna district collapsed. Three sets of piles or piers at the east end of the large timber viaduct recently erected over the river Phalgoo at Gya were under-secured and carried away by the current, the velocity of which at the time was reported to be nearly 13½ feet per second. Almost all the roads in the Durbhunga district suffered more or less; but the two light iron bridges over the Bagmutti river, close to the town of Durbhunga, were seriously damaged. There were also several breaches through the roads in the Mozufferpore district. In Shahabad, too, the flood was higher than any recorded by both the Irrigation and Road Cess Departments; but luckily there was no damage done worth mentioning.

6. The following statements shows in detail the cost of the several establishments under all the District Roads Committees in the division:—

Establishments.

1	2	3	4	5	6
DISTRICT.	Collection Office.	Committee Office.	Percentage cost of establishment of office accounts.	Public Works establishment.	Total.	REMARKS.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Patna	3,683	5,425	2,803	19,843	31,754	17·18 per cent. of the total increase.
Shahabad	3,706	1,306	2,202	20,870	28,078	17·6 ditto ditto.
Durbhunga	5,760	3,009	2,901	19,839	30,509	14·0 ditto ditto.
Mozufferpore	3,841	3,747	2,353	20,544	30,485	19·5 ditto ditto.
Chumparun	4,129	969	1,229	17,258	23,576	30·9 ditto ditto.
Sarun	4,247	2,000	3,192	18,923	29,282	16·4 ditto ditto.
Gya	9,930	3,948	3,215	28,858	45,951	22·6 ditto ditto.
	35,283	20,394	17,895	1,46,135	2,19,637

From the above it will be seen that in none of the districts, except Chumparun, where the income was only Rs. 76,000, the aggregate cost of the establishments exceeded the limits of 25 per cent of the income as prescribed in section 135 of the Cess Act.

7. The cost of the establishment of the Divisional Superintendent of Works during the year amounted to Rs. 18,211, or about 2¼ per cent of the total outlay on works in the whole division, and was met from contributions levied from all the District Road Committees. The Divisional Superintendent of Works, Mr. Joll, was away on privilege leave for three months during the year, and Mr. Macnamara, the District Engineer of Shahabad, who is a senior officer, was put in charge of the current duties of the office of the Divisional Superintendent of Works in addition to his own. The Chairman of the Shahabad District Road Cess Committee writes: "Mr. J. Macnamara, the District Engineer, who has been in this district for a long series of years, has continued to merit and receive the thanks of the Sudder Committee for efficient and conscientious discharge of his duties; he has also given the most valuable assistance to Branch Committees, by his advice on professional matters" I have much pleasure in confirming this testimony to Mr Macnamara's worth. He has on several occasions received the special thanks of Government, and I beg to record my high appreciation of his distinguished and meritorious services, extending over a great number of years.

During the nine months of the year that Mr. Joll was in the division, he was out on tour of inspection for 107 days, or more than three-and-a-half months, travelling over the whole of the division and inspecting all the works that were in progress.

I am indebted to this officer for his valuable assistance and continued efficient administration of the various works connected with his department

EXTENSION OF THE LOWER CIRCULAR ROAD CEMETERY.

THE subjoined Resolution is published for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

W. B. BESTIC,

Under-Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal,

P. W. Dept.

Darjeeling, the 7th June 1887.

READ—

The following papers relative to the extension of the Lower Circular Road Cemetery in Calcutta:—

Extract [paragraphs 9 and 10] from a letter from the Chairman of the Burial Board, dated the 13th February 1886.

Extract [paragraphs 7 and 8] from a letter from the Chairman of the Burial Board, dated the 25th June 1886.

Extract [paragraph 12] from the proceedings of the Burial Board at a meeting held on the 14th June 1886.

Memorandum No. 121MM, dated the 22nd October 1886, with enclosures, from the Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

A memorial, dated the 3rd November 1886, from the residents of Baniapooker.

Letters No. 1811B, dated the 16th December 1886, to the residents of Baniapooker, and No. 1812B, of the same date, to the Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

Letter dated the 18th January 1887, with enclosures, from the Chairman of the Burial Board.

Last year the Burial Board brought to the notice of the Government that the available ground in the Circular Road Cemetery would be filled in less than two years, and urged that early steps should be taken to acquire more land in order that it might be drained and laid out ready for use before the expiry of that period. Enquiries were thereupon instituted regarding the cost of acquiring a sufficient area of land for the extension of the Cemetery, and in January 1887 a report on the subject was received from the Burial Board. After considering various alternatives, the Board arrived at the conclusion that, notwithstanding the large expenditure that such a course would involve, the best solution of the question would be to expropriate sufficient ground for an extension of the Cemetery, calculated to last for more than 20 years to come, and recommended that measures should be taken to this end.

In the meantime, memorials were submitted by the residents of Baniapooker and its vicinity protesting against the proposed extension on sanitary and other grounds. The memorialists were informed that enquiries were being made with respect to the value of the land that would be required for the extension, and that, when information was received on that point, their representations would receive due attention.

The whole subject has now had the careful consideration of the Government. The Circular Road Cemetery was opened in 1838, and on the recommendation of a Committee which sat in 1866, it was extended some years later (in 1875-76) to its present size. Since that time, the land in the neighbourhood has risen in value, while the means of communication with the outskirts of the town have been improved, and a higher degree of sanitation is aimed at. It has therefore become a question for consideration whether it would not be better, instead of extending the present Cemetery, to establish a new one further removed from the heart of the town. In considering this alternative, it has to be borne in mind that, with such a climate as prevails in Calcutta for several months of the year, any increase in the distance of the Cemetery from the town would entail grave inconvenience and additional expense, the burden of which would fall heavily on the poorer classes. It would only be by selecting ground in the direction of the Armenian Cemetery, which is to the north-east of the Circular Road Cemetery, that these disadvantages could be minimized, and it is open to doubt whether the saving that could be effected in first cost by taking up land in that locality would not be counterbalanced by the cost of keeping up for some years to come a dual establishment. On sanitary grounds there is much to be said in favour of increasing the distance of burial places from the more thickly populated parts of the town; but it has not been established that the existing Cemeteries have had a prejudicial effect on the sanitary condition of the neighbourhood, and until the suburban area is greatly improved in other respects, the presence of a well-kept Cemetery within its limits will rank as a minor evil.

On the above grounds the Lieutenant-Governor would have been inclined to accept, without further question, the recommendation of the Burial Board to extend the existing Cemetery, but the financial exigencies of the present time make the question of first cost of primary importance, and on this account it may be necessary to adopt a different course. Hitherto the cost of acquiring and preparing land for Cemeteries in Calcutta has been provided by the Government, this outlay being partially repaid under a system that has been in force for half a century of charging fees for monuments and graves. Latterly, however, the fees received on this account have not been sufficient to cover the expenditure incurred by the Burial Board on establishments and the maintenance of the Cemeteries, and it has been necessary for the Government to supplement the funds of the Board by an annual grant-in-aid. So far back, however, as 1868 it was laid down that the Government would on no account bear the whole cost of providing burial grounds for the community of Calcutta, and Sir Steuart Bayley is decidedly of opinion that it would not be right, even if the Provincial Government could afford it, to provide such a large sum as that now required at the cost of the general tax-payer. Whatever form may be decided on for the extension, it will be necessary to bear this consideration in mind, and to make provision for increasing the income of the Burial Board at the cost of the community for which the Cemeteries are maintained.

These being the conditions, it needs but little consideration to show that the financial difficulties in the way of making an extension on a large scale would be very great, and the question arises whether it would not be possible to economise space by a different disposition of the graves. With this object in view, the Committee which sat in 1866 recommended that masonry graves should be built in the form of cells in one large vault which, when filled up and closed in, would form a sort of continuous terrace on which monuments might be erected. Such a plan, the Committee considered, while economizing space by its uniformity and compactness, would have the further advantage of making the graves secure and lasting, and preventing the unsightly appearance caused in Cemeteries by graves falling into ruins. At the present time, economy of space is all-important, and though the Committee's plan was neglected 20 years ago, when the difficulty of providing ground was not so much felt, it may now, subject to any further modifications, be deemed worthy of more careful consideration. A visit to the old Cemeteries will convince anyone that the system hitherto in vogue has many defects, and to such a large migratory population as that of Calcutta, a well-designed arrangement, which would ensure the permanency of the graves and monuments without requiring constant attention from the friends of the deceased, would be a welcome boon. Such an arrangement would not necessarily put a stop to the use of entirely separate graves, but for these a proportionately higher ground fee would have to be paid

The main considerations governing the problem have now been stated, and the Lieutenant-Governor is of opinion that, before moving further in the matter, a representative Committee should be appointed to consider and report on the following points:—

I.—By what means the additional ground required for Christian Cemeteries can be most suitably and economically provided; whether by extending the Lower Circular Road Cemetery or establishing a new one elsewhere.

II.—The possibility of economy in the use of space by adopting an arrangement of graves different to that which has hitherto been in use.

III.—The period for which provision should now be made, and whether the land required for the full period should be acquired at once or taken up by degrees as the necessity arises.

IV.—The cost of carrying out the scheme recommended by the Committee, inclusive of the value of the land and the expenditure to be incurred in enclosing it and making it fit for use, and the cost of mortuary chapels, lych gates, approaches, &c.

V.—The means by which the project can best be carried out financially; whether by making a loan to the Burial Board, leaving it to that body to propose such an increased scale of fees for masonry graves as would enable it to pay the interest and sinking fund charges, or whether by any other plan.

The following gentlemen are accordingly appointed to form a Committee for this purpose:—

The Chairman of the Burial Board	President.
The Senior Chaplain of St. John's Church	Members.
The Rev. N. Hengesch

CYCLONE IN THE BAY OF BENGAL.

The 14th June 1887.—The following papers on the late cyclone in the Bay of Bengal are published for general information.

COLMAN MACAULAY

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

No. 2092, dated Calcutta, the 2nd June 1887.

From—CAPTAIN A. W. STIFFE, I.M., Port Officer of Calcutta,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Financial Department.

I HAVE the honour to submit the following report of a severe cyclone, of which the centre passed over the Sandheads and pilot station.

2. From the 20th May a storm was reported by the Meteorological Department as forming in the bay. Owing to the regrettable absence of any station at the Andamans it was not possible to speak positively as to its location or extent.

3. Further, on the 24th, 25th, 26th and 27th May no reports were received from the very important station of Diamond Island. I would respectfully point out that this failure of signals took place also in the cyclone of the 16th and 17th June 1886, when no reports were received from the 15th to 19th inclusive; also from the 17th to 20th November inclusive, before the cyclone on the 23rd idem. It is of the utmost importance that this important station should be in the highest degree of efficiency.

4. On the 24th May, probably owing to the absence of the Diamond Island report, it was thought that the storm was crossing the bay to a point near Vizagapatam, but on the 25th it was found to be advancing to the east of False Point, towards the Sandheads, and at 8-50 A.M. the signals were hoisted in the river indicating the passage of a storm of moderate intensity to southward of Saugor. No ships arrived in the river on the 25th or 26th; and on the 24th, 25th and 26th no vessels left the river, excepting the ship Godiva, which left early on the 25th, in tow of the steam-tug Retriever, and the S. S. Sir John Lawrence (Chandbally boat) with upwards of 730 native passengers, which left on the afternoon of the 25th. All other ships waited either at Diamond Harbour or Saugor; and the other two Chandbally boats, the steamers Tyrone and Curlew, waited at Kedgeree, and no damage was sustained by any of them, except loss of anchors, &c., by some.

5. The storm blew with great fury, and the sea is described as being beyond the experience of those who went through the storm. Its centre passed the pilot station about 8 P.M., and thence travelled to westward of Saugor about 3 in the morning, and passed inland near the Subarnrekha river to eastward of Balasore about 5 in the morning of the 26th. The cyclone at Calcutta amounted to a moderate gale only. The storm-wave passed up the river fortunately on the ebb, and although the low water level was quite 8 feet above the normal, yet before high water the effect had passed, and the high water level was only 4 feet above the tabulated height for the day. It appears that much land between Hidgellee and Subarnrekha has been overflowed.

6. On the 26th nothing was learnt in town (beyond the actual strength of the wind at Saugor and False Point) of the results of the cyclone, but the Resolute was despatched by the Port Commissioners at day-light on the 27th to visit the lightships and Sandheads and give any assistance required. The Undaunted, being still in the hands of the Dockyard, was not able to proceed, her boilers being under repair. The repairs were commenced on the 12th March, and it was hoped would be easily completed before the stormy season, but the patching of boilers is slow work, and has occupied a much longer time than was anticipated.

7. On the 27th matters appearing to be more serious, the Retriever not having returned, the Chandbally steamer not having arrived there, and no vessel having come into Saugor, I considered some further action urgent, and resolved to take up a vessel to proceed to the Sandheads to get news of the brigs and to search for missing vessels. Owing to the loss of the Retriever, Messrs. Gladstone, Wyllie and Company have now a monopoly of tugs, and they refused to allow a tug to proceed for less than Rs. 1,000 a day, the ordinary charge for towing being only Rs. 600. I learn that they have since charged the Godiva Rs. 5,000 for towing her from the Gasper to Calcutta, the ordinary price being about Rs. 1,600 from the Sandheads. I therefore decided on chartering the Madras, a steamer offered by the British India Steam Navigation Company for Rs. 850 a day, including coal, and beg to enclose copy of the agreement marked A, and to solicit sanction to the arrangement. The Madras was coaled and despatched early on the 28th. Commander Jackson of the Undaunted was sent in charge of the expedition, and I engaged an officer of the Chandbally service to act as pilot in the Western and Sola Channels not usually visited by other ships. I beg to attach copy of the orders issued to Captain Jackson, marked B. The steamer Madras has not yet returned to port. I may mention that on the 27th the steamer Resolute experienced a very heavy sea in the Gasper Channel, and did not proceed to sea that evening.

8. On the 28th, the Cuckoo was also despatched by the Port Commissioners to visit the refuge houses: she is expected back to-morrow or next day.

9. The P. and O steamer Nepaul, the first vessel in from sea (having a special pilot she was able to get in), anchored at Saugor at noon on the 27th, and in the evening a telegram was received, marked C, which told a tale of great disaster, and confirmed me in my view as to the necessity of sending a second vessel. Owing to its being received by flag-signals, there was a mistake which led to the inference that the Retriever, and her ship, the Godiva, had foundered. Several light-ships were also reported as out of position.

10. Several vessels arrived on the 28th, one of which reported the brigs to be safe and on the station. I will here mention that the brigs put to sea, and passed through the centre of the storm, returning to the station at its close, and sustaining only petty damage. They each lost an anchor and chain, one boat and several sails, besides some hencoops and other deck furniture. One brig immediately took up the duty of Eastern Channel light-ship, burning blue lights at short intervals, the other attending to the pilotage work.

11. On the 29th, the other Chandbally steamers, which left after the storm, returned to Calcutta, having seen nothing of the Sir John Lawrence, which vessel they had been directed to search for en route. As we have received, yesterday, information that the Resolute passed through a large number of floating dead bodies, some of women, and as others have been washed ashore at Saugor, there can be little doubt that she foundered, and that every soul on board has perished. Her Commander, Captain Irvine, was a very experienced man, and had commanded vessels in the Chandbally trade for a number of years. He was, however, in my opinion, too ready to incur risk. In the cyclone in last June, he left a day before any other vessel had left the river, except the French Mail steamer, and on the present occasion the storm-signals had been up for hours and seen by the Tyrone and Curlew, which vessels anchored at Kedgeree in consequence; they were passed, lying at anchor, two hours later by the ill-fated ship. The wind and sea at that time must have been tremendous. She had, I believe, 732 passengers, a large proportion being women of this place proceeding on pilgrimage.

12. Light ships.—The Long Sand light-ship, the nearest to Saugor, was missing, and it was feared must have foundered, surrounded as she was by shoals, but she floated over all the shoals on the storm-wave and grounded below Hingelee, where she is now nearly high and dry, but reported as not injured. She was first reported by the Curlew, which vessel sighted her on return from Chandbally on the 29th. The Deputy Conservator has gone to see what should be done to get her off.

13. The next light-vessel in order, the Upper Gasper, rode out the storm; the Lower Gasper also rode safely, after parting one chain. The Intermediate lost an anchor and chain and drifted about half a mile. The Mutlah Light rode out the gale safely, being out of its direct course. The Eastern Channel and Ridge Lights both parted and were reported missing: the Ridge drifted 40 miles, and afterwards made sail and returned to the vicinity of her station, when she was picked up and put in position by the Resolute. Of the Eastern Channel, it is known that she returned to the station yesterday, in tow of the Madras from off Pippley.

14. There remains the case of the Godiva and steamer Retriever, which vessels put to sea on the morning of the 25th about two or three hours before the storm-signals were hoisted. I propose to hold a departmental enquiry on the pilot in charge of the Godiva as to the propriety of his proceeding to sea under such circumstances. It appears that at that time the wind was light, and the glass had not fallen much, and the master agreed with the pilot it would be better to get out. The captain of the tug, it is said, did not make any objection, and the ship was towed out, and between 12 and 1 was cast off outside the Eastern Channel Light in the usual way. For the last two hours the wind and sea had increased rapidly, but it was not then possible to turn the ship back. After casting off, the ship sailed to the southward, got into the most violent part of the storm, blew nearly all her sails away, had her decks swept and cabins gutted, and her cargo shifted, so that she heeled over to port very much,—she returned or drifted back to the river, and has been towed up to town, where she will discharge cargo.

15. The Retriever tried to return to Saugor, but found the sea too heavy, and adopted the only course open of going out to sea—head to the sea. She has not been since seen. Marvellously the P. and O. steamer Nepaul picked up a native fireman belonging to this vessel, who had been 17 hours in the water, and reports that she foundered soon after midnight of the 25th, and it can hardly be hoped that any other survivors of the unfortunate vessel will be found. She was a fine new tug, and the most powerful on the river.

16. I attach copy of a report by the senior officer at the cruising station, marked D.

No. 73T—M, dated Darjeeling, the 8th June 1887.

From—COLMAN MACAULAY, ESQ., C.I.E., Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal, Municipal Department,

To—The Port Officer, Calcutta.

I AM directed by the Lieutenant-Governor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 2092, dated 2nd instant, in which you submit a report upon the cyclone of 25th and 26th ultimo.

2. You first advert to the interruption of telegraphic communication with the station of Diamond Island between the dates of 24th and 27th ultimo inclusive It appears that communication with Diamond Island was similarly interrupted for four days at the time of the cyclone of last June. You rightly observe that it is of the utmost importance that this station should be maintained in the highest degree of efficiency. Enquiries will be made in the matter from the Meteorological Reporter through the General Department of this Government. You have been separately asked in my letter No. 71T—M, dated the 7th instant, to report your opinion, with reference to the experience derived from the late storm, on the advisability of laying a telegraph cable from Saugor to the Eastern Channel light-ship, and the practicability of maintaining it during a cyclone.

3. As regards the storm itself, you report that signals were hoisted in the river at 8-50 A.M on the 25th, indicating the passage of a storm of moderate intensity to the southward of Saugor. You do not state what reports were received by you on 25th, but it appears that the centre of a violent cyclone passed to the westward of Saugor at 3 A.M. on 26th, and it is presumed that you were apprized of this circumstance early on the morning of that day. It also appears that a storm-wave advanced up the river on the ebb tide, giving at Calcutta a rise of eight feet above the normal, and affording unmistakeable evidence of exceptional disturbance of the weather at the mouth of the river At daylight, on the 27th, the Port Commissioners' steamer Resolute was despatched to visit the light-ships and to render any assistance required by vessels in distress. On the 27th your apprehensions were increased, and you chartered on behalf of Government the British India Steam Navigation Company's steamer Madras, at a cost of Rs. 850 a day, and on the 28th despatched her to sea. The Government steamer Undaunted, which had been placed in the Dockyard for repairs on the 12th March, was still under repairs at this time.

4. With reference to these points, I am desired to say that the Lieutenant-Governor, while confirming your action in regard to the Madras, and acknowledging the care and forethought with which your instructions were issued in regard to her voyage, is of opinion that in cases in which the approach of such a storm to the neighbourhood of the Sandheads is reported, it would be desirable to take earlier measures of precaution. When it is known that a serious cyclone is advancing towards the Orissa or the Bengal Coast, a Government steamer should at once be despatched as far down the river as possible, to be ready to go to sea at the earliest moment to search for disabled or wrecked vessels, and to render assistance generally to seafarers in distress. The fact that in this instance the Resolute was prevented by stress of weather from at once putting to sea is not overlooked. This circumstance, however, in no way detracts from the need for provident action in such cases. Moreover, two steamers are shown to have remained in safety during the storm in the Kedgeree anchorage, and to have afterwards proceeded to Chandbally. Sir Steuart Bayley is strongly convinced of the necessity of promptly taking in such cases the utmost precautionary measures, without waiting for tidings of the actual arrival of the storm at any particular point.

5. The attention of the Dockyard authorities will be drawn to the delay in completing the repairs of the Undaunted.

6. The actual loss to the shipping was confined to the tug Retriever and the steamer Sir John Lawrence. The first proceeded to sea early on the 25th, apparently before the hoisting of the storm signals was known. The Retriever was lost, but the ship Godiva, which it had taken down the river, went ashore and was ultimately saved. You state your intention to hold a departmental enquiry into the conduct of the Pilot in charge of the Godiva in proceeding to sea in the face of such weather as prevailed at the time, and your report will be awaited. The Sir John Lawrence, with 732 passengers on board, has in all probability perished at sea, and no witness remains to tell the story of the disaster. This appalling calamity, which has carried misery and desolation into many homes, appears from your letter to have been the result of over-confidence on the part of Captain Irvine, an experienced, but too daring, commander. It can scarcely be doubted that, had he followed the example of the commanders of the Tyrone and the Curlew, who had brought their vessels to anchor at Kedgeree two hours before the Sir John Lawrence passed down, this pitiable disaster would have been avoided. His Excellency the Viceroy has desired that the deep sympathy of himself and of the other members of the Government of India may be conveyed to the members of the bereaved families, and you have already been asked to add to this message an expression of Sir Steuart Bayley's sorrow at the affliction which has befallen them. Meanwhile Sir Steuart Bayley is of opinion that a full enquiry should be held in order to ascertain whether this vessel was really safe and seaworthy when she left the port. A statement which has been submitted to the Lieutenant-Governor by an ex-officer of the ship has been separately forwarded to you for report. You are requested to hold a careful investigation of the allegations contained in it, and to submit without delay the conclusions at which you may arrive. The circumstances in which this catastrophe occurred also render it desirable for Government to consider whether measures should not be taken to give the authorities power to detain vessels on account of threatening weather, and to render it penal for commanders to leave the river when certain signals have been exposed. The Meteorological Reporter to Government will be asked to advise upon this proposal, and your opinion upon it is also invited.

7. The Lieutenant-Governor learns with satisfaction that the pilot brigs and the light-vessels have been saved, and he desires that his thanks may be communicated to the many officers of the Marine Department who displayed courage and resource in circumstances of much distress and difficulty, and who largely contributed by their efforts to mitigate the effects of the disaster.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from observations made at 6h, 10h, 16h and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

o overcast, g gloomy, d drizzling rain, t thunder, p passing temporary showers, ☂ dew, ⚡ lightning, ⚡ strong wind.

SUMMARY OF THE RAINFALL AND METEORGLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, DURING THE MONTH OF MAY 1887

It should perhaps be remarked that this is the first monthly report in which are included the meteorological observations taken daily at the three most important stations in Assam; it is therefore possible now to deal with the meteorology of Bengal and Assam as a whole, and this will be the case throughout the south-west monsoon season. No additional stations in Assam, however, report rainfall to Calcutta, as is the case with the Bengal stations, and therefore it is only possible to deal with the general meteorology of Assam, and the distribution of rainfall over this area cannot in any way be discussed.

The normal meteorological conditions in Bengal during May are to a considerable extent similar to those of April. There is the steady and increasing difference of temperature between the land and the sea area, and in this month this difference attains almost its maximum. The area of maximum temperature during May includes the western districts of South Behar, the North-West Provinces, Rajputana and Central India. With the increasing temperature of the land surface, the southerly winds blowing from the Bay of Bengal strengthen considerably, and owing to the physical obstacles of the hill systems to the east and north of Bengal, they appear as south-easterly winds in East Bengal, and as easterly winds in North Bengal. At the same time, however, the usual hot, dry westerly winds are blowing over considerable portions of Behar and Chutia Nagpur, and thus during May, as explained in previous monthly reports, conditions are favourable to the production of the local storms called nor'-westers. These, it is probable, are produced by the action of the opposing winds in elevating the moist sea breezes, and by this ascensional motion their water vapour is condensed, and sufficient energy is at the same time liberated to produce the well-known effects of these storms.

The southerly breezes which blow during this month at the head of the Bay are of considerable strength, and in fact at Saugor Island and False Point the wind velocities measured in May are generally greater than those during the actual rainy season, but there is reason to believe that during May the current is of comparatively small depth compared to what it is during the actual monsoon period. These winds, however, carry considerable amounts of moisture into East and North Bengal, and in the neighbourhood of the hills ascensional movement takes place, followed frequently by local storms and by heavy rainfall. This action will account for the large rainfall which occurs during this month in the northern and eastern districts of the province.

During May the distribution of the normal rainfall is simple, and the lines of equal rainfall run nearly north and south through the province, or rather almost parallel to a line joining the Chittagong Hill Tracts, the Tipperah Hills, the Garo Hills, and the Darjeeling Hills, the largest amounts being received in the eastern and northern districts, and smallest amounts in the western districts. Thus the average rainfall of the month is less than 2 inches in the southern parts of the Sarun and Mozufferpore districts, the Gya and Shahabad districts, and the western parts of Chutia Nagpur. To the east of these districts, up to a line running nearly north from the mouth of the Hooghly, the rainfall increases from 2 up to 5 inches. To the east of this, up to a line passing through Rungpore, Jamalpore, Mymensing, Bramunberiah, Comilla, and Cox's Bazar, the average rainfall increases eastwards from 5 to 10 inches. To the east of that line it exceeds 10 inches, and increases rapidly in amount towards the Garo and Khasia Hills and towards the Dooars, and at Buxa in the Western Dooars, the average rainfall in May is no less than 21·58 inches.

The meteorology of May is generally rather important, for about the second or third week, the south-west monsoon makes its appearance in the south of the Bay, and gives heavy rain and fairly strong winds at the South Ceylon stations. The monsoon current gradually creeps up the east of the Bay, and rain sets in along the Arakan coast towards the close of the month, and it afterwards spreads into East and North Bengal early in June.

In the front of the advancing monsoon current frequently cyclonic storms arise, which are sometimes small and feeble, and at other times larger and of considerable intensity. When these cyclonic storms are formed quite in the south of the Bay, they usually advance towards the Madras coast; but when the storms originate rather later, that is, when the monsoon current has advanced well into the centre of the Bay, the storms which then form appear usually to advance either towards the Arakan coast, or towards the South Bengal coast.

Meteorology of the month.—The principal features of interest in the meteorology of the past month have been—

(1) a mean barometric pressure very decidedly below the normal;
(2) temperature also distinctly above the normal on the average of the month;
(3) rainfall very largely above the normal in all districts except East Bengal;
(4) a period of disturbed conditions during which local storms or nor'-westers were numerous from the beginning of the month to the 4th, another period from about the 9th to the 14th, then a period of comparative absence of rainfall, during which an advance of south-west monsoon winds took place in the south of the Bay, and which carried the monsoon current to about the Andaman Islands, where a small but very fierce cyclone was subsequently formed, and which, after intensifying, travelled slowly in a north-westerly direction and crossed the coast close to and on the east side of Balasore on the morning of the 26th, passing through Chutia Nagpur into South Behar when it dispersed;

(5) the inrush of monsoon winds following after the storm which spread over Bengal, and which gave heavy and general rainfall over the whole province.

At the close of April weather conditions over Central and South-West Bengal were a little disturbed, and in consequence local storms were rather numerous over the province. These conditions continued to hold good for the first four days of May, and nor'-westers were numerous during this period in South-West Bengal, East Bengal, North Bengal, and Chutia Nagpur, but the majority of the storms were not of a very violent character, and the rainfall accompanying them was in most cases light. A rapid rise in pressure took place on the 4th and 5th, when conditions became more normal and rainfall almost ceased; but on the 8th of May the changes of pressure which took place produced a distinct barometric depression over the western parts of the province, producing also a tendency for the winds to circulate round the depression. These unsettled conditions were immediately followed by rainfall, and local storms again became numerous in various parts of the province between the 9th and the 13th, the rainfall being generally heaviest in East Bengal. With the occurrence of these disturbed conditions, the pressure over the province became largely below the normal, but when these disturbed conditions disappeared, the tendency of the changes which took place in the third week was to bring back to a great extent the ordinary hot weather conditions to the province, and this period was marked by increasing pressure and temperature, a decrease in humidity, particularly at the western stations, and usually by absence of rain, except in Assam, which received rather heavy rain at this time.

Though the period from the 13th to the 20th May had, from a meteorological point of view, been a quiet and normal one in Bengal, certain changes had been taking place in the Bay of Bengal. Stormy winds were blowing in the south of the Bay at the close of the previous week, but they shortly died away and became almost normal in force. On the 18th instant, however, winds began to increase in force again at the southern stations, and winds became north-easterly at Diamond Island and easterly at Akyab. On the 19th winds again strengthened in Ceylon, pressure fell at Diamond Island, where wind became south-east, and wind at Akyab became north-east. These conditions developed still further on the 20th; and on this day it became clear that a cyclonic storm was forming to the west and north-west of the Andaman Islands, and the formation of the storm was being accompanied by a large increase in the wind velocity at Diamond Island. Conditions therefore at this period had become decidedly disturbed in the Bay; and in the centre and south-east of it probably at this time weather was decidedly stormy. This cyclonic storm has naturally formed the principal feature of the remainder of the month, and the following description of its history is taken from the weekly meteorological reports issued from this office:—

The meteorology of the period from 20th May to the end of the month in Bengal has practically consisted in the history of the development and movement of this storm, which finally struck the coast near Balasore, and between that place and Saugor Island on the morning of Thurday, the 26th. During the period of formation and advance of the storm, the hot weather conditions in Bengal, which had existed for the previous week, became somewhat intensified; the winds fell off in strength and became a little variable in direction; humidity and temperature were very high, and weather generally very oppressive; but with the advance of the storm over the land, a total change of conditions took place. A strong burst of monsoon winds following the storm passed over the province, much rain was recorded, temperature fell largely, humidity became very high, and ordinary rainy season conditions obtained over a large part of the province.

As stated previously, the storm appeared to be forming on the 20th in the centre of the Bay to the west or north-west of the Andaman Islands. On the 21st the land observations appeared to show that it had somewhat intensified, and that it had moved very slowly in a northerly direction, though it was still to the south-west or west-south-west of Diamond Island. At this time it was on the east side of the centre of the Bay, and practically the only observations which showed its existence were those at Diamond Island, and even these did not indicate that it was a very severe storm. On the 22nd the pressure rose at Diamond Island, indicating that the storm was moving away from that station, and, so far as the land observations round the Bay showed, the storm had moved very slowly in a north-westerly or west-north-westerly direction. On the 23rd the position of the storm did not appear to have altered much, so far as the observations at the coast stations indicated; but it is probable that the storm was still slowly travelling in a north-westerly direction, for on the following day the pressures and wind directions recorded at the coast stations round the Bay indicated that the centre of the storm was about in the latitude of Vizagapatam and probably to the west of the centre of the Bay. In the Bay of Bengal daily chart for that day, the position of the storm was, as has been proved from subsequent observations, marked too far to the west of the Bay, and too near the coast of the Circars; but at that time all the indications at the coast stations pointed to the probability that the storm would cross the Ganjam coast south of Gopalpur or north of Vizagapatam. Observations received during the afternoon and night of the 24th showed that the storm was still travelling northwards, and the 6 A.M. observations showed that the storm area was approaching the latitude of False Point and was gradually nearing the land. On receipt of these observations at 8-30 A.M. on the 25th, orders were given to hoist warning signals in the Hooghly, indicating that a cyclonic storm would pass between False Point and Saugor Island The centre of the storm finally reached the coast close to Balasore at about 4 or 4-30 A.M. of the 26th, and it continued to travel in a north-north-westerly direction, and at 10 A M was west-south-west of Midnapore. It must have then passed to the east of Ranchee, through Chutia Nagpur, and at 10 A.M. of the 27th the centre of the storm was between Gya and Hazaribagh, and was very rapidly filling up and disappearing. In the interval from 10 A.M. of the 26th to the 27th the storm had travelled about 160 to 180 miles in a north-north-westerly or north by westerly direction, or probably at the rate of about 7 miles an hour. The storm therefore appears for the first few days to have moved very slowly in a north-westerly direction ; it then advanced more rapidly, and the direction of its movement became more northerly, and over the land it advanced in a north-north-westerly direction.

The cyclone proved to be much more intense than was judged to be the case from the land observations, and near the centre of the storm, weather was excessively stormy, winds were exceedingly fierce, the sea was extremely high, and pressure fell very low. With regard to the force of the wind, a velocity of 69 miles an hour was registered at False Point on the evening of the 25th for the period 5-40 to 7-40 P.M At Saugor Island a velocity of 67 miles an hour from 6 to 7 A.M. and from 8 to 9 A.M. of the 26th was registered. It must be remembered, too, that these figures represent only the average velocity of the wind for the times named, and that they do not in any way represent the force of the gusts which must have been much larger than those indicated. It is therefore not surprising that the anemometers at Saugor Island and Balasore were carried away by the wind, while at the river stations the fierceness of the wind was so great that the storm signal arrangements were at each station damaged, and could not be displayed for a portion of the time. The river signals remained hoisted practically for 48 hours until the morning of the 27th. The lowest pressure at any land station recorded was at Balasore at 4-30 A.M. on the 26th, where a pressure of about 28·42 inches (corrected to 32° and sea level) was registered. The lowest pressure registered at Saugor Island was only 29·180″ at 4-5 A.M of the 26th, so the storm centre must have been much closer to Balasore than to Saugor Island.

On Saturday, the 28th, a very rapid increase of pressure took place over the whole province, the rise being most rapid in South Behar and Chutia Nagpur. These changes accompanied the rapid filling up of the cyclonic storm, and on this day the storm had practically ceased to exist as anything more than a pronounced barometric depression. The centre of this depression was to the east of Gya, and therefore the storm, or what remained of it, had remained practically stationary since the 27th, or perhaps had only advanced very slightly in a northerly direction. Winds, however, continued to circulate cyclonically round this centre, and both over the area occupied by the depression, and to the south of it, strong winds were blowing. The storm was thus clearly and rapidly breaking up, and with its disintegration excessively heavy rainfall was reported over Behar and North Bengal. On the 29th pressure again increased, the rise being largest in South Behar, where at some stations the increase exceeded a tenth of an inch, and on this day even the slight barometric depression, which was all that had remained of the previous violent cyclone, practically filled up and disappeared. The life history of this cyclone may therefore be said to have lasted from the 19th or 20th of May up till the 29th, a period of 9 or 10 days only, of which the first two or three days, up till about the 22nd or 23rd, were occupied in its development and intensification, the next two or three days in its advance over the sea, till on the morning of the 26th the centre of the storm crossed the coast a little to the east of Balasore, while the remaining three days were occupied in its advance over the land and its rapid diminution in intensity until it finally died away in South Behar on the 28th and 29th. Though generated decidedly rapidly, it was of very much greater fierceness than is usual in storms formed at the commencement of the south-west monsoon ; but on the other hand it was comparatively small, and the destructive part of the cyclone, or where the winds were very intense, does not appear to have been more than perhaps 100 to 150 miles across.

The rainfall brought up by this storm, particularly near the central line of its advance, was exceedingly heavy, though perhaps it was almost equalled by that produced by the storm when it commenced to disintegrate in Behar and North Bengal. Near the central line of advance the following stations reported rainfalls of more than five inches within 24 hours :—False Point, Jajpore, Dhurmsala, Chandbali, Bhuddruck, Burdwan, Amareah, Purneah, Arrah, Rajmehal, Pakour, Chatra, and Chyebassa.

Though the cyclonic storm thus ceased to exist on the 29th, the rainfall which was brought up by the storm, and that due to the powerful inrush of monsoon winds in the wake of the storm, continued for several days longer : in most districts the fall practically did not cease even up till the close of the month. The storm may in fact be said to have commenced the rainy season in Bengal, for the southerly monsoon winds having once penetrated over the province, they will probably not again retreat, though of course a diminution in the strength of the current must be expected before a further inrush of monsoon winds accompanied by heavy rainfall will take place. The rainfall which was brought about by the storm in its disappearance, and the rainfall subsequent to it, has been of extraordinary heaviness, and some stations reported nearly 20 inches of rain within 24 hours. These heavy rainfalls will again be referred to under their appropriate headings.

Pressure.—The variations of pressure during the month have been large, particularly during the time when the cyclone was forming, and afterwards while it was passing through the western districts. For the first week of the month, though the fluctuations were rather large, the mean pressure for the period was not very far removed from the normal, and the general average pressure of the province may be said to have been about 0·005″ below the normal. During the second week pressure fell almost steadily, and at its close it was largely below the normal, and the average defect for the whole of Bengal and Assam was equal to about 0·07″. In the third week pressure rose slowly at first, and then fell with the formation of the cyclone, so that for the week the mean pressure was below the normal by considerable amounts, averaging about 0·08″. During the last part of the month the cyclone had formed, and in its advance pressure fell rapidly and rose again as the storm passed away. As previously stated, the very low pressure of 28·42″ (corrected) was recorded at Balasore, which was near the central track, and on board one of the pilot brigs, which appears to have passed through the centre of the storm, a pressure of 28·2″ (uncorrected) was recorded. The changes of pressure during the passage of the storm were very rapid, and thus at Midnapore, which was some distance from the centre, from the morning of the 26th to the 27th there was a rise of nearly half an inch. For the whole month pressure has been distinctly below the normal at all stations, and in Bengal, taking into account only those stations from which records are available for a number of years, the mean average pressure for the month has been in defect of the normal by 0·052″. The largest defects have occurred in Orissa, where at Gopalpore and False Point they are 0·08″, and the smallest in East Bengal, where they are 0·039″ at Chittagong and 0·023″ at Dacca. In Assam the average pressure has been in defect of the normal by an almost similar amount to that in Bengal, and the defect is 0·051″, and this defect is evenly distributed over the whole area.

Temperature—Variations have also been large throughout the month, and have depended to a great extent on the distribution of the rainfall. Thus during the first few days of the month it was comparatively low, but with the cessation of the rainfall due to the local storms it rose rapidly. The average temperature of the whole province was therefore nearly normal, but in Assam there was a distinct excess. Owing to the absence of rain in the second week temperature rose very rapidly and became largely above the normal in almost all districts, the mean excess for the seven days in such districts as North Bengal and Assam being between 5° and 6°. In the third week of the month rainfall was very plentiful in Assam, and temperature in that district fell and became normal, but in other districts, where rainfall was to a great extent absent, temperatures continued largely above the normal, Chutia Nagpur showing an average excess of 7·1°, North Behar of 5·9°, and South Behar of 5·5°, &c. In the last week, as stated before, conditions underwent a complete change with the advance of the cyclone over the western districts, and with the setting in of rainfall temperature fell most rapidly; as it had previously been largely above the normal, the mean temperature for the last week of the month showed an almost normal temperature, except in Assam, where it was 2·4° in excess. For the whole month the variations from the normal have been comparatively small. East Bengal, North Bengal and North Behar show an excess of from 1° to 2°; in South Behar and Chutia Nagpur the excess is very slight, being less than 1°; and in South-West Bengal and Orissa temperature has been one and two-tenths of a degree in defect. The largest variation from the normal has been in Assam, where the mean temperature has been 2·8° in excess.

The hottest period of the month was the third week, during which some extremely high maximum temperatures were recorded, and the following are the highest maximum temperatures in each division of the province during the period:—

Rainfall.—The times and causes, and to a certain extent the distribution, of the rain falling over the province have already been referred to under the meteorological summary; it therefore only remains to deal with the amounts which have been received.

In dealing with the rainfall of Assam, it must be remembered that the figures in the tables only represent the rain recorded at the three representative stations—Sibsagar, Dhubri and Silchar. So far as can be judged from these stations, the distribution of rainfall in Assam in May has been as follows :—In the first week light rain (about an inch) fell in all districts, the rainfall being heaviest (1·80 inches) at Silchar. In the second week Silchar received the smallest fall (0·70 inch), moderate rain (1·86 inches) fell in Dhubri and heavy rain (3·41 inches) at Sibsagar. In the third week moderate rain (from two to two and a half inches) fell at Sibsagar and Silchar, and very heavy rain (7·55 inches) at Dhubri. In the week ending the 27th, Dhubri received little or no rain, Silchar 1·48 inches, and Sibsagar 4·01 inches. Light rain continued to be general till the close of the week, and it was only quite at the end of May and beginning of June that Assam began to feel the effect of the inrush of monsoon winds following after the cyclone. For the whole of May the following are the total amounts of rain recorded at the Assam stations :—Dhubri 14·29 inches, Sibsagar 13·52 inches, Silchar 6·45 inches.

In Bengal the greater part of the rain was brought up by the cyclone and its attendant rush of monsoon winds, and thus the last six days of the month have been those of most general and heaviest rainfall. As has been previously stated, some extraordinarily heavy falls of rain accompanied the breaking up of the storm, and on 1st June the excessive fall of 19·67 inches was reported at Dewangunge in the Mymensingh district. Chandbali also, on the 25th, reported the very large fall of 11·50 inches, while a very large number of stations indeed have received falls of between 5 and 10 inches in a single day. The normal distribution of rainfall in Bengal in May has already been described, but in the present month this distribution has been disturbed by the passage of the cyclone. There are thus two areas of heavy rainfall—the first, which is present in normal years along the line of hills in the north and north-east of the province, while in addition the track taken by the cyclone is clearly marked by the production of another area of excessive precipitation. This starts from the coast of Orissa from about Balasore to Chandbali and False Point, and runs in a north-westerly direction a considerable distance into Chutia Nagpur. Over this area the rainfall varies from about 10 to 15 inches, and on either side of this area of heavy rainfall the amounts diminish to the east and west, until, on the eastern side, the amounts again increase in connection with the normal distribution of rainfall during May, which is produced by the lines of mountains to the north and north-east of Bengal. Over considerable parts of the area in and near the hills in North Bengal the rainfall has varied from 15 up to nearly 30 inches of rain during the month.

Compared with the normal fall for May, by far the greater part of the province shows a large excess. To the east of a line drawn from about the mouth of the Hooghly to the west of the Garo Hills to Kurigram in North Bengal, rainfall has been in defect of the normal. The area of defect, therefore, includes practically the whole of East Bengal, the south-eastern districts of South-West Bengal, and few stations in North Bengal. The defect increases towards the eastern districts, and at such stations as Netrokona, Kishoregunge, Naraingunge and Commilla it exceeds 5 inches. The greater part of the remainder of the province has received an excess fall, the excess ranging up to 5 inches. A band of still larger excess varying from 5 up to 10 inches runs from parts of the Balasore and Cuttack districts through Chutia Nagpur to Aurangabad in the Gya district, that is very nearly the track of the centre of the cyclone. The greater part of Central Bengal, South Behar, the eastern part of North Behar, and North Bengal have also received an excess fall, ranging from 5 to 10 inches, while the Purneah and Dinagepore districts and part of the Rungpore, Sonthal Pergunnahs, Julpigoree and Darjeeling districts have received excess falls of more than 10 inches.

North Bengal has received the largest fall, and the stations in this district have received an average amount of 13·31 inches against the normal average of 8·41 inches. This district has therefore received a fall equal to 158 per cent of the normal. The next largest fall has been received in South Behar, which averages 8·58 inches against a normal of 2·03 inches, the actual fall is therefore 423 per cent. of the normal. South-West Bengal has averaged 7·32 inches against a normal of 5 27 inches, or the actual fall represents 139 per cent. of the normal. Orissa has received 7·10 inches against 3·68 inches, and the fall is therefore 193 per cent. of the usual amount. Chutia Nagpore has received 7·05 inches, against the normal 2·43 inches, the percentage of the normal is therefore 306. East Bengal has received 6 75 inches, but as the normal fall is 9·52 inches, this district has been in defect, and the actual only represents 81 per cent. of the normal ; and finally North Behar has received the smallest fall and records 5 06 inches against the normal 2·86 inches, and the actual has therefore been 176 per cent. of the normal Assuming that these districts have an equal value in the calculation, the general fall of rain in Bengal during the month of May may be said to be equal to 211 per cent. of the normal fall for the period.

The following table gives full data for the comparison of the actual and the normal rainfall of the month of May in all districts of the province. The figures are derived from the average and actual rainfall of the rain-recording stations in each district, due allowance or weight being made for the area which each station represents. This gives a more accurate average than the arithmetical means given in the weekly and monthly meteorological tables. The first column gives the normal or average district rainfall as determined from the rainfall observations of the past 15 years. The second column gives the actual district rainfall as determined from the weighted actual rainfalls of the month at the reporting stations in each district. The third column expresses the ratio of the actual district rainfall of the past month to the normal rainfall as a percentage. The fourth column gives the same information as the third column in a slightly different form. It states as a percentage how much the district rainfall of the month varied in excess or defect from the normal rainfall, and is hence the difference between the numbers in the third column and 100 :—

Explanation.—Summary.—The normal means of air pressure and temperature are the arithmetical average or means of the reading during the same period for the p... The humidity of the atmosphere is expressed as percentage, saturated air being represented by 100. A clear sky is denoted by 0 and an overcast sky by 10. The ... are the Provincial means or average of the rainfall in that district determined from the returns sent in by the sub-divisional station for the period in question during the p... station in the district sending in returns divided by the number of stations. A rainy day is one on which at least hundredth of an inch fell.

* Means for 6 days.

CALCUTTA, the 14*th June* 1887.

SUMMARY OF THE RAINFALL AND METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 10TH OF JUNE 1887.

At the close of the previous week a fairly strong monsoon current was blowing over Bengal. This inrush of south-west monsoon winds had been brought up in the rear of the cyclone, which had broken up in Behar at the end of May. The monsoon current had brought up very heavy rainfall, and at the commencement of the week under review, fairly heavy rain-showers were general over almost the whole province. The monsoon current then began to slacken, wind velocities decreased, and wind directions became less regular, particularly in Behar, and rain became very light and local, until finally at the close of the week the greater part of the province was rainless. The diminution of the strength of the monsoon current blowing over the province towards the end of the week was much increased by the commencement of the formation of another cyclonic storm, though of much smaller and more feeble kind than the previous one. This small storm apparently commenced to form about Monday, the 8th, in the centre of the northern half of the Bay. The indications of its existence were particularly feeble till Friday, the 10th, when a well marked circulation of winds set up over the northern half of the Bay. The small storm thus formed was a feeble one, and on the 10th the centre was apparently to the west of the centre of the Bay, and in about the latitude of Gopalpore. By the indraught towards this storm, the further progress of the monsoon winds over Bengal was checked, and rainfall became very scanty. Another feature of interest in the meteorology of the province at the commencement of the week was the continuance of heavy rainfall in Assam. The heavy rainfall brought up by the cyclone apparently reached the Assam station only at the commencement of June, but at Silchar, in particular, the falls were very heavy, and thus on the three days from the 2nd to the 4th no less than 14·45 inches were received at this station.

Pressure Was at the close of the previous week rather largely above the normal. In the first three days of the present week pressure fell continuously; this was then succeeded by a slow increase for a corresponding period, but on Friday, the 10th, pressure again commenced to fall. The fall has been decidedly greater than the rise, and therefore the excess pressure which obtained during the previous week has been replaced by a defect. The mean pressure for the week at the stations from which records have been received for the greatest number of years shows that it has been in defect of the normal in Bengal by 0·022 inch, while in Assam the defect has been 0·029 inch.

Temperature—Had in the previous week, owing to the excessive rainfall, been largely below the normal, but with the rapid cessation of rain during the present week, temperature has generally risen rather considerably, and over a large part of the province it is now nearly normal. In East Bengal, indeed, the mean temperature for the week has been 0·9° in excess of the normal, but the remainder of the province has been in defect. The defects are small, being less than 1° in Orissa, South-West Bengal, North Bengal and Chutia Nagpur, rather larger (1·8°) in Assam, and much larger (between 3° and 4°) in Behar. For the whole of Bengal and Assam the mean average temperature has been 1·3° in defect of the normal.

Rainfall—As has been previously stated, has been comparatively light and infrequent during the week, and it has been in decided defect over the greater part of the province. The largest falls have occurred generally in East Bengal, where, during the week, the average amount of 2·69 inches has fallen, the normal fall for the period being 3·94 inches. This district has therefore received a fall very distinctly less than the normal. North Bengal has received an average fall of 1·50 inches, while the normal fall for the week is 3·55 inches, or the actual has been less than half the normal. South-West Bengal has received an average fall of 0·80 inch, while the normal for the period is 2·06 inches, and the actual is therefore about a third of the normal quantity. In Chutia Nagpur the fall has averaged 0·81 inch, and the normal fall would be 0·97 inch, the actual is thus again less than the normal. In North Behar the fall has averaged 0·63 inch against the usual amount of 0·88 inch, and this district has therefore received a fall not very far removed from the normal, while in South Behar the actual fall has been 0·38 inch and the normal is 0·64 inch, and thus the fall is about half the normal. Orissa has received the very small fall of 0·14 inch, the normal being 1·15 inches or about eight times as much. Speaking generally, it may be said that the rainfall over Bengal has been only about one-half of the normal. In Assam the three stations from which reports are obtained have received the following amounts of rain:—Silchar the large fall of 5·22 inches, Sibsagar 3·31 inches, and Dhubri 1·02 inches.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the Province for the week ending Friday, the 10th of June 1887:—

For Offg. Meteorological Reporter to the Govt. of India.

MEMORANDUM.

THE returns of the principal Municipalities in Bengal (excluding Howrah and Bali from which no returns were received up to date), for the week ending 28th May 1887, disclose the following particulars:—

1. That births and deaths were recorded in these Municipalities at the rates, respectively, of 14·4 and 22 per 1,000 of population as opposed to 15·9 and 24 per 1,000 in the preceding week ending 21st May, indicating a retrogression in the registration of both the events.

2. That these events were returned in the highest proportions from the following Municipalities:—

Births.	Ratio per mille.	Deaths.	Ratio per mille.
Beauleah	52·5	Gya	40·3
Serampore	47·1	Serampore	35·3
Utterpara	37·7	Suburbs of Calcutta	32·1
Durbhanga	29·9	Beaulah	31·5

3. That the principal diseases specified in the table appended to this memorandum proved fatal at the rates exhibited below:—

	Ratio per mille during the weeks ending—
	28th May 1887.	21st May 1887.
Cholera	2·4	5·5
Small-pox	·2	·4
Fever	8·2	7·9
Bowel-complaints	3·1	3·2
Injury	·4	·3
Other causes	7·7	6·7

indicating chiefly that, in comparison with the preceding week, the severity of cholera had on the whole declined considerably, but that the mortality from the diseases classed under the head of "Other causes" had increased to some extent.

4. That while bowel-complaints and injury were nowhere actively severe, and fever proved noticeably fatal only in the Beauleah town, viz., at 21 per 1,000 of population, the rest of the diseases caused the greatest loss of life in the following Municipalities:—

Cholera.	Ratio per mille.	Bowel-complaints.	Ratio per mille.	Other causes.	Ratio per mille.

* A special census of the Europeans in the Darjiling Municipality was recently taken, as the census of this section of the community, taken in February 1881, was not reliable owing to the Europeans being at a minimum in that month. The number of the natives remains as before, as it was not necessary to re-census them. The ratios have consequently been calculated on the revised population under all heads in the above table, except "Age," the ratios under which have been omitted, inasmuch as the census of the Europeans [illegible] population owing to the results of the census under this head not having been recorded under the authorized form of age classification.

General remarks on the fluctuation of principal staples carried over the East Indian Railway during 4 weeks ended 23rd April 1887.

INCREASES.

Coal and coke.—There was a nominal decrease in the weight carried downwards, and increase in receipts. The increase in upwards traffic is both for ordinary consumers and for railways.

Cotton.—This was due to the favourable state of the market reported on for March continuing during the greater part of April.

Wheat.—This increase is in short distance traffic.

Rice (husked and unhusked).—The increase in this staple is principally in upwards despatches.

Opium.—This increase is due to the arrangements for sale made by Government.

Railway Materials, Foreign.—Due to despatches for the Indian Midland Railway and the Tirhoot State Railway.

DECREASES.

Piece-goods, European.—The Calcutta market during the month was dull, and the general report was that the amount of business put through was much less than usual for the season of the year.

Gunny.—This decrease may be ascribed both to the prospect of short supplies of grain in the North-West, Oudh, and the Punjab, and to the outturn of the mills at Cawnpore.

Gram and pulses.—Due to the despatches to Howrah being much less than usual.

Salt.—This is due to less demand in the Calcutta market than in March, and to diversion by Foreign Railways.

Seeds.—The decrease was principally in linseed, and was due to limited demand in Calcutta during the month.

Sugar and jaggree.—This is owing to poor crops in the district served by our stations Arrah to Dumraon.

Tobacco.—The decrease was chiefly in the despatches from our stations in the Patna district owing to poor crops.

Government stores.—Due to decreased despatches to Howrah.

NOTIFICATION.

Simla, the 16th June 1887.

No. 15.—The following Statute is published for general information :—

ARMY (ANNUAL) ACT, 1887.

50 VICT., SESS. 2, CH. 2.

An Act to provide, during twelve months, for the Discipline and Regulation of the Army.

[28th April 1887.]

Whereas the raising or keeping a standing army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in time of peace, unless it be with the consent of Parliament, is against law :

And whereas it is adjudged necessary by Her Majesty and this present Parliament, that a body of forces should be continued for the safety of the United Kingdom and the defence of the possessions of Her Majesty's Crown, and that the whole number of such forces should consist of one hundred and forty-nine thousand three hundred and ninety-one men, including those to be employed at the depôts in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the training of recruits for service at home and abroad, but exclusive of the numbers actually serving within Her Majesty's Indian possessions :

And whereas it is also judged necessary for the safety of the United Kingdom, and the defence of the possessions of this realm, that a body of Royal Marine forces should be employed in Her Majesty's fleet and naval service, under the direction of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid :

And whereas the said marine forces may frequently be quartered or be on shore, or sent to do duty, or be on board transport ships or vessels, merchant ships or vessels, or other ships or vessels, or they may be under other circumstances in which they will not be subject to the laws relating to the Government of Her Majesty's forces by sea :

And whereas no man can be forejudged of life or limb, or subjected in time of peace to any kind of punishment within this realm by martial law, or in any other manner than by the judgment of his peers and according to the known and established laws of this realm ; yet nevertheless it being requisite, for the retaining all the before-mentioned forces, and other persons subject to military law, in their duty, that an exact discipline be observed, and that persons belonging to the said forces who mutiny or stir up sedition, or desert Her Majesty's service, or are guilty of crimes and offences to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy punishment than the usual forms of the law will allow :

And whereas the Army Act, 1881, will expire in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven on the following days:—

(a).—In the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, on the thirtieth day of April; and

(b).—Elsewhere in Europe, inclusive of Malta, also in the West Indies and America, on the thirty-first day of July; and

(c).—Elsewhere, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions, on the thirty-first day of December:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Army (Annual) Act, 1887.

Army Act (44 and 45 Vict., c. 58) to be in force for specified times.

2. (1). The Army Act, 1881, shall be and remain in force during the periods hereinafter mentioned, and no longer, unless otherwise provided by Parliament; that is to say,

(a).—Within the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, from the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven to the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, both inclusive; and

(b).—Elsewhere in Europe, inclusive of Malta, also in the West Indies and America, from the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven to the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, both inclusive; and

(c).—Elsewhere, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions, from the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven to the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, both inclusive; and the day from which the Army Act, 1881, is continued in any place by this Act is in relation to that place referred to in this Act as the commencement of this Act.

(2). The Army Act, 1881, while in force shall apply to persons subject to military law, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions.

(3). A person subject to military law shall not be exempted from the provisions of the Army Act, 1881, by reason only that the number of the forces for the time being in the service of Her Majesty, exclusive of the marine forces, is either greater or less than the number hereinbefore mentioned.

Prices in respect of billeting.

3. There shall be paid to the keeper of a victualling house for the accommodation provided by him in pursuance of the Army Act, 1881, the prices specified in the Schedule to this Act.

Amendments of Army Act, 1881.

Amendment of s. 41 of 44 & 45 Vict., c. 58, as to offences punishable by ordinary law of England.

4. Whereas under section forty-one of the Army Act, 1881, as amended by the Army (Annual) Act, 1886, a person subject to military law is by the first four sub-sections liable, if convicted by a court-martial of certain offences in those sub-sections particularly specified, to suffer such punishment as is therein specified for each of such offences, and by the fifth sub-section is liable if convicted of any offence, which when committed in England is punishable by the law of England, to suffer such punishment as might be awarded to him in pursuance of the Army Act, 1881, in respect of an act to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, or to suffer any punishment assigned for such offence by the law of England:

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether the provision of the fifth sub-section for liability to the punishment that might be awarded in respect of an act to the prejudice of good order and military discipline extends to the offences in the first four sub-sections particularly specified, and it is expedient to remove such doubts: Be it therefore enacted as follows:—

In sub-section five of section forty-one of the Army Act, 1881, the words "not before in this section particularly specified" shall be inserted after the words "if he is convicted of any offence."

Amendment of s. 57 of 44 & 45 Vict., c. 58, as to communication and remission of sentences.

5. Whereas by section fifty-seven of the Army Act, 1881, the authorities therein mentioned have power to commute punishment awarded by a sentence of a court-martial for any less punishment or punishments to which the offender might have been sentenced by the said court-martial:

And whereas in case of murder the only sentence which a court-martial can award is the sentence of death, and doubts may arise as to the power of any authority to commute such sentence, and it is expedient to remove such doubts: Be it therefore enacted as follows:—

In sub-section one of section fifty-seven of the Army Act, 1881, the words "or if such punishment is death awarded for the offence of murder, then for penal servitude or such less punishment as in this Act mentioned" shall be inserted after the words "sentenced by the said court-martial."

In sub-section two of section fifty-seven of the Army Act, 1881, the words "or if such punishment is death awarded for the offence of murder, then for penal servitude or such less punishment as in this Act mentioned" shall be inserted after the words "sentenced by the said court-martial."

DISTRICT ROAD FUND.

NOTIFICATION No. 199.

The 16th of June 1887.

THE annual accounts and reports of the Road Cess Committees of the districts of 24-Pergunnahs, Nuddea, Jessore, Khulna and Moorshedabad for the cess year 1885-86, together with the remarks thereon of the Commissioner of the Presidency Division, are published for general information.

W. B. BESTIC,
Under-Secretary to the Government Bengal.

No. 518R., dated Alipur, the 22nd December 1886.

From—A. FORBES, Esq., Magistrate and Chairman, Road Cess Committee, 24-Pergunnahs,

To—The Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith the annual accounts and report of the District Road Cess Committee for the past cess year, 1885-86.

2 There were three meetings of the District Committee held during the year, and a quorum was present at each of them. The number of meetings held was not larger, as the whole of the business in hand was disposed of at the three meetings referred to. Copies of the proceedings of the six Branch Committees in the district were duly received, and anything requiring sanction or notice in those proceedings was promptly taken up and disposed of by the District Committee.

3. * * * The requisite number of meetings enjoined to be held under section 119 of the Cess Act was held by each Branch Committee during the year.

4. The principal business of the Branch Committees in this district is to distribute funds to the several village roads within their respective jurisdictions.

5. The construction or repair of village roads is generally carried out under the supervision of members of the Branch Committees as take special interest in the localities through which the roads pass. The Chairmen of the Branch Committes are satisfied that this procedure works well, and report that most of the members of Branch Committees take interest in matters connected with the village roads.

6. Three of the Branch Committees appointed one of their members under section 161 of the Act, to be an additional member of the District Committee, and it is satisfactory to note that the local experience of those additional members has been of much help to the District Committee.

7. A sum of Rs. 19,377 was placed at the disposal of the several Branch Committees for the improvement and repairs of village roads, namely—

	Rs.		Rs.
Sudder	2,996	Dum-Dum ...	500
Barripur	1,973	Barrackpur ...	1,500
Busseerhat ...	3,000	Baraset ...	3,023
Diamond Harbour ...	6,385

8. Owing to the levy of cess from petty lakheraj holdings which commenced this year, some additional funds were available for expenditure on village roads, and supplementary allotments were made to most of the sub-divisions, especially to the Diamond Harbour sub-division, which is more backwards in point of roads than the other sub-divisions in the district. With this small aid from the district fund, supplemented at times by private donations and contributions, the Committees were able to maintain their roads in a fair state of repair.

9. The following contributions were received during the year from private individuals for the improvement of village roads, viz.—

	Rs.
Baboo Joykristo Mookerjee for the Basuldanga road ...	300
The inhabitants of Gocoorney	200
Bibee Salatunnessa for the construction of a culvert on the Gossienpur road in the Baraset sub-division	125
The inhabitants of Bistoopur, &c., for the Kullagachia road ...	230
Maharajah Nurrendra Krishna Bahadoor, for the Hatoogunj road	250
The inhabitants of Radhabullovepur for the improvement of their village road	70
Total ...	1,175

10. A further sum of Rs. 2,500 from Baboo Radha Mohun Mundle, zemindar of Bowali, was received out of his promised contribution of Rs. 5,000 for the metalling of the Buckrahat road. The work will be taken in hand during the present cess year as soon as the other half of the contribution has been paid in.

11. The pucca and kutcha roads under the charge of the Committee, that is, those which are on the list approved by Government, are reported by the District Engineer to be generally in a fair condition. Since the opening of the Central Bengal Railway, the Takee road in charge of the Committee has become an important feeder from the east, and heavy traffic is now passing over it; the consequence is that the maintenance of this long pucca road has become a heavy charge on the District Fund.

12. There are about 140 miles of pucca roads under the charge of the Committee, and the amount spent for their repairs during the year under report was Rs. 52,422, or Rs. 374 per mile. I regret to have again to report that the funds at the disposal of the Committee are insufficient for the maintenance, in an efficient condition, of the existing roads in the district. The traffic on the roads is exceptionally great, as the neighbouring districts, which contribute nothing towards our expenses, send large numbers of carts along our roads into Calcutta and its Suburbs. The cost of up-keep has also within the last few years considerably increased owing to the development of trade in consequsnce of the extension of railways in the district. The Committee therefore have been obliged to refuse several applications from different parts of the district for the construction of new roads and village paths, except in a few instances where the people offered to contribute towards the expenses of the work.

13. There was no original work of any importance save the construction of a few culverts and the metalling of the kutcha portion of the Nimta road, for which, as was reported last year, the North Dum-Dum Municipality had contributed Rs. 2,000.

14. There are at present nearly 4,000 young trees along the sides of roads in charge of the District Committee, and some of them have begun to bear fruit. Malees were employed to plant the trees and Nocoor coolies to water them during the dry season. Bamboo enclosures were provided for the protection of such trees as were still within reach by animals. After a few years more it is expected that a good income will be derived from the sale of fruits of these trees.

15. The several establishments under the Committee are reported to have worked well during the year.

RAJENDRA NATH MITRA,
Vice-Chairman, Road Cess Committee, 24-Pergunnahs.

Explanatory memorandum to accompany the Road Cess annual account of the district of 24-Pergunnahs for the cess year 1884-85, under paragraph 14 of the instructions from Government for the preparation of the annual account conveyed in its Circular No. 84, dated the 14*th February* 1879 of the Public Works Department.

As per budget head.	Increase or decrease.	EXPLANATION.
		RECEIPTS.
Land cess	Decrease ...	The decrease of Rs. 1,682 was owing to non-realization of the cess from some lackrajdars who have been valued for the first time under Chapter IV of the Cess Act, and to some of the zemindars having withheld payment of the cess during the last September kist. Certificates, however, have been filed for the realization of the arrear.
Interest	Increase ...	The increase of Rs. 1,829 was due to the levy of interest, under section 70 of the Cess Act, upon owners of lackraj holdings which were brought under valuation during the year.
Miscellaneous ...	Ditto ...	The increase of Rs. 1,150 under this head was owing to the receipt of certain unexpended private contributions for the construction and improvement of a district road and some village roads, while the contributions from the municipalities in the district as budgetted for were not fully realized.
Grant from Government	Ditto ...	The increase of Rs. 478 was owing to receipt of a larger amount during the year out of the 10 per cent. collection from Government estates.
		EXPENDITURE.
Refund	Increase .	The increase of Rs. 1,264 was due to the refund to the Hon'ble Peary Mohun Mookerjee of one half-yearly instalment of cesses levied from him and other holders of revenue-free estates before it was due, under the order of the Commissioner.
Establishment on Provincial rates.	Decrease ...	Rs. 103. This was owing to the non-entertainment of the full extra establishment as sanctioned by the Board for the valuation of petty lackraj holdings.
Establishment on Administration.	Increase ...	Rs. 100. This was due to the payment of salary of the establishment for September 1886 in that month owing to the Doorga Poojah holidays.
Stationery and printing	Ditto ...	The increase of Rs. 15 under this head was due to a larger number of forms used in the re-valuation of lackraj holdings than was estimated for.
Original Works ...	Ditto ...	The increase of Rs. 254 under this head was owing to the construction of a new culvert on the Culpee road.
Repairs	Decrease ...	The decrease of Rs. 9,542 was mostly due to the full estimated amount not having been paid to the contractor, owing to the lower rates for works offered by them under the tender system, and to the expenditure of a smaller amount than that provided for in the budget for unforeseen works.
Establishment ...	Increase ...	The increase of Rs. 940 was due to payment of 13 months salary within the year in consequence of the Durga Poojah holidays falling within the year.
Tools and plant ...	Decrease ...	The decrease of Rs. 157 was owing to the non-purchase of any valuable new tools.
Miscellaneous ...	Ditto ...	The decrease of Rs. 182 was owing to non-requirement of the total amount provided for law suits.

R. N. MITRA,
Vice-Chairman.

No. 171R.F, dated Kishnaghur, the 31st December 1886.

From—The Magistrate and Chairman of the District Road Cess Committee, Nuddea,
To—The Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit the annual account for the last cess year with the following report.

The year was a very trying one for the Committee. It followed a disastrous flood which caused considerable damage to the roads of the District, and ended with one which though not equally destructive, was exceptionally high and severe. The actual requirements of the roads during the year were therefore much larger than what was anticipated and provided for. The fund at the disposal of the Committee for work of the year was Rs. 44,906, against an absolute ordinary demand of Rs 53,934. The Committee were therefore unable to provide in their budget any funds for the annual maintenance of thirty of their existing roads of comparatively minor importance or sufficient funds for many of the metalled feeders. The floods which occurred after the preparation of their budget rendered their position still more embarrasing. The special repairs which it rendered necessary on almost all of the roads alone required an outlay of Rs. 54,130, the total requirement under the head of repairs thus increased to Rs. 1,03,064. The Government gave a grant of Rs. 5,000, but the relief works undertaken in the flooded parts for alleviating distress, consumed Rs. 9694-1-7, and thus encroached upon the Committee's fund by Rs. 4,694-1-7. They explained their difficulties to Government and applied for a further grant. Their prayer, however, was not complied with.

3. Most of the available fund was spent on repairs. The only original work worth notice apart from Relief Works was the improvement of the 7th and 8th miles of the Kishnaghur and Nuddea road. The outlay on this work was Rs. 1,709-11-3 against a budget appropriation of Rs 2,300. The whole amount could not be spent owing to interruption caused by the last flood and the extreme delatoriness with which the work was executed.

4. The roads damaged by the floods were made passable quickly at the commencement of the year. Other repairs were carried out afterwards with the least possible delay They were with only a few exceptions restored to a fair state of working order. All of the expenses incurred were not paid for during the year. The flood which occurred in the latter part of the year caused some injury to some of them again, but the loss on the whole was not very large.

5. The rains of the year were seasonable and beneficial to the metalled roads of which the aggregate length was as before 133¾ miles. The estimated repairs of those roads were carried out within the year, but owing to want of funds the repairs were not as substantial as they should have been.

6. The relief works chiefly comprised the construction and improvement of village communications and execution of earthwork on relief roads located in the distresed tracts. Most of them were undertaken through zemindars and village agents who could be relied on. The result was satisfactory on the whole. The following were the principal works among them. Chuppra and Teyhutta road, Rs. 2,139-12 was expended on this road through Baboo Nuffar Chandra Palchowdhury, and about two miles of it were almost completed. This road was partly constructed as a relief work during the Famine of the year 1874, when completed, it will be very useful, serving both as a road as well as an embankment against the Jellinghee spills.

The next work was the completion of a relief road from Bicrampore to Gotipara, vid Nakasipara which is a thanah in the Sudder. This work was undertaken through Baboo Kristo Nath Rai, Zemindar of Nakasipara, and almost finished at an expense of Rs. 1,100.

The special repairs of the Kishnaghur to Berhampore road, and Kishnaghur to Meherpur road come next. Both of these works were done by contractors and were in progress for a long time, and thus supplied relief to persons who required help after the closing of all other relief works.

7. The allotment for village roads exclusive of what was spent on those undertaken as relief works was Rs. 5,700 viz :—

		Rs.
Sudder	Sub-division	500
Meherpore	ditto	1,700
Chuadangah	ditto	1,500
Koostea	ditto	1,000
Ranaghat	ditto	1,000
	Total ...	5,700

The actual expenditure on the work was Rs. 4,972-6-6 viz :—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Sudder	416	13	6
Meherpore	1,675	5	3
Chuadangah	1,485	12	0
Koostea	951	5	0
Ranaghat	443	2	9
Total	4,972	6	6

In the Sudder the ordinary village road works were, as usual, executed through village agencies under control of a Sub-Committee, and those constituting relief works were carried out through zemindars under the professional supervision of the District Engineer. The outlay on the latter was Rs. 3,699, viz :—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Matiary „	299	12	0
Debogram „	99	4	1
Total	3,699	0	1

In the sub-divisions the village road works were executed by the Branch Committees, mostly through resident gentlemen, both European and native. The result was satisfactory. In Meherpore the grant was in some cases supplemented by private donations.

The Ranaghat Branch Committee intended to construct a continuous village road from Berohi to Harringhatta, as a road of the kind is very much wanted in the locality, and with this view they spent small amounts on other village roads. The project involved correspondence which occupied the best portion of the working season. No work was therefore undertaken on the road during the year.

8. Rupees 640-2 was spent on arboriculture. More than two-thirds of the expenditure was the salary of mallies entertained for the whole year on eight of the important feeders on which existing young trees required nursing and protection. Only 252 young trees were transplanted on roads during the year. The flood assumed a threatening attitude from the beginning of August. The work was therefore not pushed on with vigour. The nurseries were full of grown-up plants. No fresh seedlings were therefore planted in any of them.

9. The flood of the year was very severe, and in some parts of the district, Koostea for instance, it was higher than the preceding flood. It was caused by the overflow of the local rivers. The cross country flood from Moorshedabad side was shut out by the Lalitakuri embankment. The important embankments on the rivers Bhagirutty and Jellinghee were also repaired and saved. The roads therefore sustained little damage compared with that caused by the previous year's flood.

10. Altogether 44 roads were damaged more or less, and the loss was calculated at Rs. 10,965, viz :—

SUB-DIVISION.	Number of Roads.	Amount of damage.
		Rs.
Sudder	12	4,440
Chooadangah	12	2,570
Ranaghat	6	1,260
Koostea	8	1,645
Meherpore	6	1,050
Total		10,965

11. The Kishnaghur to Berhampore road and the Kishnaghur to Meherpore road sustained the greatest damage. On the Buggoolla road the first mile from Buggoolla was overwhelmed by the flood immediately after the completion of the renewal of its metalling. The loss in earthwork and metalling was, however, not more than Rs. 540.

12. The District Committee met four times during the year, and all of their meetings were well attended.

13. The Koostea Branch Committee had two meetings only. Some of the members failed in their duty. Three of them attended none of the meetings.

14. The Meherpore Branch Committee met thrice during the year, and all of their meetings were well attended. Four members failed to attend any meeting during the year. Many of the members, both European and native, took active part in the execution of work and did it satisfactorily.

15. Two meetings were held by the Chooadangah Branch Committee, and both of them were attended by a quorum. Three members attended no meeting during the year.

16. The Ranaghat Branch Committee met five times, and the attendance was satisfactory in all of the meetings. The members generally took full share of the work.

17. The road cess is now understood by the public. In Meherpore, Koostea, and some parts of Chooadangah, the discontent still felt is that they do not get their proper share of the amount realized by the road cess. Most of the metalled feeders and other important lines of communications are in the Sudder and Ranaghat sub-divisions. It is, therefore, neither fair nor possible to allot funds in accordance with the amounts of cess realized in each sub-division.

18. The works budgetted for the current year are mostly repairs. The principal original works are the completion of the improvement of the 7th and 8th miles of the Nuddea road, and the construction of Kapelleshur and Harringhatta bazar road. The allotment for the former is Rs. 3,291, and that for the latter is Rs. 700. The fund allotted for village roads amounts to Rs. 5,000.

19. The establishment worked satisfactorily, especially the Accountant of the Chairman's Office, and the District Engineer, whose out-door work was executed with great promptitude, and the roads were quickly put in a passable order after the floods had receded.

RAM CHANDER MUKERJEE,
Vice-Chairman.

No. 149DF, dated Jessore, the 19th March 1887.

From—A. C. TUTE, ESQ., Magistrate and Chairman, District Board, Jessore,
To—The Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith the Road Fund annual report and accounts for the cess year 1885-86, together with the requisite explanatory notes required under Government circular No. 8A, dated the 4th February 1878.

2. The estimates of income and expenditure for the year under review were considered and passed by the District Committee at a meeting held on the 13th July 1885. The receipts were estimated at Rs. 97,535 and the expenditure at Rs. 90,726. The actual receipts, together with available balance of the previous year, were Rs. 1,03,533 and the expenditure Rs. 1,00,800. The details of expenditure were shown in Form 6, Part II of the annual accounts. The local works were carried out as usual by the District Engineer and his staff. Village roads and minor works were carried on by the Branch Committees under the supervision of the Chairman and members.

3. The District Committee met five times during the year, and at all the meetings there was a quorum.

4. Two meetings were held in the beginning of the year to pass excess expenditure beyond budget allotment, to elect a Vice-Chairman, to pass the annual report and accounts for 1884-85, and several estimates prepared by the District Engineer for the road works.

5. Two meetings were held between the months of February and June 1886 for passing estimates prepared by the District Engineer and for electing a Vice-Chairman.

6. The last meeting was held at the close of the year to pass the budget estimate for 1886-87, fix the rate of cess, and to sanction District Engineer's application for one month's privilege leave.

7. With very few exceptions the non-official members took but little interest in the administration of the fund at their disposal.

8. The accounts now submitted were laid before a meeting of the District Board held on the 19th March 1887, after being previously examined and passed by a Sub-Committee. The report of the Sub-Committee is herewith attached, vide statement B.

9. The principal works carried out during the year were as follows :—

(a) Surface repairs have been executed on 487 miles of roads, that is, on all the roads entered in the printed list.

(b) Metal has been renewed on eight of the principal roads, and there have been 1½ miles of new construction.

(c) All the bridges and culverts have been maintained throughout the district, and 13 new culverts have been constructed.

(d) No inspection bungalows have been constructed during the year, but all the existing ones throughout the district have been maintained in proper order.

(e) Arboriculture.—The fruit trees planted out on the different road-sides have been maintained.

10. Station roads.—A sum of Rs. 556 was expended in repairing the roads in the different sub-divisions, and the works were carried out under the direct supervision of the sub-divisional officers.

11. Village roads.—A sum of Rs. 4,486 was expended in constructing and maintaining the village roads and bridges in all the sub-divisions of this district. These works were also carried out under the immediate supervision of the sub-divisional officers and members of the different Branch Committees.

* * * * * *

15. The sub-divisional officers have taken interest in the roads of their sub-divisions, and have supervised the construction and repairs of village roads. The indigo-planters and a few native members have likewise rendered assistance.

16. Flood of 1886.—In the Bongong sub-division most of the roads were submerged by the flood, which, however, did not rise so high as that of last year, and some of the temporary bridges were destroyed. In the other sub-divisions of Jhenida, Magura, Narail and the Sudder the flood was much about the same as last year and the year 1879. On the Magura road the new temporary bridge at Abrukhalee was destroyed by an accident owing to the entanglement of a couple of dinghees with the pier posts.

17. With regard to the Engineering Department, I consider that the district is peculiarly fortunate. Mr. Burt's services and reputation need no praise from me, but (especially as I am leaving the district) I wish to put on record the very high opinion I have of him and his work. In no season of the year has he failed to see to details of work, often at great personal inconvenience. Like master like man, his overseers have given me satisfaction. There are always complaints about roads in every district, especially from people who have not the trouble of maintaining them; but I have driven over most of the district in the hot weather and rains, and I do not think many districts will show better communications. I take this opportunity of thanking Mr. Burt and his staff for a very efficient administration of engineering work of the district.

18. The Deputy Collectors in charge of the collection have done their work also, I consider, very satisfactorily.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMITTEE, 15TH MARCH 1887.

Present:

Baboo Omesh Chunder Ghose.
,, Aditya Chundra Sen.
,, Peary Mohun Guho, Vice-Chairman.

The accounts for the past year were carefully examined and passed, subject to the following remarks:—

1. That the expenditure on account of the establishment and contingencies of the collection office, as well as that on account of the administration and engineering office, exceeded the estimated amount by Rs. 3,657-4-7, and no sanction seems to have been obtained for this excess expenditure.

2. The explanation in regard to the above expenditure without sanction, is insufficient and unsatisfactory.

3. That the coal advance of Rs. 7,223-1-9 ought not to have been made without the express sanction of the Committee.

4. We could not check the works in respect to roads Nos. 4 and 25, because the estimate could not be found.

5. The repair works with respect to road No. 5 could not be checked, as the estimate could not be found.

6. The expenditure in repairs of the following roads has exceeded the sanctioned estimate:—

(a) No. 14, Chowgatcha-Kotechandpore.
(b) No. 20, Station road.
(c) No. 30, Gopalpore-Narainpore.
(d) No. 34, Katgora-Goatali.
(e) No. 41, Gaigbatta-Ichapore.
(f) No. 43, Gopalnagore-Majirgram.
(g) No. 51, Gorakhola-Solcoopa.
(k) No. 54, Khajura-Borobazar.
(i) No. 59, Village road, Bongong.

7. The expenditure with regard to the contingencies and establishment of staging bungalows and their repairs exceeded the sanctioned estimate.

Cess on lands	85,259 0 0	82,568 12 11	. .	2,690 3 1	This is due to arrears which stood at the end of the year under review.
Fees, fines and forfeitures ..	187 0 0	13 0 6		173 15 6	The probable income was estimated according to receipts under this head in previous years, but the actual income fell short of the estimated amount, as there was no occasion to impose fines
Miscellaneous	1,400 0 0	652 4 3	.. ...	747 11 9	This deficiency is due to actual receipts under sale proceeds from peela bricks, trees blown down by storms, &c. having fallen shorter than those of the previous years.
Interest	800 0 0	714 3 7	.. .	85 12 5	As the current collection of the past year was better than those of the previous years, the receipt under this head did not come up to the amount estimated
Establishment and contingencies of Collection office	2,809 0 0	4,633 11 5	1,734 11 5	... ..	This is due to extra establishment entertained for the valuation of rent-free holdings and the payment of the establishment bill for 13 months during the year, salaries for September last being paid on the evening of the last day of the month.
Establishment and contingencies of Committee's office	+ 76 + 34 2,601 0 0	3,121 11 5	486 11 5		These excesses are chiefly due to the establishment bills for 13 months being cashed during the year It being considered desirable not to put off payments to 1st October 1886, after which the offices closed on the occasion of the last Durga Poojah holidays, the salaries for September 1886 were paid on the last day of the same month.
Establishment (Engineering ..	15,154 0 0	16,528 6 3	1,374 6 3	.. .
Original works	−1,145−920 12,143 0 0	8,417 4 8		1,660 11 4	This is due to savings on different works on the district roads which were carried out during the year.
Repairs	+920+2,151 +307 53,074 0 0	45,596 6 11	....	10,855 9 1	This is owing to the paucity of funds at close of the year, for which payments to the contractors had to be defferred till the next year.
Tools and plant	830 0 0	968 7 6	138 7 6	..	This is due to the purchase of pickaxes kodalies, metallic tapes, &c., which were required for urgent use later on during the year
Staging bungalow establishment and contingencies	440 0 0	464 9 6	24 9 6	. ...	The same explanation as for establishment and contingencies of Committee's office and establishment under Public Works that all necessary steps have been taken for the recovery or adjustment of outstanding advances;
Staging bungalow petty construction and repairs	1,743 0 0	1,750 0 6	7 0 6	... ..	This is due to urgent petty repairs required for the bungalows.

that none but duly sanctioned expenditure has been incurred, and that in the case of original works, the register of monthly expenditure shows clearly the amount of sanctioned estimate, the grant for the year, and the expenditure on each work to end of the month;

and generally that the work of the office has been performed with carefulness and regularity and with a due observance of the rules prescribed by Government.

No. 152, dated Khulna, the 8th March 1887.

From—W. M. CLAY, Esq., Chairman, District Board, Khulna,
To—The Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith the annual accounts of the late District Road Fund, Khulna, for the cess year 1885-86, together with the following report:—

1. The delay in submitting this report is owing to the new organization of the District Board and the continued ill-health of the Vice-Chairman of the late District Road Cess Committee, Baboo Ambica Charan Sen, whose services, until prevented by illness, I take this opportunity of acknowledging.

2. There were during the year two ordinary and four special meetings, and at all of which there was a quorum. The average attendance was 11, the average number of members being 22.

3. The number of members was 26 in the beginning of the year, but was reduced to 22, four having ceased to be members under section 115 of the Road Cess Act. It will be observed that the attendance was satisfactory considering that many of the members were residents of the interior of the district and had to travel great distances. The District Committee worked well, the members, both official and non-official, with few exceptions, taking interest in the matters laid before them.

4. The number of members in the Branch Committee were much reduced in the previous year by non-attendance of six consecutive meetings under section 115 of the District Road Cess Act. But their places were not filled by new appointments.

5. The monthly accounts were scrutinised and audited by the standing Sub-Committee formed under section 174 of the Cess Act, and the accounts and books are reported by them to have been carefully and correctly kept.

6. These Committees were not very regular in their meetings, and submission of monthly accounts were often delayed from delay in their audit.

7. During the year the accounts were audited by the Examiner of Local Accounts, and his report will form the subject of a separate communication.

8. The following is an abstract of the total sum available for disposal and the expenditure made:—

			Rs.	A.	P.
Total actual receipts	...	...	60,563	13	1
Add balance of previous year	...	...	33,706	4	11
	Total		94,270	2	0
Expenditure on works and establishments	...	...	76,185	8	1
		Balance	17,084	10	11

ORIGINAL WORKS.

With the exception of the works noted below, all the original works were completed before September 1886:—

1. Metalling Satkhira and Chanduria road.
2. Metalling one mile of Jessore road.

These two works were not completed owing to damage done to cutcha bricks by the winter rain; one-third of the former and one-half of the latter were, however, executed.

3. Constructing sluice-gates in connection with the Bagirhat drainage scheme.

The bricks for the work could not be obtained before the rains, when it was difficult to lay the foundations. The work, however, will be completed during the current dry season.

4. Constructing Harikhali and Rohima bad bridges.

Estimates were not sanctioned; the former project having been altered, fresh estimates of the altered plans have now been passed.

5. Manufacture of bricks for the Jamria Khal.

Bricks manufactured for the purpose were not of good quality and therefore not taken over from the contractor.

6. Corrugated iron shed at Khulna godown.

Materials were collected, but the land selected was not taken in time for completion of the work.

7. Jugikhally Bridge.—The work was begun late in the season, but has now been completed. It is a light bridge of 150 feet for foot passengers over the khal of that name, which is the boundary between the Bagirhat and Sudder sub-divisions. The completion of this work has effected a great improvement in communications.

REPAIRS.

All the repair works provided for in the estimate, amounting to Rs. 32,544 9·4, were completed.

PLANTING TREES.

Fruit-trees planted on one mile of the following roads:—

Khulna and Jessore road.
Khulna to Bagirhat road.
Satkhira and Chanduria road.
Satkhira to Bhomra road.

Besides these, an avenue of jhau trees was planted on the Jessore road opposite to the Khulna railway station.

Establishment on works—It had been proposed to raise the pay of District Engineer to Rs. 300 a month, and provision was accordingly made in the budget; but as this increment was not sanctioned by Government owing to the impending introduction of self-government, the full amount put under this head was not expended.

Village Roads.—Rs. 9,590-1-1 were allotted for village roads in the district, out of which Rs. 5,368 were placed at the disposal of the Vice-Chairman, District Fund, Khulna, for roads and bridges of the sudder sub-division. A large number of earthenware pipes were placed in several village roads, and some pucca culverts were made by which the roads, and specially the drainage of the villages through which they pass, have been much improved.

Rupees 2,000 were made over to each of the Branch Committees, Bagirhat and Satkhira, and were spent by them on such village works as they considered most important.

Bungalows.—Four new rest-houses at Kalaroa and Satkhira and Chanduria road, at Patkelghatta on Dowlatpore and Patkelghatta road, at Tala on Tala and Hariarghope road, and at Rampal on Bagirhat and Chandpie road, have been constructed during the year.

Conduct of Establishment.—The Committee have expressed themselves satisfied with the work done by the establishments under their control.

No. 35, dated Berhampore, the 4th December 1886.

From—The Chairman of the Moorshedabad District Road Cess Committee,

To—The Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit, under section 179 of the Road Cess Act, the following annual report, together with the annual accounts, on the operation of the Moorshedabad District Road Fund during the past year, from 1st October 1885 to 30th September 1886.

2. It cannot be said that all the members of the District and Branch Committees evinced an equal interest in their work. Those living in and about sudder stations mostly attended the meeting regularly, and no difficulty in procuring a quorum for the transaction of business was experienced. But those who live in outlying places seldom attended.

* * * * * * * * *

3. There are three Branch Committees at Jungipore, Kandi, and Choan. A greatly increased interest was shown during the year under review by the Chairmen of the Branch Committees and planters in their work. Over 85·7 per cent. of the whole allotment was expended during the year, against 83 per cent. of the same allotment during the previous year. The District Committee found that the sum of Rs. 10,000 was the utmost they could afford to allot for village roads, having due regard at the same time to the interests of the other main roads of the district. The general distribution and expenditure of the allotments for village roads are believed to have given general satisfaction to the villages concerned.

4 The maximum rate of cess was levied during the year. The Road Cess Act, as far as the collection of cess was concerned, worked well. The zemindars, with the exception of a few, paid the sums due from them on the revenue days. The percentage of collection to demand was 99 17.

5. As regards the feelings of the people towards the levy of the road cess, it is believed that the people of this district are reconciled to the cess.

6. The establishment under the Deputy Collector in charge of Road Cess and the District Engineer appear to have worked well.

7. In the year 1881-85 the existing roads had been seriously damaged by the floods of the Bhagirathi and Bhoyrub rivers. They have since been thoroughly repaired and kept in a fair state during the year under report. But in September last the inundation again caused considerable damage to most of them.

8. Original Works.—The Road Cess Committee has so many miles of roads to maintain at a heavy cost that it has very small funds at its disposal for new works. The only original work therefore of any importance that was undertaken during the last cess year was the construction of a diversion of the Kandi and Pankee road near Shimbhaut. This new road will probably be completed before the end of March next. As the road is an important one, a temporary road has been made for traffic.

REPAIRS.

9. Pucca Roads.—There are about 26¾ miles of metalled roads kept up by the Road Cess Committee of this district; about seven and a half miles received fresh coat of metal four inches thick, and the remainder were patched up and repaired. The earthwork of the Bhagwangolah road has been washed away in many places. This was also repaired and put into proper order.

10. Kutcha Roads.—The total mileage of kutcha roads brought under the operation of the Road Cess Act is some 575 miles. Of these, 207½ miles are second class roads, embanked and bridged, and were kept in good repair; 278 miles are third class roads, embanked and temporarily bridged: these were also repaired throughout: the remainder are unraised tracks, which received the ordinary surface repairs. Some of the second and third class roads were raised where necessary.

11. The two main drainage cuts, called the northern and southern drainage cuts, that drain the Berhampore town and the bheels and low lands between it and the natural drainage channel, Gobra Nullah, were cleaned throughout and repaired.

12. Village Roads.—The village roads under the Branch Road Cess Committees of Choan, Jangipore and Kandi, and under the sub-divisions of Sudder and Lalbag, were repaired and constructed as provided in the estimate.

13. Tree-planting.—The fruit-bearing trees planted along the sides of roads were regularly watered and protected. Some young mangoe plants were also put by the sides of the Bhagwangola road.

14. At a meeting held on the 17th August 1886, the estimates for 1886-87 were passed. The total income, including the estimated balance, has been set down at Rs. 94,825, and the expenditure at Rs. 85,151. A sum of Rs. 14,613 was allotted for original works and for maintaining trees planted along the roads. A sum of Rs. 40,833 was allotted for repairs to main roads and drainage cuts, and Rs. 10,000 were allotted for village roads.

SRENATH GUPTA,
Vice-Chairman.

Reports by the Members of the District Road Cess Audit Sub-Committee of Moorshedabad on an examination of the road cess accounts, under section 179 of the Road Cess Act.

WE, the undersigned members of the Audit Sub-Committee, beg leave to report that we have examined the annual accounts of the Vice-Chairman for the road cess year 1885-86, as required in section 179 of the Road Cess Act, and found them to be correct.

P. H. O'BRIEN.
RAM DAS SEN.

BERHAMPORE,
The 6th December 1886.

No. 10PR, dated Calcutta, the 1st April 1887.

From—A. SMITH, ESQ., Commissioner of the Presidency Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith the annual accounts of income and expenditure of the several District Road Funds of this Division for the cess year 1885-86, together with the administration reports received from the Chairmen of the District Boards.

2. The total income of the districts, including the balance of the previous year, amounted to Rs. 5,36,999 in the year under review against Rs. 4,98,580 in 1884-85, and the total expenditure amounted to Rs. 5,04,064 against Rs. 4,27,134. The total amount spent in original work was Rs. 52,906 only, or 10·4 per cent. of the total expenditure, against Rs. 43,368, or 9·8 per cent., in the preceding year. The percentage in the 24-Pergunnahs was 6·8, in Nuddea 9·3, in Jessore 8·3, in Moorshedabad ·6, and in Khoolna 24·5. It is thus manifest that in all the districts except Khoolna the amounts devoted for original works were very small in comparison with the total amount spent. The cause of this is due to the fact that the funds at the disposal of the Committees are so insufficient that they have very little left for original works after meeting the demands for the maintenance and repair of existing works.

3. During the year under report the roads in charge of the committees have been maintained in fair order. The flood in September last, though not so destructive as that of 1885, had disastrous effects on some of the roads in Moorshedabad and Nuddea. But it is satisfactory to notice that the damaged roads have all been again brought to passable condition.

4. The statement in the margin shows the amounts expended by the District Road Cess Committees for the improvement of the village roads during the year under report as compared with the two preceding years. Besides the grant made by the Road Cess Committee of the 24-Pergunnahs, a sum of Rs. 1,175 was received from private individuals for the improvement of the village roads in that district. In Nuddea some improvement was effected on these roads owing to works undertaken for the relief of the poor during the flood. The outlay on this account amounted to Rs. 3,699.

24-Pergunnahs ...	12,387	14,500	10,377
Nuddea	5,132	4,034	4,972
Jessore	4,300	3,150	4,486
Moorshedabad ...	10,000	10,000	8,573
Khoolna	12,836	14,500	9,500

5. During the year the trees planted along the roads were properly attended to. The expenditure for this purpose amounted to Rs. 640 in Nudden, Rs. 591 in Jessore, Rs. 399 in Moorshedabad, and Rs. 793 in Khoolna. In the 24-Pergunnahs no separate provision was made for arboriculture, but expenditure on this account was generally provided for in the estimate for the roads.

The insufficiency of the available funds to the requirements of the districts, especially in Nuddea and the 24-Pergunnahs, is again brought to notice. The transfer to the new District Boards of the proceeds of ferries and pounds may yield some relief, even though new duties have been imposed; but even with the new help the Boards will, I fear, still find themselves unequal to meeting the requirements of these charges.

Letter from the Commissioner of the Patna Division, No. 90G, dated 26th February 1887, and enclosures.
Letter to the Director of Public Instruction, No. 190, dated 16th March 1887.
Letter from the Director of Public Instruction, No. 2328, dated 28th March 1887.
Letter from the Director of Public Instruction, No. 3233, dated 9th May 1887.

In the memorial, dated January 1886, referred to in the preamble, the members of the Muhammadan Education Committee of Patna, having expressed their conviction that the absence of any provision for religious education is the main cause which has hitherto prevented Muhammadans from sending their children to Government institutions for education, informed the Lieutenant-Governor that they had established a school at Patna on the model of the Aligarh Collegiate School, where arrangements had been made, not only for the secular instruction of the members of all creeds, but also for the religious education of Sunnis and Shias. In the Patna Anglo-Arabic School, it was added, special provision had been introduced for imparting to Muhammadis (Wahabis) religious teaching based upon their own principles. The school was opened in March 1884, and on the date of the petition it had 200 students, of whom 97 were Sunnis, 29 Shias, 26 Muhammadis, and 47 Hindus. The memorialists asked Government to assist them by acquiring a site for school buildings, by making a grant of the interest of the Behar Industrial School Fund, by making a money grant from the Wahabi Fund, and by a grant-in-aid from public funds.

2. It has been ascertained that the Municipal Commissioners of Patna have subscribed Rs. 66 a month, recently increased to Rs. 100 per month, towards the support of the School, and that an income of Rs. 308 per month is realised from fees and subscriptions. The institution appears to be properly conducted, on the plan laid down by the founders. The Lieutenant-Governor, considering these circumstances, and desiring to take every promising opportunity to promote education among Muhammadans, is pleased to sanction a grant-in-aid of Rs. 100 a month, with effect from the 1st July 1886, and also a donation of Rs. 15,000 from the Wahabi Fund, formed from the proceeds of forfeited estates. The latter sum will be invested in Government securities in the name of the Controller-General, the interest being paid for the benefit of the School, as long as it is properly conducted, and the principal will be made over to the managers as soon as the institution shall have given sufficient proof of permanent stability. With regard to the acquisition of a new site, the local officers will give every assistance in the selection, and Government will contribute an additional sum of Rs. 5,000 from the Wahabi Fund towards paying the cost of acquisition. Sir Steuart Bayley considers that there is an objection to the assignment to what is, to some extent, a denominational institution of money raised from the public generally for the Behar Industrial School.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor notices with pleasure the interest taken by Nawab Syed Wilayat Ali Khan, C.I.E, Moulvi Syed Ahmed Hossein, Moulvi Mahomed Hossein, Moulvi Khoda Baksh, Khan Bahadur, and many other Muhammadan gentlemen in the foundation of this Anglo-Arabic School, and hopes that others may be found willing to follow the excellent example set by the residents of Patna.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Director of Public Instruction, and the Commissioner of the Patna Division, for information, and to the Financial Department of this Office for information and communication to the Accountant-General.

Ordered also that the Resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

Explanation.—Summary.—The normal means of air pressure and temperature are the arithmetical average or means of the reading during the same period for the past ten years. The humidity of the atmosphere is expressed as percentage, saturated air being represented by 100. A clear sky is denoted by 0 and an overcast sky by 10. The numbers are the numerical means or averages of the rainfall in that district determined from the returns sent in by the sub-divisional station for the period in question during the past 13 station in the district sending in returns divided by the number of stations. A rainy day is one on which at least hundredth of an inch fell.

* Means for 6 days.

for the week ending Friday, the 17th June 1887.

CALCUTTA, the 14*th June* 1887.

SUMMARY OF THE RAINFALL AND METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 17TH OF JUNE 1887.

At the close of the previous week a rather feeble cyclonic storm had formed in the northern half of the Bay, which was accompanied by a very well marked cyclonic circulation of winds. On the 10th the centre of the storm was probably to the west of the centre of the Bay, and apparently opposite the coast between Gopalpur and Vizagapatam. By the indraught towards this storm the progress of the monsoon winds over Bengal was checked, and rainfall at this time over the province was scanty. On Saturday, the 11th, there was a decidedly rapid fall of pressure at the west coast stations of the Bay in the neighbourhood of the storm, and at the same time wind velocities at Diamond Island and in the north of the Bay increased very decidedly, showing that the storm was gradually and rather considerably intensifying. Similar conditions prevailed on the Sunday: pressure fell again at the coast stations and became very low, and wind velocities increased in the rear of the storm, and at Diamond Island blew very strongly, and it is probable that on this day the storm was of considerable strength, and weather over the northern part of the Bay was squally, if not stormy. The storm was also drifting slowly in a westerly direction. It was thought desirable on this day to warn the ships proceeding down the River Hooghly of the existence of the storm, and on the afternoon signal No. 5 was hoisted, which signified the existence of a small cyclonic storm in the Bay, the centre of which would probably cross the coast to the south of False Point. On Monday, at 10 A.M., the centre of the storm was almost over the coast about midway between Gopalpur and Vizagapatam. During the Sunday night pressure at Gopalpur was about 29·3″, showing that the storm was one of moderate intensity; but it must also be remembered that the centre of the storm was at least 80 miles from the nearest meteorological station, so that probably at its centre pressure was far lower than that recorded. As the storm was passing inland, the storm signals were lowered on the Monday afternoon. Fairly strong winds were recorded in connection with the storm, but. as stated above, the meteorological stations were too far away to give any good record of the actual intensity of the storm. The storm afterwards drifted into the Central Provinces and subsequently filled up.

The storm which had been previously deflecting the monsoon current away from Bengal having thus commenced to pass over the land on the Sunday and Monday, another advance of monsoon winds took place over Bengal, and most districts reported rainfall from the Sunday, though the rain did not reach Behar until Monday. The winds blowing over Bengal became almost normal in direction after the storm had advanced inland, and a strong southerly and south-easterly current was reported up till Thursday; on this day, however, a strong westerly element appeared in the wind directions over the province, and at most of the western and southern stations winds were south-westerly. This setting in of westerly winds was apparently due to the extension of the influence of the Bombay branch of the monsoon current, which at this time was blowing very strongly. The westerly current still continued strongly pronounced on Friday, the 17th. These westerly winds, in driving back the easterly, south-easterly, and southerly monsoon winds which had previously been blowing from the Bay of Bengal, caused a considerable amount of interaction or interference, and therefore probably of ascensional motion, and consequently conditions became favourable for heavy rainfall, particularly in the north and east of the province, and on the last two or three days of the week rainfall was extremely heavy at many of the stations in these districts.

Pressure.—The variations of pressure have to a great extent been governed by the existence and movement of the small storm above described, but after it had disappeared, and pressure had risen so as to fill up the depression, a general fall of pressure took place over Bengal for several days. Consequently, at many stations, pressure is again below the normal, though, on the other hand, at some of the northern stations which were uninfluenced by the depression, pressure has been slightly above the normal. The extreme variation from the normal, at those stations from which records have been received for the largest number of years, have been a defect of 0·044″ at Gopalpur and of 0·059″ at False Point, and an excess of 0·012″ at Purneah and Durbhunga.

Temperature—The variations of temperature have been comparatively small during the week, except at the beginning. The mean temperature of the whole of Bengal for this period has been 1·3° in defect of the normal, but while East and North Bengal show temperatures in excess of the normal, the remainder of the province has been in defect. The defect has been to a great extent confined to Chutia Nagpur, where it equals 4·6°, and to Behar, where it has been 2·5°.

Rainfall—Has been fairly general and frequent almost throughout the week, but the falls have been in most instances light, except towards the close of the week and in the northern and eastern districts. North Bengal and North Behar have received a fall in excess of the normal, while all the other districts in Bengal have been in defect. North Bengal has received the largest fall, and this district averages 6·38 inches of rain falling on 5·0 days, while the normal for the period is 4·78 inches falling on 4·2 days. Compared with the normal the actual represents 133 per cent. North Behar has received the next largest fall of 3·90 inches on 3·1 days, while the normal for the period is 2·75 inches on 2·7 days. The fall has therefore been both larger in amount and more frequent, the actual fall representing 142 per cent. of the normal. All other districts have received falls in defect. East Bengal has received 3·30 inches, while the normal is 5·36 inches, and thus the actual fall is only 61 per cent. of the normal. South-West Bengal has received 2·36 inches, the normal for the period being 2 85 inches, and the percentage being 83. South Behar has received 1·74 inches, while the normal is 2·05 inches, and the actual is thus 85 per cent. Orissa has received an average of 1·30 inches against the normal 1·96 inches, and the percentage becomes 66; while in Chutia Nagpur the average fall has only equalled 1·28 inches, while the normal is 2 50 inches, and the percentage of the normal is therefore only 51. Taking these districts as having an equal value, the general rainfall of the week has been 89 per cent. of the normal. Some decidedly heavy falls at certain stations have been recorded for the week. Cooch Behar has received 21·33 inches, Alipore Duar (Julpigori District) 18·88 inches, and Kurigram 15·01 inches, while the following stations have received falls of between 10 and 15 inches:—Rungpore, Bagdogra, Julpigori, Fallacotta, Dinhatta, Matabhanga, Buxa and Siligori. The three stations—Kurigram, Cooch Behar and Alipore Duar—also received more than 10 inches of rain in a single day on the 15th and 16th. It will therefore be seen that the Rungpore, Julpigori, Cooch Behar and Darjiling Hills districts have been centres of particularly heavy rainfall during the week.

In Assam rain fall has again been tolerably plentiful during the week; Dhubri has received 9 68 inches, Silchar 4·11 inches and Sibsagar 3 34 inches.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the Province for the week ending Friday, the 17th of June 1887:—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from observations made at 6h, 10h, 16h and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

* A special census of the Europeans in the Darjiling Municipality was recently taken, as the census of this section of the community, taken in February 1881, was not reliable owing to the Europeans being at a minimum in that month. The number of the natives remains as before, as it was not necessary to re-census them. The ratios have consequently been calculated on the revised population under all heads in the above table, except "Age," the ratios under which have been omitted, inasmuch as the census of the Europeans above alluded to cannot be employed as a basis of calculation owing to the results of the census under this head not having been recorded under the authorized form of age classification.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,—BENGAL.

DISTRICT ROAD FUND.

NOTIFICATION No. 206.

The 25th of June 1887.

THE annual accounts and reports of the Road Cess Committees of the districts of Dinagepore, Rajshahye, Rungpore, Bogra, Pubna, Darjeeling, and Julpigoree for the cess year 1885-86, together with the remarks thereon of the Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division, are published for general information.

W. B. BESTIC.

Under-Secretary to the Government of Bengal,
P. W. Dept.

No. 149RW, dated Dinagepore, the 20th December 1886.

From—H. S. BEADON, Esq, Chairman of the District Road Cess Committee, Dinagepore,

To—The Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith the report on the operations of the District Road Fund for the cess year 1885-86.

2. The brief preliminary report was submitted on the 28th June last.

3. Working of the Committee—The Committee met 13 times during the year. * * *

4. In meetings where there was a quorum business was laid before the members and discussed before disposal, and the members displayed satisfactory interest in the work.

5. The percentage of attendance is not very high, but it must be remembered that it is almost impossible to expect members in the mofussil, 30 or 40 miles away, to attend those meetings. They help the Committee in the construction of roads and occasionally bring to the notice of the Executive repairs that should be made, and it would be futile to expect more from them.

6. There are no Branch Committees in this district.

7. Working of the Cess Act.—From the Collector's point of view, the Cess Act may be said to be working better every year, as the collections have been more successful in this than even in the previous year, being 95 against 94 per cent. on the current demand. This subject has been dealt with separately in Collector's letter No 420 of the 12th November 1886 to your address, and need not be repeated here. The fact that a part of the collections have been paid in advance for the next year speaks well for the promptitude with which the demands of the law are met by the people of this district.

8. Inspection of offices.—Besides the inspection by a standing Sub-Committee regularly every month, the offices of the Committee and the District Engineer were inspected by the Local Auditor on the 11th September 1886, and the report of his inspection has been forwarded through the Commissioner.

9. It has been suggested in the report that the offices of the Committee and the District Engineer should be separated. Although the records and books are quite independent of each other, these offices have, since their establishment, been under the same roof and managed by a joint establishment for the sake of economy and rapid disposal of work.

10. The matter was not taken up, as the report was not received until after the close of the year. It will now have attention.

11. Original Works.—On two roads there was work under this head, viz., on the road between police-station Mohadebpore and the Sultanpore Railway station (being a part of road No. 15 of the printed list in force) and on road No. 7, Dinagepore to Gangarampore.

12. The former is a feeder to the railway, and, with the construction of a timber bridge of 6 spans of 20′ each, finished during the year under report, it is now a continuously bridged road from Mohadebpore to Hapina (10 miles), the common boundary of this with the Rajshahye district on the road to Sultanpore. It is intended to spend money in widening, raising, and generally improving the road in the current cess year.

13. On the 12th mile of the Gangarampore road, a masonry and timber bridge of 3 spans each of 20′ was undertaken, but could not be completed within the year owing to the rise of the Champatali stream. This work is now nearly finished.

* * * * * * * *

15. Repairs.—The roads in the district all received attention and were kept in passable condition for traffic as far as the limited funds at our disposal permitted. They have suffered considerable damage from the heavy floods of the last rains, which have made large breaches and deep scours and carried away many temporary bridges and weakened those that withstood its force The provision made in the current year's budget being for ordinary repairs only, supplementary grants must be made for the execution of these special repairs for which estimates are being prepared.

16. With a view to ascertain approximately the extent of traffic that travels over the different roads in this district, which is the main source of supply of grain to the districts of Maldah, Rajshahye, Moorshedabad, and other districts subject to inundation from the Ganges, I have introduced a system of collecting statistics through the agency of the overseers and sub-overseers in charge of the roads. An abstract of the result of this work is annexed in the accompanying statement, and it must be admitted that the traffic on all the principal roads is enormous, and fully account for the heavy wear and tear which falls upon and exhausts our resources.

17. I specially commend these statistics to the notice of Government in connection with the advisability of the construction of a line of light railway or a tramway on some of the roads, especially on the Moorshedabad road to Godagaree on the Ganges opposite or nearly opposite which is to be the terminus of the proposed railway to Bhuggowangola.

18. It is my intention to make a special report on this subject after collecting and examining the statistics of these roads during another season's traffic, and at different points of the roads and different times.

19 Village roads —Application for village roads were received from various parts of the district, and most of them were attended to. Many of the applications could not be acted upon, as the question of obtaining land from the zemindars free of cost became one of difficulty.

20. In those cases in which the applications were attended to and grants made, a great deal of useful work was done, and in one case a small contribution was received from the villagers as an aid towards the construction of a road to their village from a main line.

21. These works were done partly by the staff of the District Engineer, and partly by Mr. French, Manager of the Churamon Estate, and a non-official member of the Road Cess Committee.

22. Removal of obstruction to drainage.—No provision was made and nothing has been effected this year under this head.

23. Arboriculture —The system of getting trees planted on the roadside by villagers on a system of contract which I introduced last year has had one year's trial; and although I have not yet met with a very successful result, I have no reason to despond In a district like this, where land is cheap and plentiful, population sparse, and the agricultural portion fairly well-to-do, idle and ignorant, it is very hard to induce people to come forward to take to such an undertaking as tree-planting which, if intelligently understood, would prove a source of decent income to them. It is, however, hoped that the encouragement being given to those persons who have undertaken this work will gradually attract notice, and that others may begin to see that their neighbours without in any way neglecting their regular cultivation manage to earn a considerable additional income by tree-planting without leaving their homes.

24. For trees planted in previous years, most of which have now attained a height beyond the reach of cattle, a paid staff of gardeners has been kept, but they will be done away with this year, it being contemplated to get these trees looked after by the maintenance establishment on the roads.

25. Establishment.—The District Engineer, Baboo Ram Nath Bhattacharjee, is hard working and active, and continues to enjoy the confidence of the Committee and myself. He reports that the subordinates of his department have worked fairly well with the exception of the senior overseer. This overseer has, however, left the district, and in his place three sub-overseers have been employed for the better supervision of work.

26. The office establishment under the Collector, District Engineer, and the Committee have given satisfaction in their respective duties.

27. The annual accounts were audited by the standing Sub-Committee on the 17th December 1886, and laid before the special meeting of the Committee, held on the 18th December 1886.

CHANGEABLE STATISTICS.

NUMBER AND NAME OF ROAD	Length in miles	I. Number of carts overtaken and met, carrying all sorts of articles and empty — Calculated daily number	II. Number of cattle, sheep, pigs, &c., overtaken and met, laden with articles and unladen — Calculated daily number	REMARKS
No 1 Moorshedabad road ..	50	6,151	1,808	These statistics are the results of observation during the months of February to June 15th inclusive and the calculations arrived at are explained as follows For instance, on the 14th February 1886, overseer Mati Lal Banerjee counted 64 carts in five miles in 1½ hours on the Moorshedabad road The length of the road being 50 miles and the working hours being assumed as ten, the number of carts that would be travelling over the whole road during the day would be— $x = \frac{5\times1\frac{1}{2}}{50\times10\times88} = \frac{50\times10\times88}{5\times3} = \frac{50\times\cancel{10}\times88\times2}{\cancel{3}\times\cancel{10}} = \frac{17600}{3} = 5866$

Explanatory Memorandum to accompany the Annual Account for the cess year 1885-86.

1. Receipts.—This is due to the fact that in some cases cesses were paid in advance, and hence the collection under this head was larger than the amount estimated for.

2. It is attributed to the fact that the receipts under the heads "copying" and "searching fees" were, during the year under report, larger than those received in the years preceding. As these receipts are of a fluctuating nature, and become more or less according to the number of applications received, the collections were more than the amount budgeted for.

3. The collection of the year being larger than the estimated amount, the percentage cost of establishment was therefore paid in excess of the amount provided for in the budget.

4. Expenditure.—This road was not undertaken and hence nothing was spent.

5. The excess expenditure (Rs. 4-15-6) was unavoidable, and hence incurred. It will be met from the general savings from other roads.

6 & 7. As the allotments for roads Nos. 10 and 42 were not sufficient for their maintenance, nothing was therefore spent on them.

No. 244DF, dated Beauleah, the 7th March 1887.

From—The Chairman, District Board, Rajshahye,
To—The Magistrate of Rajshahye.

I HAVE the honour to submit the accounts of income and expenditure of the District Road Fund for the cess year 1885-86, and to make the following remarks on the administration of the fund

2. These accounts were examined by the Finance Committee of the District Board, and certified by them as correct. They were then laid before the special meeting held on the 14th January 1887, and passed by them under section 179 of the Cess Act and 54 of the Local Self-Government Act.

3. The road cess was levied at the full rate of half anna in the rupee The people fully appreciate the purposes for which the road cess is levied. To prove this assertion I beg only to state that numerous applications are every year received from inhabitants of several villages to improve the condition of their respective village roads, that is, to benefit themselves with the money they are contributing as cess on lands.

4. The cess collections during the year have been satisfactory. The demand for the year was Rs. 76,368 and the collection Rs. 81,482. The excess is due to the arrears collected.

5. There were four meetings in the year. The business at the meetings was fully and freely discussed. The Committee discharged its duties with interest and zeal.

6. The District Road Fund accounts and the accounts of the District Engineer's Office were examined by the Local Auditor in December 1885 and also in January last. The note of the first audit was communicated in Accountant-General Bengal's No. 320LA, dated 18th January 1886.

7. ROADS.—Nattore Road.—A bridge (No. 24), 60 feet long, was thoroughly renewed; and instead of the two bridges washed away in the flood of 1885, one bridge, 80 feet long, has been put up.

An embankment, 500 feet long, had to be put up connecting the old and new Public Works embankments in order to protect the portion of the Nattore road left out by the new Public Works line. The road was properly maintained.

Nowhatta Road.—The old khoa metalling was repaired and a portion of the road was metalled with stone.

Godagari Road.—The renewal of bridge No 19 on the road at Coomarpore, 80 feet in length, was nearly completed.

Dinagepore Road.—A 50-feet bridge was thoroughly repaired.

Bagsar Road.—Bridge No. 9, 100 feet long, of masonry piers, iron beams, and timber top was thoroughly repaired and work commenced on bridge No. 8.

Maldah Road.—A bridge, 45 feet long, was renewed.

The other roads were also maintained as well as the funds permitted Great improvements were, however, made to Roads Sarda to Nandangachi, Balihar to Manda, Madariganj, Tanore, Baraigoan, Khetoor, Damcoora, and Tahirpore roads.

8. Village roads.—Applications for the improvement of village roads were so numerous that the Committee could not pay attention to all, though they spent Rs. 7,294, or about an eleventh portion of the revenue on village roads this year as compared with Rs. 3,681 spent in the year preceding.

9. Agency.—Besides the official staff, Messrs Morey, Lang, Walton, Dixon, and Conon undertook earth work repairs of several roads, and thanks are due to them for their troubles in doing the works satisfactorily.

10. Drains.—Rupees 1,100 were spent in constructing a new bridge and lowering the bed of another on the Nattore road in connection with the municipal drainage scheme, and in removing obstruction to roadside drains.

11. Arboriculture.—Thirty-two thousand date-trees were planted on road sides this year. The standing fruit-trees were taken good care of.

12. The cost of establishment during the year was—

	Rs	A.	P
Collection establisment	2,583	11	0
Committee's office establishment	1,203	15	0
Percentage cost of establishment for offices of account and control	1,153	4	6

The revenue for the year was Rs 85,338-9-4; thus the percentage of establishment to revenue is 19·52, which is far below the limit imposed in section 135 of the Cess Act.

13. Working of the establishment.—The District Engineer, Mr. N. W. Mackenzie, continued to give satisfaction to the Committee by the zeal and intelligence with which he performed his duties.

His Subordinates.—The District Engineer has not had any cause to report any of his overseers, though the work for the year under review has tested their energy and perseverance, especially during the unusually heavy rains last season. The accountant has faithfully discharged his duties, though handicapped by the head clerk being absent for three months, and it is satisfactory to note that the Accountant-General finds no fault with the monthly accounts.

L. CAMERON,
Vice-Chairman.

Memo. from—MESSRS L. CAMERON, D. MORISON, and BABOO BROJA GOPAL BAGCHI,

To—The Chairman of the District Board, Rajshahye.

WE, the undersigned members of the Finance Committee appointed under section 55 of the Local Self-Government Act, have the honour to report that as the Road Cess Sub-Committee of Audit have ceased to exist, we met on the 6th December 1886 to examine the Road Fund accounts for the year 1885-86, and we pass them, as we find them correct.

EXPLANATION.

Receipts.

The interest realised on arrears was more than double the estimated amount under that sub-head; the fees realised were half as much again as the estimate.

The miscellaneous receipts were also heavy. The short collections under head Grant from Government for improvement of communication is due to no credit being given to the fund in the treasury in the last two quarters of the cess year under report.

Disbursements.

Copying fees.—The increase of expenditure under this head corresponds with increase of revenue under "Fees and fines."

Original Works and Repairs.

Excesses on certain works and repairs over the budget grants are too trifling to call forth any remarks.

Public Works establishment—There has been an excess of about Rs. 7 under this head, which is also too small to notice in an estimate of Rs. 11,714.

Contribution for Divisional Superintendent's Establishments and Contingencies.

The excess is due to the payment of two years' contributions during the year under report. As under the Local Self-Government Act no payments on account of Divisional Superintendent are to be made out of the District Fund, contributions for 1885-86 were also paid within the year.

No. 407, dated Rungpore, the 7th February 1887.

From—H. J. NEWBERY, ESQ., Chairman, District Road Cess Committee, Rungpore,

To—The Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith in duplicate a detailed account of receipts and expenditure of the Rungpore District Road Fund for the past cess year ending on the 30th September 1886 prepared under section 178 of the Bengal Cess Act, together with the following brief report on the work of local improvements that were undertaken during that year.

* * * * * * *

2. Audit of Accounts.—The Sub-Committee appointed for the purpose of scrutinizing the accounts held monthly meetings during the cess year under report in accordance with the standing orders of Government. The result of their audit was satisfactory. The annual accounts, which were examined by the Sub-Committee of Audit, have been certified by them as correct. They have been duly approved at a special meeting of the Committee held for the purpose under section 179 of the Cess Act on the 2nd instant.

3. Assessment and Collections.—The current demand on account of the cess on lands for the year was Rs. 1,23,383, and the arrear demand from the last year Rs 10,077, making a gross demand of Rs. 1,33,410 for realization. A sum of Rs 1,27,963 was collected during the year, leaving a balance of only Rs. 5,447 uncollected at end of the year. The collection, therefore, is very satisfactory. A separate report on this head has been submitted by the Collector of the district.

4. Working of the Cess Act.—The people seem now quite reconciled to the levy of the cess, which is gradually becoming popular in the district, as the majority of the people now appreciate the benefit it confers.

5. Working of the Sudder and Branch Committee.—During the year under report seven special meetings were held by the Sudder Committee, and at each of them there was a quorum. The members evinced great interest in all matters brought before them for discussion. There are three Branch Committees in this district, one at Gaibanda, one at Nilphamari, and the other at Kurigram. Copies of the proceedings of each of the three Branch Committees were regularly received by the District Committee. The principal business of the Branch Committees in this district is simply to distribute the funds allotted to them by the District Committee among the several village roads within their respective jurisdictions, and the Chairman of each Branch Committees personally tests the works, or deputes one of his subordinates or any individual member for the purpose.

* * * * * *

6. Working of the Audit Committee.—The Audit Committee appointed under section 174 of the Cess Act to audit the monthly and annual accounts did not, as reported last year, work well during the year, as the monthly accounts had to be examined in many cases by the Vice-Chairman and only one member, and in one case by the Vice-Chairman alone. The difficulty in procuring the attendance of two other members to sit on the Audit Committee is that the accounts are all in English, and only two of the non-official members are tolerably acquainted with that language.

7. Inspection of accounts.—The accounts of the Committee's office were examined by the local auditor in June last, and the result was satisfactory.

8. Establishments.—The different establishments on the collection of the cess and on the administration of the funds have, on the whole, worked satisfactorily during the year. The District Engineer also worked satisfactorily, as did most of his subordinates. Those who did not work well were severely reprimanded, and were warned that their work would be closely scrutinized this year, and if again unsatisfactory they would be dismissed.

9. Original works.—A sum of Rs. 1,10,833 was spent in original works. This sum was mostly spent in the construction of bridges on the most important lines of the district communications. All the original works that were budgetted for were taken in hand, and have more or less been completed during the year under report.

10. Repairs.—A sum of Rs. 17,828 was spent on repairs. With this sum the district thoroughfares have been kept in a fair state of repairs.

11. Village roads.—A sum of Rs. 3,494 was spent by the Sudder and the three Branch Committees on the improvement of village roads and foot-paths, and it is reported that the money has been usefully and economically spent by them. People are clamorous in their demands for repairs and construction of village roads, and applications numerously signed are frequently received. The allotment made for village roads is insufficient to satisfy the wants of the people. The amount left after providing for the construction of bridges on the most important lines of district communications and for the repairs and maintenance of the existing thoroughfares is all that is allotted to the Branch Committees for the improvement of village roads, but this is not sufficient for the numerous village roads in this district. Steps will, however, be taken to remedy the grievances of the people anent the village roads as soon the most important roads are bridged.

12. Arboriculture.—The Committee spent Rs. 959 for planting fruit trees on the sides of some of the important district roads and for the maintenance of trees planted in previous years. All the old as well as the new trees are thriving. The trees are carefully looked after by the subordinates in charge of roads. An enclosure is put round each young plant to protect it from animals.

13. State of roads.—The progress made in the four years I have been here has been most marked, and as I shall not be here to report on it again, I give my views here.

All the main roads either have been or are being permanently bridged. The only gaps now are at the rivers, and we propose to try the experiment of a long screwpile bridge at the Dum-dum Ghat this year. If that is a success, the other small rivers can be bridged one each year. I can now drive the whole length and breadth of the district without leaving a road and going down into the fields or through water.

Where the soil is sandy the surface is very bad, but even this is very gradually improved by the placing on it all the available grass and jungle which grow at the sides of the roads.

Planting of bamboos should take the place of tree-planting. I do not know the reason, but it is a fact that the propinquity of bamboos improves the surface of the sand of roads. Where the soil is clay, the surface is excellent; indeed, it is like driving over a pucca road.

Explanatory Note on the Annual Accounts for the cess year 1885-86.

IT will appear from the annual accounts that some of the works have apparently exceeded the sanctioned estimates, but on a reference to the statement given below it will be seen that the sanctioned estimates have not really been exceeded. The apparent excess is owing to the value of surplus materials at site of the works, which will be adjusted during the cess year 1886-87.

Sanctioned estimate	2,299
Total outlay .	3,215
Excess over estimate . .	916

The excess is partly due to 231,290 cubic feet of earthwork, at Rs. 2-8 per 1,000, or Rs. 599-11-6, having been charged to original works instead of to repairs, and partly to a sum of Rs. 334-2-9 being due from the contractor consequent on the failure of the brick-manufacturing operations. The necessary adjustment will be effected and the recoveries made during the cess year 1886-87.

ASUTASH LAHIREE, B.C.E.,

District Engineer.

No. 51RF, dated Bogra, the 16th December 1886.

From—A. BOSOOAH, Esq., Magistrate and Chairman, District Road Cess Committee Bogra,

To—The Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit, under section 179 of the Bengal Council Act IX of 1880, the Road Fund annual accounts duly passed at a special meeting held on 30th November 1886, together with a report of the work done during the cess year ending 30th September 1886

2. The district is thoroughly interspersed with a net-work of roads. In addition to Dinagepore, Rungpore, Serajgunge, and Nattore roads, which connect Bogra with the four neighbouring districts, there are the Sultanpore, Sheriakandi, and Nokhila roads in intermediate directions, besides Panchbibi, Madupore and other roads connecting the principal places in the interior.

3. The great want is the existence of many gaps in each of these roads There is not one important road which is passable without ferries throughout the year. I proposed in my No. 105, dated 26th April 1886, to raise a loan of one lakh to bridge the gaps in the most important road. I regret the views of Government are not yet known to this office.

4. The roads have generally been in very fair order. There is enormous traffic over the Sultanpore, Nawabgunge, and Dinagepore roads, and the first was not in good order in the months of June and July. But sanding was promptly taken up, and I found it in good order in August and again in September.

5. A passenger service was opened in May 1886 in connection with the mail trains to Sultanpore, and the receipts show its general appreciation by the public. It is proposed to carry mails also by this service, but I am still in correspondence with the Postmaster-General.

6. A sum of Rs. 1,120-13-4 was spent in opening up new and improving existing village communications. I regret, however, to notice that the people do not care to contribute a pice for this purpose, forgetting that the collections from road cess are quite inadequate to meet all the demands of the district.

7. One thousand seven hundred and thirty trees were planted during the year. The total number of these roadside trees now amounts to 12,103, and most of them are doing well.

8. There were altogether 11 meetings during the year

* * * * * * * *

The percentage of average attendance of the members was 42 04 against 39·3 of the preceding year. I have found the members take much interest in the proceedings since I joined the district in March last, and the percentage of their attendance since then will be nearly double of what is shown above.

9. The District Engineer is a loyal and painstaking officer, and has generally given satisfaction. I shall be glad to see him evince greater powers of organization and exercise greater control over his subordinates.

10. I am satisfied with the work of the Vice-Chairman and the Road Cess Accountant.

11. The office was inspected by the auditor in June 1886, and his remarks have been attended to. The mistakes pointed out by him refer to the time of the old accountant, who resigned in January 1886.

12. The Cess Act worked very smoothly. The collections amounted to 94 7 per cent. against 92·7 per cent. of the previous year, as reported in the Collector's No. 343, dated 5th November 1886, probably the largest collection ever made in this district.

An Explanatory Memorandum to accompany the annual accounts.

RECEIPTS.

Cess on lanas.—The arrear outstanding at the close of the preceding year was collected during this year. Hence the collection was larger than the amount budgetted for.

Miscellaneous.—The proceeds of the mail-cart service, which was opened in April last, vide Commissioner's No. 7PW, dated the 9th April 1886, were credited under this head. Hence the increase.

Interest.—The cause of the amount realized as interest on arrear cess, being in excess of the amount budgetted for, is due to the fact that a large amount of arrears was outstanding at the opening of the year than what had been calculated at the time of the submission of the last budget estimate. The arrears were collected, and consequently a large amount of interest was realized.

Grant from Government.—The part of the amount due on account of grant from Government for improvement of communication in the last year was credited during the year. Hence the increase.

EXPENDITURE.

The excess expenditure under the head "Percentage cost of establishment for the offices of Accounts and Control" is owing to the payment of part of demand for the previous year having been made during the year under report. The excess was met by the transfer of a similar amount from the head "Administration;" vide Commissioner's No. 129PW, dated the 15th October 1886.

Original works.—The compensation for land taken for the Gohail-Durgapur road was paid during the year. The excess over the budget grant for this work was met by a transfer from the savings of the Jeypore-Khetlal road; vide Commissioner's No. 125PW, dated the 1st October 1886.

A provision of renewing a 60 feet timber bridge has been made in the revised estimate for the repairs of the Sheriakandi road, and a sum of Rs. 920-2-6 was spent in purchasing materials. But under paragraph 35 of the Bengal Government Resolution No. 1209 of 8th March 1878, the work in question comes under the head Original, hence the transfer was made; vide No. 132PW, dated the 18th October 1886, and the repair estimate of the Sheriakandi road was reduced accordingly.

Repairs.—The following transfers, being of urgent nature, were made under the sanction of the Committee from the savings of other repairs.

PARTICULARS.	Amount as provided in the budget.	SUBSEQUENT TRANSFER		Net allotment against each road.	REMARKS

District Engineer's Bungalow at Bogra.—The Committee proposed to build a staging bungalow at Sultanpore in its stead. But as the plans and estimates were not sanctioned during the year under report, no expenditure was made under this head.

Establishment of the Divisional Superintendent of Road Cess Works.—The excess over budget allotment under this head is chiefly due to adjustment of proportionate cost borne by this Committee on account of establishment and contingencies of the Divisional Superintendent, &c., for the year 1885-86, in addition to that of 1884-85. The charges of the Divisional Superintendent of Works for the previous year were adjusted during the following year; but during the current year the charges for 1884-85 were adjusted in April 1886, and, as it was necessary to close the accounts with the Rajshahye and Pubna District Road Committees, which will cease to contribute towards the charges of the Divisional Superintendent from 1st October 1886, the charges for 1885-86 were adjusted during the year under report, and therefore the expenditure appears to be in excess over the allotment provided in the budget of the year under report.

Mail Service under the head "Miscellaneous."—The excess expenditure over the amount sanctioned by the Commissioner in his Nos. 7 and 80PW, dated the 9th April and 3rd August 1886, respectively, for the mail-cart service, was met from the proceeds of the mail-cart during the year.

A. BOROOAH,

Chairman.

No. 80DF, dated Pubna, the 24th January 1887.

From—C. VOWELL, Esq., Chairman, District Board, Pubna,
To—The Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division.

UNDER section 179 of the Cess Act, I have the honour to submit the road fund annual account for 1885-86, and to report on road cess operations in this district during that period.

2. The working of the Cess Act.—The Cess Act worked much the same as in previous years. There were a considerable number of long-pending certificate cases which have now almost entirely been disposed of. The usual inconvenience is experienced from shareholders attempting to shift the burden of the cess on to one another's shoulders.

The assessment of petty lakhiraj holdings has given the establishment a large addition of work, while the Committee derives very little profit.

3. Working of the District Committee.—Some members of the Committee worked zealously and showed a great interest in matters brought before them for discussion.

* * * * * *

4 The working of the Branch Committee.—Executive work of the Branch Committee of Serajgunge was well done, but difficulty was found in holding meetings. The supervision of all the works in the Serajgunge sub-division was made over to them. They had also charge of the payments for these works under the general control of the District Committee.

5. Original works.—Under the head of "Original works" nothing was done that deserves particular comment. The only works of importance provided for in the budget were the deepening of the Telkupikhal and the construction of the road from Syalkole to Ranisbund in Serajgunge; but sanction to the project for the former was received too late to admit of the work being taken up and completed before the end of the season, and the estimate for the latter is still before the Government awaiting sanction.

6. The roads and tracks in the district were repaired and maintained in fair order. I must repeat here what I stated in last year's report as to the heavy damage caused by the annual floods to the roads in this district. The last floods, which in these parts were higher than any within recollection, obliterated in many cases the improvements that had been made during the previous year.

7. State of the roads as a whole, whether improved or deteriorated.—I can state, however, from my personal experience that the roads have considerably improved during the past three years, though still much remains to be done. Comparatively large sums have been spent on some of the roads in the west of the district, with a view to aiding the export of rice from the Challun-bhil tract.

8. Village roads.—Out of a total allotment of Rs. 5,029 for village roads, Rs. 3,133-0-6 was spent. Of this, Rs 1,493-9 was for Pubna and Rs. 1,639-7-6 for the Serajgunge sub-division. In a few cases the work was done by the officers of the department, but in most cases the money was made over to local people to be spent by them. As in the previous year, the people supplemented the grants in some cases by private contributions.

In Serajgunge the greater part of the money was spent in raising the roads inside the villages, which are worn down so as to become mere ditches during the rains. The sub-divisional officer considers the money to have been well spent. At head-quarters the works were in many instances examined by the District Engineer himself.

9. Planting of trees.—Short lengths of the Dogachi road, the Syalkole road, and the road from Syalkole to Ranisbund, were planted with trees during the year.

The trees planted in previous years were nursed and protected.

10. Audit and Inspection of accounts.—The books and accounts prescribed for the offices of the District Road Cess Committee and the District Engineer were audited by a standing sub-committee with satisfactory results. The accounts up to December 1885 were inspected by the local auditor. The points noticed in his report have been attended to.

11. Establishment for collection of cess and that of the Committee's office.—Establishment for collection of cess and that of the Committee's office have both worked well.

Establishment on works.—The Sub-Overseer at head-quarters, who was on probation, was found not to be up to the work, and a new officer was appointed.

The Sub-Overseer of Serajgunge was found to have done a good deal of his work carelessly. The Committee in part accepted the excuse made that he had more supervision than he could get through. A third officer has consequently been appointed with head-quarters at Shazadpur.

The 9th December 1886.

DURGAKANTA CHAKRAVARTI,
Vice-Chairman, District Board.

No. 56, dated Darjeeling, the 13th January 1887.

From—A. W. PAUL, ESQ., C.S., Deputy Commissioner and Chairman, Darjeeling District Road Cess Committee,

To—The Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division

I HAVE the honour to forward the Annual Report and Accounts of the District Road Fund, Darjeeling, for the cess year ending 30th September 1886.

2. The balance at credit of the fund on 1st October 1885 was Rs. 16,015-10-1, and the revenue collected under the several heads made up a total of Rs. 31,184-1-7. The total expenditure during the year was Rs 28,159-1-11, leaving a balance of Rs. 19,040-9-9 available for the current year.

3. During the year under report, out of the current demand of Rs. 18,446, Rs. 356 were realized in advance during the previous year, and Rs. 17,694 collected during the year, leaving out Rs. 395 on account of remissions. Only Rs. 91 remained unrealized at the close of the year. A further sum of Rs. 403 on account of arrears outstanding at the close of the previous year, plus Rs. 768 collected in advance made up a total collection of Rs. 18,775.

4. The number of meetings of the District Committee held during the year under review was five. The average attendance was 4 out of 8 officials and 7 out of 18 non-official members. There was only one meeting of the Terai Branch Committee held at Silligori.

5. As in former years, the planter members showed unabated interest in the proceedings of the Committee, though in a few cases through scarcity of local labour, they could not succeed in rendering the desired amount of assistance in carrying out the expenditure of grants made to them for repairs to roads in the vicinity of their gardens.

6. There has been no alteration in the list of district roads mentioned in the report of the previous year.

7. Plans and estimates for bridging the hill streams were pending before the Government of Bengal, as stated in the previous year's report, during the whole of the year, and it was only at the beginning of the current year, after much correspondence and delay, that sanction to the construction of three suspension bridges over the Little Rangit, Rongbong and Kohel rivers was received.

Arrangements for taking these works in hand are being made, and Messrs. A. and J. Mani and Company have been communicated with for the supply of the requisite materials from Glasgow. The project for a similar bridge over the Balasan river at Namsu is still before the Government.

8. Rupees 5,851-15-9 were spent on hill roads, and Rs. 6,885-14-3 on the Terai roads, making a total expenditure of Rs. 12,737-14.

Besides the above, a further sum of Rs. 394-4 was spent on village roads in the Terai.

As related last year there was no expenditure incurred on arboriculture, because the local fund known as the Darjeeling Improvement Fund undertakes the whole of this branch.

9 The Cess Act worked smoothly during the year, the total collection being 101 7 per cent. on the current demand against 100·5 of the previous year. It is satisfactory to note this improvement on last year's percentage.

10. The District Engineer, Baboo Gopal Lall Banerjee, continues to prove a great acquisition to the Committee The accountant has been efficient.

11. The Road Fund office was inspected by the Examiner of Local Accounts at the commencement of the year. The defects in the system of keeping accounts noticed by the Examiner have been remedied.

RECEIPTS.

(a) The increase is owing to revaluation and advance collection.

EXPENDITURE.

ORIGINAL.

(b) Plans and estimates for these bridges being not sanctioned within the year, they were not taken in hand.

REPAIRS.

(c) & (d) No further repairs to these two roads were found to be necessary.
(e) This road was found to require no repairs.
(e) The short expenditure on the village roads is owing to the planters in charge of their repairs being not able to execute the repairs fully for scarcity of local labor.

ESTABLISHMENT.

(f) Rupees 34-8-6 had been outstanding against the Vice-Chairman, Terai Sub-Road Cess Committee, in his advance account since 1881-82 for want of a voucher for the travelling allowance he paid to the late overseer. It was adjusted this year under a resolution of the Committee.

MISCELLANEOUS AND SUSPENSE ACCOUNT.

(g) This correction was made under instructions of the Accountant-General, Bengal, but this debit of Rs. 48 to "advance" was adjusted in November 1886 by the correction of another erroneous adjustment of March 1885 according to the instructions of the Examiner of Local Accounts, Bengal, received while he was here in October last.

DARJEELING,
The 13th January 1887.

A. W. PAUL,
Chairman, Road Cess Committee, Darjeeling.

No 49, dated Julpigoree, the 21st December 1886.

From—G. J. B. TUITE DALTON, ESQ., Deputy Commissioner and Chairman, District Road Cess Committee, Julpigoree,
To—The Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division.

IN submitting herewith the accounts of income and expenditure of the Julpigori District Road Fund, in duplicate, for the past cess year ending 30th September 1886, I have the honour to report as follows :—

* * * * * * *

3. Branch Committees.—There are no Branch Committees in this district.

4. Feeling of the people towards Road Cess.—There has been no manifestation of feeling as regards the levy of road and public works cesses, which, as I have before remarked, are now considered as a part of the rent of the land. Some of the tea planters seemed to think that they did not get enough roads in return for their money, but a comparison of income with expenditure speedily undeceived them on this score. There was a very general feeling among old gardens which have been paying tax for some years that the newer, and as yet unassessed, gardens profitted unduly by roads, for which they paid nothing. I certainly think a road cess tax of so much per acre should be levied on all tea grants with effect from the date of preliminary possession, or at all events of the giving of a preliminary lease.

5. State of Roads.—The general state of all the district roads throughout the year was fairly good, with the exception of a few very important roads in the north of the district which were so far damaged by the late floods as to seriously affect cart traffic for some time. Unless the roads are properly repaired before the close of the current dry season, cart traffic over the roads will be very materially affected during the next wet season. The amount provided for in the budget is too small to enable the Committee to execute the necessary repairs on the roads. Almost all the roads* tapping the tea gardens in the Dooars are incomplete. The Committee, with the very limited funds at present at their disposal, are not in a position to complete them without aid from Government or the planting community The important roads in the south of the district were in good order throughout the year; the Central Emigration road from Boora Teesta to Ganjaparah) was transferred to the Committee's list from the Cooch

* 1. Julpigoree to Dalimkote.
2. Kyrunty to Battaigool.
3. Moynagori to Nagrakutta.
4. Silliguri to Phoolbari.
5. Julpigoree to Chalsa.

Behar State. During the year His Highness the Maharajah of Cooch Behar gave a grant-in-aid of Rs. 7,500 for its repairs. Some of the old rotten bridges on the road were replaced. To replace the rest the Committee, for want of funds, have not been able to provide anything in their present year's budget.

Messrs Lloyd and Company re-submitted to Government direct their proposals for a light railway from the Teesta to the tea districts, with the result that they were informed that Government could only consider the question of giving material support to the scheme when it was laid before them with the sanction and approval of the District Road Committee, which body was, in the Lieutenant-Governor's opinion, directly concerned with all proposals for the extension of communications within the district, whether such proposals took the form of new roads or railways, and whether or not the land to be acquired was the property of Government, or of private individuals, or of the District Committee itself.

Towards the close of the year memorials were addressed to the Deputy Commissioner by several of the leading firms and managers of tea gardens regarding the state of the Dalimkote and other roads, asking for Government assistance, and stating that the District Road Committee had shown itself unable, with the means at its disposal, to maintain the roads in the tea districts in efficient order. This memorial was laid before His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor by the District Officer. His Honour regretted his inability in the present meagre state of the Provincial finances to co-operate to the extent he would otherwise desire with the Committee and the local proprietors and lessees for the development of the estate, but promised to consider the matter as soon as he was in a position to do so.

6. Village roads.—A sum of Rs. 793 14 out of a budget provision of Rs. 895 was expended in repairing the village roads. The repairs were executed by the Road Cess establishment. No local influential persons undertook the execution of repairs to such roads. The state of the roads were fair throughout the year.

7. Tree planting.—Two hundred jack and mango trees were planted on the side of the Central Emigration road and strong bamboo fences were erected for their protection. One hundred orange, jack and mango trees were planted on the side of the Julpigoree to Alipore road and properly fenced in. All the trees planted during the past years were properly looked after. They are thriving well.

8. Work Establishment.—The establishment on work consists of one District Engineer, one Overseer and two Sub-Overseers. They have worked very well, and are intelligent men, especially Baboo Hari Gopal Mukerjee, Sub-overseer.

9. Committee's Establishment.—The establishment of the Committee consists of one accountant and head clerk and one assistant clerk. The accounts and the prescribed registers both for the offices of the Committee and the District Engineer are kept by the accountant, as the District Engineer has not a separate accountant of his own. The incumbents are the same as last year, and have worked well and given satisfaction.

10. Inspection of office.—The accounts of the year under report were audited by Baboo Bhut Nath Mazumdar, the Auditor of Local Accounts, during December 1886. C. Rivett Carnac, Esquire, the Examiner of Local Accounts, Bengal, inspected the office and the accounts for the cess year 1884-86 on the 10th of November last.

11. Audit of accounts.—The accounts of the Committee were audited and passed monthly by a Standing Sub-Committee, consisting of the Vice-Chairman and two other members of the Committee. The annual accounts of the past cess year were passed by the Audit Sub-Committee on the 1st and by the General Committee on the 11th December 1886.

* * * * * * *

13. Explanation of excess expenditure over the Budget allotments.—The budget allotment under the heading "Original works" has been exceeded by Rs. 4,163-8-3. This is due to the construction of the Chalsa road. A sum of Rs. 4,577-10-6, as per margin, was received into the District Road Fund for the road, and Rs. 4,603 5-3 has been expended on it. The receipts and the expenditure were not included in the Committee's budget estimates, as this road was not included in the Committee's list of roads. Besides the above expenditure of Rs. 4,603-5-3, a sum of Rs. 4,119-6-11 was also expended on the road from the Dooar's Improvement Fund. The work was executed by the Road Cess establishment, but the payment was made direct by the Deputy Commissioner, through the Revenue Department of his office.

	Rs.	A.	P.
Subscription from tea planters	2,600	0	0
Value of sal trees at the site of the road	1,977	10	6
Total ...	4,577	10	6

The excess expenditure of Rs. 138-10 on the Sudder station roads under the heading "Repairs" is due to the re-construction of an important culvert near the railway station, which unexpectedly gave way at the end of the year. Excess expenditure on repairs and other headings are so trifling as not to call for any explanation.

From—E. E. LOWIS, Esq., C.S., Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division.
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

I HAVE the honour to forward herewith in original the annual accounts and reports of the several District Road Cess Committees in this division for the cess year 1885-86.

2. The reports and the accounts of some of the districts were not received in my office in proper time, and again some of them had to be returned for revision.

The dates of final receipt were as follows:—

Dinagepore	December	27th 1886
Rajshahye	March	16th 1887
Pubna	Ditto	ditto
Bogra	January	24th 1887
Rungpore	March	23rd ,,
Julpigoree	February	12th ,,
Darjeeling	Ditto	ditto

3 Receipts and Expenditure.—The year opened with a balance of Rs. 1,98,530 in the hands of the several Committees in the division, and the net receipts of the year, exclusive of "deposits" and "advances" aggregated Rs. 4,83,164. The net disbursements of the year amounted to Rs. 5,04,968, leaving a balance of Rs. 1,82,867 at the end of the year.

Eighty four per cent. of the estimated amounts on original works and 80 per cent. of that on repair works were expended within the year.

4. Original Works.—The most important original works carried out in the division were the completion of the bridging of the feeder road from Madhadebpore to Sultanpore station of the Northern Bengal State Railway by the construction of a timber bridge of six spans of 20 feet each on the last remaining gap on this line by the District Road Cess Committee of Dinagepore; and the construction of 71 substantial masonry bridges and culverts on the important lines of communication in the Rungpore district, in the place of unsafe bamboo bridges, at a cost of Rs. 1,06,736.

The Rajshahye District Road Cess Committee renewed four bridges, aggregating 265 running feet at a cost of Rs. 12,415, on the three of the trunk lines of the district; and the Julpigoree District Road Cess Committee renewed, at a cost of Rs. 14,469 some of the bridges on the roads Boda to Domer, Julpigoree to Boda, and the central emigration road.

They also spent Rs. 14,523 towards the construction of the following roads: Julpigoree to Damdim, Julpigoree to Chalsa, Patgram to Bairagirhat and Ramshaihat to Nagrakotta.

There was no important original work carried out in the Bogra district; and the Pubna and the Darjeeling Committees could not take up the original works estimated for as the estimate for deepening the Telkupikhal in the Pubna district, and those for constructing bridges over the hill streams in the Darjeeling district, were not sanctioned in time.

5 Repairs.—The roads and tracks in the lists of the Committees were repaired and maintained in fair order and were kept in passable condition for traffic, so far as the funds at the disposal of the Committees permitted.

6 Establishment.—The aggregate cost of establishment in the whole division exclusive of that of the establishment of the Divisional Superintendent of Works was Rs. 99,358, being 20·5 per cent. of the net receipts of the year.

The expenditure on account of the Divisional Superintendent of Works amounted to Rs. 19,839, against Rs. 15,065, of the previous year, or 4·5 per cent. of the net receipts of all the Committees of this division, excepting Darjeeling Committee, which does not contribute towards the charges of the Divisional Superintendent.

This expenditure is not in excess of the usual charges for other years, though it appears to be so at first from the circumstance of the privilege leave allowance of the Divisional Superintendent for two months of 1884-85 being paid during the cess year 1885-86, and also to the establishment charges for September 1886 being paid within the cess year 1885-86, in order to close accounts with the Rajshahye and Pubna District Road Cess Committees, which, under the Local Self-Government Act, ceased to contribute towards the charges of the Divisional Superintendent from 1st October 1886.

I have to acknowledge the assistance I have received from the Divisional Superintendent of Works, Mr. Beatty, who is untiring in his efforts to develope the resources of the country by means of roads.

From—Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India,
To—His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council.

I FORWARD herewith a copy of a letter, and its enclosure, from Sir Archibald Campbell-Campbell, Bart., M P, and the Honourable the Lord-Provost of Glasgow, for the information of Your Excellency, and for such measures as you may see fit to take, with a view to give publicity to the proposal they announce for holding an International Exhibition at Glasgow during the summer of 1888.

No. 488, dated Glasgow, March 1887.

From—A. C. CAMPBELL, Esq., President, and the Hon'ble JAMES KING, Chairman, Executive Council, International Exhibition of Industry, Science, and Art, Glasgow,
To—Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

WE have the honour to inform Your Lordship that an International Exhibition of Industry, Science, and Art is to be held in Glasgow during the summer of 1888.

We enclose a list of the Executive Council, from which Your Lordship will see that the project is to be guided by the leading Noblemen and Gentlemen of Scotland, as well as by the most influential of the Citizens of Glasgow.

To show the interest taken in the proposed Exhibition, we may mention that the Guarantee Fund amounts to over £227,000, being larger than that raised by any previous Exhibition

As Glasgow may be regarded as the Commercial Capital of Scotland, it is of the utmost importance that exhibits of Indian industries and arts should be collected for the information and education of the people.

Recognising the great advantages which would accrue to the Exhibition through the support of Her Majesty's Government, we beg most respectfully to bring it under Your Lordship's notice, in the hope that you may be pleased to take measures for having the Exhibition made known throughout the Indian Empire by the India Office.

PROSPECTUS.

It has been decided to hold an International Exhibition at Glasgow during the Summer of 1888, and Her Majesty the Queen has been graciously pleased to lend her Royal patronage to the undertaking.

The proposal has been taken up by the Nobility and Gentry of Scotland, and by the Citizens of Glasgow and other Towns, with such general approval that the Guarantee Fund already exceeds £235,000, and is still being increased

The City of Glasgow is situated in the centre of the Chief Industries of Scotland, and has, including its suburbs, a population of 761,000, and including the surrounding districts and neighbouring towns, a population exceeding 1,500,000. Edinburgh and other centres of population are within one hour's journey, and Tourist routes to the Western Highlands radiate from Glasgow.

The objects of the Exhibition are to promote and foster Industry, Science, and Art, by inciting the inventive genius of our people to a still further development in Arts and Manufactures, and to stimulate Commercial Enterprise by inviting all Nations to exhibit their Products, both in the raw and finished state. Examples of the Manufactures by which Glasgow and the surrounding districts have become famous—Chemical, Iron, and other Mineral Products, Engineering, Shipbuilding, Electrical and Scientific Appliances, and Textile Fabrics—will be exhibited both in process of manufacture and in the finished state.

Similar and more varied Exhibits may be expected from other parts of Great Britain and from the Continent; whilst from America, India, the Canadian, Australian, Cape, and other Colonies, promises of substantial support have been received.

A Fine Art Section will form an important part of the Exhibition. For the accommodation of the Art Treasures and Historical Objects a special block of the building will be reserved; and the most ample precautions will be taken for the security of valuable property lent for the purposes of the Exhibition. A special Prospectus, Classification and series of Regulations will be issued for this Section.

Two Sections—viz., "The Women's Industries Section" and the "Artisan Section"—will be special features; and in connection with the former, Her Grace the Duchess of Abercorn is Convener for Ireland, the Right Hon'ble the Countess of Rosebery for England and Wales, and the Hon'ble Lady Campbell, of Blythswood, and Mrs. King for Scotland, the Colonies, and Foreign Countries.

The site which has been granted by the City Corporation for the Exhibition Buildings extends to 60 acres, and is one of exceptional beauty and convenience. It comprises the Western portion of the Kelvingrove Park and the slopes of Gilmorehill, which are crowned by the University Buildings

The Buildings which it is proposed to construct will cover about 10 acres, and will be erected according to plans prepared by eminent architects. The ornamental flower pots, pond, and fountains of the Kelvingrove Park will be included in the Exhibition Grounds, and the terraces in front of the University Buildings are well adapted for the effective display of electric lighting and pyrotechnic illuminations, as well as for the enjoyment of musical promenades and other entertainments which it is intended to provide.

The River Kelvin, which intersects the grounds, will be available for the Exhibition of Naval Shipbuilding and Life-Saving Apparatus, either in motion or not The reach of the river which can be utilised for this purpose has a length of 1,500 feet, a width of 90 feet, and a depth of 6 feet.

The situation of the Exhibition Buildings is specially convenient of access for Exhibitors, as by means of the lines of rails—which can be made use of at night for the passage of railway trucks, and which will, if possible, be carried into the Exhibition Grounds at more than one point—heavy goods can be delivered at a minimum cost and with the least possible amount of risk. In addition to this, the port of Glasgow offers a cheap and ready means for the delivery and redelivery of sea-borne goods

It is intended to afford full postal, telephonic, telegraphic, and banking facilities within the Exhibition Buildings, so that all necessary business may be conducted by Exhibitors and others without leaving the premises.

The whole arrangements are in the hands of the Executive Council, which has been chosen from the General Council of Guarantors, and has for its Chairman the Hon. the Lord-Provost of Glasgow.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

Explanation.—Summary.—The normal means of air pressure and temperature are the arithmetical average or means of the reading during the same period for the past ten
The humidity of the atmosphere is expressed as percentage, saturated air being represented by 100. A clear sky is denoted by 0 and an overcast sky by 10. The numbe are the numerical means or average of the rainfall in that district determined from the returns sent in by the sub-divisional station for the period in question during the past 1 station in the district sending in returns divided by the number of stations. A rainy day is one on which at least hundredth of an inch fell.

CALCUTTA, the 28th June 1887.

SUMMARY OF THE RAINFALL AND METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 24TH OF JUNE 1887.

At the close of the previous week the meteorological conditions which obtained over the province were not very far removed from the normal, except that on Friday, the 17th, a rather strong westerly element was present in the wind directions in Bengal, pointing probably to a considerable extension of the Bombay branch of the monsoon current, and which had to a certain extent driven back the monsoon current blowing from the Bay of Bengal. On Saturday, the 18th, the westerly element in the wind directions was decreasing in force, and these winds were being driven back by a slight increase in the strength of the Bengal current. On this day, therefore, conditions were only fairly favourable for rainfall, and moderate rain was reported from the south-western and northern districts. On Sunday, the 19th, the 10 A.M. observations showed clearly that a very feeble whirl or barometric depression had formed over the Sunderbans, the centre of the whirl being apparently only a short distance to the south-east of Saugor Island. On this day the wind direction at the stations at the head of the Bay showed a distinct cyclonic circulation in connection with the feeble whirl, but the wind velocites were in all cases light. On Sunday rainfall was fairly general in South-West Bengal and Orissa, and in some cases decidedly heavy in connection with the small depression, but the indraught towards it to a certain extent stopped the progress of the monsoon current over Bengal, and rainfall was to a great extent absent in East and North Bengal and in Behar. On Monday, at 10 A.M., the very feeble storm had moved in a north-westerly direction, and its centre was between Burdwan, Ranigunge and Bancoorah, and apparently approaching Ranigunge, and round the storm wind directions showed a very complete cyclonic circulation. It had also intensified slightly on this day, and the depression was very distinctly perceptible, though the wind force in connection with it was small. The feeble storm, however, brought up a rather heavy burst of rainfall to the area affected by it, and by allowing the monsoon current to again advance over the land, rainfall extended to other parts of Bengal also, and on this day heavy rain was reported over a large part of the province. On Tuesday, the 21st, the storm had again advanced in a north-westerly direction, and its centre was in South Behar. It was on this day probably becoming more feeble, and it was then a decidedly shallow depression, the centre of which was between Gya and Bhagulpore. On Tuesday rainfall became lighter in South-West Bengal, Orissa and to a certain extent in East Bengal, but the area of heavy rainfall extended to the northern districts of the province, and on this day heavy rain fell in Behar and North Bengal. The feeble storm then commenced to break up, and in its disappearance again produced heavy rain over the whole of the northern districts of the province, and on Wednesday, the 22nd, the storm had scarcely any well defined existence at all. The very feeble storm having thus disappeared, conditions became nearly normal, and rainfall decreased in quantity and also in area.

The pressure changes which were taking place during the week were also important, and, with the exception of the area immediately affected by the depression above described, pressure has been rising almost steadily throughout the week over the remainder of the province. With the disappearance of the depression, therefore, on Friday, the 24th, pressure became largely above the normal over the whole province, the average excess in Bengal generally being greater than a tenth of an inch, while the excess in Assam was only equal to about half this amount. This extremely large excess pressure has naturally had the effect of stopping the flow of the monsoon current over Bengal, and thus conditions had become favourable for a break in the rains at the end of the week.

Pressure—As above stated, has risen almost steadily throughout the week over the province, except over that part which was affected by the feeble storm. The mean pressure for the week is therefore above the normal at almost all stations. Taking only into consideration those stations from which averages have been obtained for a considerable number of years, the average excess pressure for the week has been nearly 0·03″. At Calcutta, however, near which the centre of the feeble storm must have passed, pressure has been in defect by 0·007″. The largest variations from the normal have been an excess of 0·052″ at Cuttack and one of 0·047″ at Hazaribagh. In the previous week the average pressure was rather considerably below the normal in all districts.

Temperature.—Owing to the heavy rainfall which has been received in Behar and North Bengal, temperature in these districts is rather largely below the normal; and the defect in North Behar equals 2·3°, in South Behar 2·1°, and in North Bengal 1·4°. In Chutia Nagpur also the mean temperature has been below the normal by 1·1°, and in Assam the defect is 0·7°. South-West Bengal and Orissa, on the other hand, have had a normal temperature, and in East Bengal the temperature has been 0·5° above the normal for the period. For the whole of Bengal, therefore, temperature has been about 1° in defect of the normal for the week.

Rainfall—Has been in excess of the normal in all districts except East Bengal, where there has been a small defect. North Bengal has received an average fall of no less than 8·70 inches falling on an average of 5·1 days in the week. This amount is no less than 4·16 inches in excess of the normal, which is 4·54 inches, and this district has therefore received a fall almost twice as large as usual. North Behar has received 5·50 inches, which is no less than 3·05 inches in excess of the normal for the week, and thus this district has received considerably more than twice the normal rainfall South-West Bengal has received an average fall of 3·40 inches, the normal fall for the week being 2·55 inches, and the actual is thus distinctly larger than the normal. South Behar has received 2·80 inches against the normal 1·94 inches, Orissa an actual fall of 2·76 inches against 2·18 inches, and Chutia Nagpur a fall of 2·72 inches against the normal 2·38 inches; and thus each of these districts has received a fall considerably larger than the normal. East Bengal, on the other hand, has only received an average rainfall of 3·60 inches, the normal fall being 4·40 inches, and is thus distinctly, though not very largely, in defect.

In Assam rainfall has been general and frequent throughout the week, and at those stations from which reports are received, the following falls are recorded :— at Dhubri 5·56 inches, at Sibsagar 3·98 inches, and at Silchar 2·10 inches.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the Province for the week ending Friday, the 24th of June 1887 :—
